

Annual Report

2019-20

VISION

- To be an International Model Institution for students' success beyond expectations.
- To promote and maintain academic excellence.
- To transform the dreams and aspirations of the youth to reality. To strive and seek to cater to the global needs

MISSION

- To empower the student youth to realize that they determine the outcome of their own lives.
- To provide a conducive environment for the development of an individual's personality.
- To have an unflinching faith in the potential of the youth and to ignite young minds and develop the convictions in them discarding those that hold them back.
- To cherish the Indian value system with a laid emphasis on the Indian culture, traditions and heritage, imbibing the best of the west at the same time.
- To support a proper harnessing of latent talents and to encourage the students to take initiatives.
- To provide a learning environment in which the students and the faculty are driven by the spirit of enquiry in their quest for knowledge.
- To encourage students to appreciate the natural and artistic realms of life.
- To grasp and imbibe the complexity of moral issues.
- To recognize the significance of growth and technologies.
- To understand and appreciate human differences in culture, gender and race.
- To provide opportunities for the greatest possible achievement and attainment to each and every individual.

GOALS

- To develop a combination of knowledge and skills to promote modern outlook and a scientific temper.
- To generate social consciousness among the youth to meet the challenges of society and the world at large.
- To promote International understanding and world fellowship through global education and exchange of ideas, and knowledge.
- To provide quality education for self-reliance.
- To groom the young girls into dynamic, charismatic and WORLD-READY WOMEN.

INCEPTION

The IISU grew out of the International College for Girls (ICG) which was established in 1995, as a college affiliated to the University of Rajasthan. Since then, ICG has crossed many significant milestones in its journey towards excellence in higher education. Besides receiving numerous other accolades, it was accredited A+ by the NAAC of UGC in 2005. It was also identified as a Model College by the state government in 2006 and thereafter it was conferred the status of Autonomous College in 2007 by the U.G.C. It was further recognized as a College with Potential for Excellence (CPE) by the UGC in 2010. In a national survey conducted by AC-Nielsen-ORG MARG, also in 2010 for the India Today magazine, ICG was rated as the topmost college in the state in Arts, Science and Commerce streams. Ranked among the top 30 institutions of the country in this survey, the College became a symbol of quality education and women's empowerment. The institution while working as an Autonomous College was declared as Deemed-to-be-a-University by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India, vide its notification dated 2nd February, 2009, issued under Section 3 of the UGC Act, 1956. This, more than an achievement, was a reaffirmation of our faith in the quality and innovation, in research and academics taken up at the institution right from its inception in 1995. Soon after becoming Deemed University in the name and style of 'The IIS University', in a review conducted by the 'Tandon Committee' constituted by the MHRD, it was recognized for its competence and strength and was placed in category 1, along with the 37 other Deemed-to-be-Universities of Category 1 across the country. This has accorded IISU greater reliability and credibility and provided with a unique opportunity to explore and put in place what is needed to empower its students through the three Es -Efficiency, Excellence and Effectiveness and prepare them as worthy citizens, ready to take up social and economic reforms with a scientific aptitude.

Thus, from a visionary beginning in 1995, IISU is now moving on to new heights as a digitally smart campus with contemporary and relevant programmes and e-learning systems. Alongside its rapid growth and development, the University retains a friendliness and warmth, which has characterized the institution from its early days. With about 5000 students on its rolls and more than 300 faculty and staff members, it offers Undergraduate, Postgraduate and Doctoral degree programmes in streams like, Arts, Humanities, Visual Arts, Science, Home Science, Social Sciences, Computer Science and IT, Commerce and Management, Fashion Designing, Jewellery Designing etc. A multidisciplinary University, its curriculum requires both breadth of learning and in-depth knowledge and prepares its graduates to be problem- solvers, communicators and ethical citizens of a global community.

