Social Enterprise Division of I-India

I.I/ NGO/2014/

July 21, 2014

To Whom It May Concern

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to have this opportunity to introduce our charity I-India, a fully registered non-profit NGO established in Jaipur, India. The organization reach around 4000 children and youth daily through projects. It was established in 1993 and employs a groups of full time staff and dedicated volunteers from India and overseas. The organization heavily relies on volunteer services towards specialised fields such as: arts, PR, IT and fundraising.

The organization is also promoting a social enterprise under the name of Ladli, which ensure sustainable livelihoods for its beneficiaries and producers, especially young adults and women groups' belonging most disadvantaged communities. The enterprise promoting and developing quality hand made products based on the principles of fair trade and ensures a fair incentive and profit to its producers. Profits earned from ethical marketing go back to ensure a better life for the communities, as beneficiaries are shareholders in social enterprise.

We are pleased to state that Ms. Shivangi Sharma a student of ICG College, Jaipur has worked with our Social Enterprise as an intern during the period from June to July 2014 (45 days). She has mainly worked on designing garments and textile printing for Ladli Vocational training centre and further assisted the project to make our beneficiaries aware on overall design aesthetics and enhancement of creativity.

In the process of her participation, she tried to understand the phenomena & process of production at vocational training centre and supervised some business orders placed by ethical and fair trade organizations based in Singapore and Australia.

We found Ms. Sharma as an honest, sincere student committed for the development of creative arts.

We wish her great success in life.

Sincerely yours,

Abha Goswami

Secretary