Cloud Computing

Venue: IIS (deemed to be) University

Date: 20 July, 2019

Name of Guests: Mr. Vinod Sharma

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized a guest lecture on “Cloud Computing” lead by Mr. Vinod Sharma, Professor & Head Department of Computer Science & IT University of Jammu. Mr. Vinod is specialized in Database Management System, Data Mining, Artificial Intelligence.

In this interactive session the students were given a brief description of the following:

- Introduction
- Need of Cloud Computing.
- Different types of Cloud Computing.
- Roles of Cloud Computing.

The students were provided the information on cloud computing where he told the students about the growing need of computers in our day to day life so the computing resources that we need also go up. For companies like Google and Microsoft, harnessing the resources as and when they need it is not a problem. But when it comes to smaller enterprises, affordability becomes a huge factor. With the huge infrastructure come problems like machines failure, hard drive crashes, software bugs, etc. This might be a big headache for such a community. Cloud Computing offers a solution to this situation.

He explained what the cloud computing exactly mean in real life. A cloud is a virtualized server pool which can provide the different computing resources of their clients. Users of this system need only be concerned with the computing service being asked for. The underlying details of how it is achieved are hidden from the user. The data and the services provided reside in massively scalable data centers and can be ubiquitously accessed from any connected device all over the world.

He further discussed different types of cloud computing. Also he motivated students that cloud computing enables innovation by alleviating the need of innovators to find resources to develop, test, and make their innovations available to the user community. Innovators are free to focus on the innovation rather than the logistics of finding and managing resources that enable the innovation.

At the conclusion of the session the query round was held in which the students got an opportunity to put forward questions to satisfy their curiosity. The overall session was enlightening and the students enjoyed it. The session ended with thank you note by expressing gratitude to Mr. Sharma for taking out time from his busy schedule and making the students aware of the basics of Cloud Computing.

Mr. Vinod Sharma

Lecture Series on Thinking Literature

The Department organised another Enrichment Lecture on 20 July 2019 on the topic Thinking Literature by Prof. Ashutosh Mohan, Dean, Department of English, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Delhi. Dr. Mohan's conversational interaction with the students and faculty members of the department, underlined his focus on the importance of pushing deeper into the analysis of texts and characters to better grasp concepts that would allow a wider understanding of the focus

Chemistry

Contribution of Mathematics in Chemistry

Date- 20th July 2019

Venue- Ojas Hall

Participants: M.Sc., B.Sc. (H) Sem I students

Number of students: 25

Resource Person- Dr. Surendra Agarwal, Assoc, Prof., Department of Mathematics, IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur

Department of Chemistry, IIS (deemed to be University) organized a guest lecture on "Contribution of Mathematics in Chemistry" for undergraduate and postgraduate students. Lecture was given by Dr. Surendra Agarwal, Associate Prof., Department of Mathematics, IIS University, Jaipur. He wonderfully explained the importance of Mathematics in Science especially in Chemistry. He also explained some general approach to solve the problems in Chemistry based on Mathematics. Students were enlightened and quite delighted to understand the use of Mathematics in Chemistry.

Chemistry

Series of Guest Lectures on Computational Chemistry

Date- 22nd -25th July 2019

Time- 8.00-10:00 am

Venue- Ojas Hall

Participants: M.Sc. Semester III students and Research Scholars

Resource Person- Dr. Tanmoy Chakraborty, Assoc. Prof., Manipal University, Jaipur

Department of Chemistry, IIS (Deemed to be University) organized a series of guest lectures on "Computational Chemistry" for postgraduate students. Lectures were given by Dr. Tanmoy Chakraborty, Associate Prof., Department of Chemistry, Manipal University, Jaipur. He introduced the concept of Computational Chemistry along with its scope in Chemistry. He wonderfully explained different types of methods used in computational chemistry such as electronic structure method, molecular mechanics methods, and density functional methods. In the last lecture, he demonstrated the computational procedures to study some simple systems computationally.

Students were enlightened and quite delighted to understand the concept, scope and application of Computational Chemistry.

Guest Lecture Heat Transport and Thermal Devices

Date: July 25, 2019

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: AV Hall, IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur

The Department of Physics organized a guest lecture on Heat Transport and Thermal Devices for the students of physics in AV Hall, IIS University on 25th July, 2019. The speaker was Prof. P.N. Gajjar, who is presently the Head of Department of Physics, Electronics and Space Sciences, University School of Sciences, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad.

Dr. Krishna S. Sharma, Advisor, IIS (deemed to be University), felicitated Prof. P.N. Gajjar for the guest lecture.

Prof. Gajjar started the lecture by discussing the common views on physics and physicists. He then informed the students about the various areas where physics is being used extensively and what area still requires exploration. He gave many real-life examples and stated short stories which made the lecture very interesting and interactive. He shared with students, an interesting fact that over 70% of all jobs require awareness of physics, thus broadening their vision about the subject. He also discussed his research work on Functional Material: Thermal Rectification & NDTR (Negative Differential Thermal Resistance). His main idea was about utilizing the heat, generated by the machinery we use (such as computer processor and car engine), for warming the food or for other purposes.

Guest Lecture by Prof. P.N. Gajjar

Guest Lecture

- SPEAKER: Dr. M C Arunan, Kishore Bharti Fellow and Visiting Scientist, CUBE, HBSCE, TIFR, Mumbai
- TOPIC: “Science and Society”
- Date: 25th July, 2019
- Time: 1.30 PM
- Venue: Aditya Hall

A Guest Lecture on “Science and Society” was delivered by Dr. M C Arunan, Kishore Bharti Fellow and Visiting Scientist, CUBE, HBSCE, TIFR, Mumbai. He talked about the ways of nurturing the young curative minds in the arena of science. He tried to define new domains of science in our daily life just by changing our perception. He quoted the saying of Dr. O Siddiqui “Sophistication is in the mind so we don’t have to limit ourselves because of lack of resources.” He inspired the students by inciting the thought of raising questions and finding answers and utilizing right tools for analysis and right interpretation. Understanding science, classical scientific research and characteristics of research were briefly discussed by the concept of “Gully Cricket”. He wrapped the discussion with few examples to make students understand the role of science in society.

Dr. M C Arunan, Kishore Bharti Fellow and Visiting Scientist, CUBE, HBSCE, TIFR, Mumbai

Guest lecture on “ACCA as a Career Option”

On 26th July 2019, IIS deemed to be university organized a guest lecture on "ACCA as a Career Option" for students of semester I , III and V of B.Com (H) in Applied Accounting & Finance. The event witnessed the presence of various dignitaries associated with ACCA and ISDC - Mr. Kush Ahuja, Mr. Varun Shafma, Mr. Prabhanshu Mittal, Mr. Krishan Mishra and Mr. Anurag Rana.

The interactive session provided students better understanding of the course they had opted. The Sem I students were informed about the various papers, their fee, structure and dates of examinations. The students got to know that ACCA is not a qualification just limited to corporate sector but much beyond.

Ms. Aashna Lalwani , batch 2015-18 ACCA student and now an ACCA affiliate, also shared her experience with her juniors and gave them useful tips on paper writing.

Students also asked their queries. By the end of the event, students had the confidence on their face that they had taken the right decision.

Opportunities in Remote Sensing Centres

Venue: CIT LAB B

Date: 27/07/2019

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized a guest lecture on “Opportunities in Remote Sensing Centres” lead by Ms. Jaya Saxena, Scientist E, National Remote Sensing Centre (NSRC), Hyderabad.

In this interactive session the students were given a brief description of the following:

- What is NSRC?
- Working and functionalities of satellites
- Images manipulation
- Brief of Chandrayan-2

The students were introduced to The National Remote Sensing Centre of Hyderabad. She also told them about what are the different job opportunities that they can get in remote sensing field, how the images captured by satellites are manipulated using coding in order to receive information about different areas of our planet. She also briefed students about the mechanics behind Chandrayan-2.

At the conclusion of the session the query round was held in which the students got an opportunity to put forward questions to sate their curiosity. The overall session was enlightening and the students got an exposure on some new working areas in the space field. The session ended with thank you note by expressing gratitude to Ms. Jaya for taking out time from her busy schedule and making the students aware of coming opportunities.

Guest Lecture by Ms. JAYA SAXENA

Guest Lecture on E- MARKETING

On 1st August, 2019 Ms. Shubhangi Bhadauria, a student of M.Com Final year and also an entrepreneur was invited to give a presentation on her business model. She has a business which basically uses the social networking application Instagram to showcase her offering to the online outlet. Her Instagram handle is Paridhan_by_shubhangi_kanwar and she specializes in rajputi poshak and sari's. The students got to know about the various pros and cons of the E- Marketing and how it can help people with less investment to actually start a business online. She discussed her supply chain and the delivery process also. She also discussed the way she is able to manage her online business with her studies and the various problems that she faced while doing this business. It was interesting and knowledgeable session for all the students. Students from COSD Cyber Law and B.Com & M.Com students attended the session.

Guest Lecture by Ms. Shubhangi Bhadauria

Name of Activity: Guest Lecture

Name of Guest: Dr. NalinN. Jani

Venue: IIS University

Date: 3rd August 2019

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized a guest lecture on “Industrial Orientation and Skill Empowerment” lead by Dr. NalinN. Jani, Director of S.K. Patel Institute of Management and Computer Science.

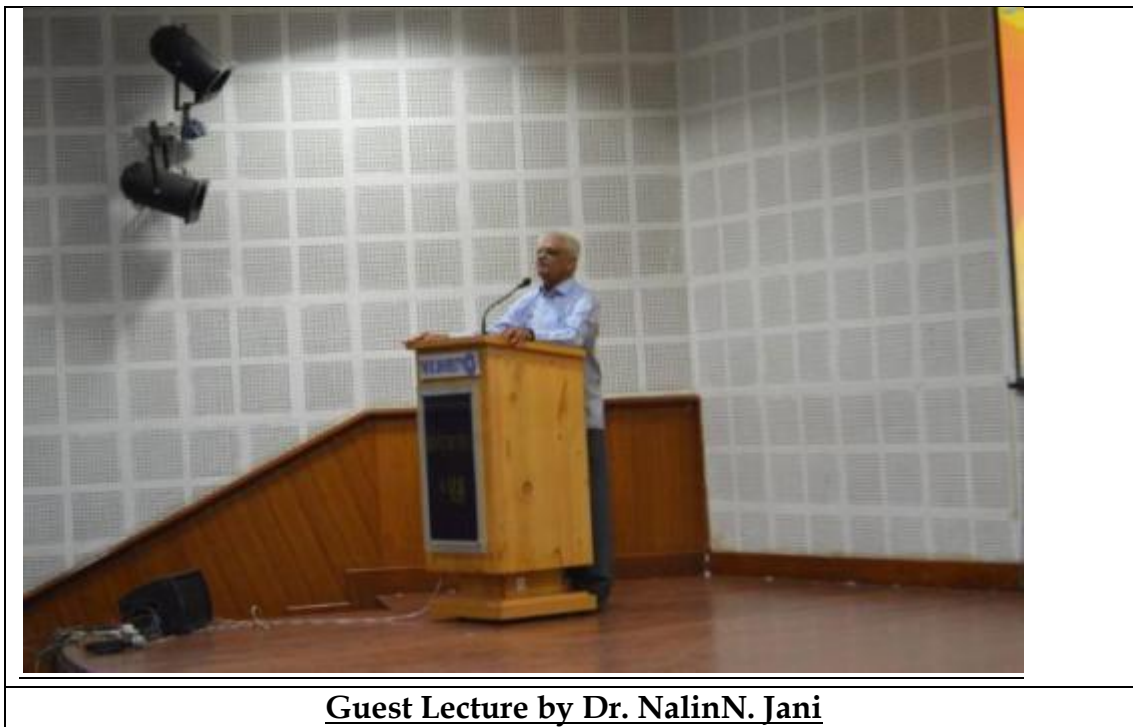

In this interactive session the students were given a brief description of the following:

- Skill Building
- Technology Skill Set
- Emergence of IOT

Dr. Jani oriented students on skill building and motivated the students to have hands on experience with smart technology skill set and also provided them with industry relevant information on topic. He also acquainted students with emergence of IoT as one of the key levers in IT industry and its amalgamation in everyday life. Dr. Jani further motivated the students to not only focus on application development but to lay stress on product development.

At the conclusion of the session the query round was held in which the students got an opportunity to put forward questions to satiate their curiosity. The overall session was enlightening and the students got an exposure to IT industry. The session ended with thank you note by expressing gratitude to Dr. N.N. Jani for taking out time from his busy schedule and making the students aware of the industrial technology.

Guest Lecture by Dr. NalinN. Jani

Enrichment Lecture - Department of English

The Department of English organised an Enrichment Lecture on 3 August 2018 on the topic Feminism and the Indian Cultural Context. The session was led by Prof. Pankaj K. Singh, formerly Chairperson, Dept. of English, and Dean, Faculty of Languages, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla. Dr. Singh substantiated her viewpoint that literature is being re-read from women's point of view to interrogate patriarchy. She also used a PPT presentation to point specifically at the marked differences in the offered perspectives of female and male appearances, and the implied meanings of such images.

Guest Lecture on "Goal Setting- Pathway to Success"

The Department of Business Studies organised a Guest Lecture on the topic "Goal Setting- Pathway to Success" for the students of BSG and BSR of I,III and V sem on August 8, 2019 at 10:30 am at the Vinayak Hall, IISU Campus.

Ms Meeta Mathur was invited as the resource person. She is an entrepreneur and exporter by profession, assisting her buyers to procure seamlessly best products from India and South Asia. She is also highly motivated corporate trainer, leveraging educational theories and methodologies to design, develop and deliver successful training programmes and activities.

The lecture was instrumental in acquainting the students to adapt themselves for the challenging corporate life. The lecture was highly interactive wherein Dr. Meeta Mathur was able to help students understand the importance of setting goals for you long-term vision and short-term motivation.

Guest lecture by Ms Meeta Mathur

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

A guest lecture was being organised at The IIS (Deemed to be University) by the Department of Economics on the 9th of August, 2019. The session was given by Prof. Ganesh Kawadia, who is a very honourable and learned professor from Indore. In his session he focused on various aspects of research and the methodology behind it. He guided and motivated the students to come forward in the field of research and to help the society by their valuable findings regarding various economic and social issues. He highlighted various problems in conducting a research and gave the solutions to overcome such problems. The important things are highlighted below:-

Two methods of research: Scientific method and Non scientific method.

Research's main aim: to find solution to the problems and starts with a research question.

Research should have suggestions based on the study and researcher should be able to make reliable predictions of the problems.

The research should create new tools, concepts and theories.

Research should analyse inter relationship between variables and should be able to help the researcher reach casual explanations.

Prof. Kawadia suggested various ideas and tools that can be used to develop a research theory. He gave some steps of research and those steps are:-

1. Identification of topic
 2. Research questions
 3. Review of literature
 4. Identification of research gaps : What is left to be researched in the study
 5. Research objectives
 6. Research hypothesis
 7. Methodology
 8. Research design
 9. Research area
 10. Analysis of data and results
 11. Conclusions
 12. Suggestions based on our own study not the generalised suggestion.
 13. Bibliography
 14. Reference : people whose ideas we have taken
- So in this way he enlightened us with his valuable knowledge and shared the information which he had gained from his vast experience.

Guest lecture on Rajput Mughal Relations after Aurangzeb

The Department of History organized a Guest lecture on Rajput Mughal Relations after Aurangzeb for the Students of Department of History on 19th August 2019. The Guest Speaker on this Occasion was Professor Inayat Zaidi (Former Professor, Department of History & Culture, Faculty of Humanities and Languages, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi).

The guest was welcomed by floral greetings by the head of the Dept. Professor Sharad Rathore, who went on to give a short introduction about him. The speaker started with the issues in Jammu Kashmir after the abrogation of Article 370 and Article 35A. He further spoke about the regional conflicts between Rajputs, Jats, Brahmins and other communities. And how Matrimonial alliances with other communities were used to resolve these conflicts and establish cordial relations.

He also elaborated about Akbar's policies regarding Rajput-Mughal relations and their effectiveness. How these policies were modified by subsequent Mughal rulers was also discussed. Moreover he also quoted various examples of the inter-caste marriages between Rajputs and Mughals.

He told the students that several accounts were available for the justification of these relations.

Lastly, a student presented the vote of thanks to the guest. Overall, it was a successful session which is supposed to help the students in their studies immensely.

Guest lecture on Gandhian Symbolism

On the occasion of 150th Anniversary celebration of Mahatma Gandhi the Department of History, Political Science and Public Administration jointly organized a Guest lecture on Gandhian Symbolism for the Students of Semester I of B.A, B.A(H) and B.Ed on 2nd September 2019. The Guest Speaker on this occasion was Dr. Sangeeta Sharma (Associate Professor, Department of History and Indian Culture & Director, Centre for Rajasthan Studies, University of Rajasthan). Ms. Devyani Singh Rathore introduced the speaker to the audience. Prof Sharad Rathore (Head, Department of History) expressed a token of gratitude to the Dr. Sangeeta Sharma.

In this lecture, Dr. Sangeeta Sharma discussed the symbols used by Mahatma Gandhi in the national movement to reach out to the masses. She talked about the difference between the symbol of monarchy and that of Gandhi. She discussed the symbol of salt used by Gandhiji in 1930 Civil Disobedience Movement, The Dandi March saw Gandhiji marching from Sabarmati to Dandi, where he broke the law of making own salt followed by people. This way he was successful in establishing bonds with common masses by using salt as the main symbol because salt was the most common item of consumption by all people rich or poor.

She also said that the Gandhiji used many symbols in the national movement and his most important symbol was Charkha. Khadi and charkha were very popular in Rajasthan too especially in Bijolia movement. Charkha embodied several things: Swadeshi, self-sufficiency and patriotism etc. Later on, charkha was used all across the country as a major symbol of the National Movement. Khadi signified the symbols of sacrifices and simplicity. She also said that the woman's also played an important role in popularizing khadi in the freedom movement in Rajasthan such as Ratan Devi Shastri, wife of Hiralal Shastri, who played an important role in Prajamandal movement. However, she also pointed out that fast was also an important symbol of Gandhiji.

It was a learning and interactive session, the students asked many relevant questions to Dr. Sangeeta Sharma. Then this was followed by a formal Vote of Thanks by Ms. Devyani Rathore from III Semester.

Intellectual Property Rights in the field of Jewellery Designing

A guest lecture on “Intellectual Property Rights in the field of Jewellery Designing” has been organised dated 19 Oct’19 in the Department of Jewellery Designing at the IIS (Deemed to be University) Jaipur where the resource person is IP Facilitator Pankaj Kumar arranged by the IP Management Cell (IPMC) of the University.

More particularly, it covers basics of IPRs, categories and the types of IPRs, introduction of various IPRs, rationale behind IPRs, balancing of the rights, objectives, options to the innovators.

The beneficiaries of the program were around 20 students and 2 teaching staffs from the department. During the interaction, some participants showed their created designs and requested copyright and Industrial design registration. The course develops cultural, business and professional awareness as well as communication skills. Work becomes increasingly self-directed through the course.

Some participants informed that so far they share their created design to any person interested and put such designs in open access and now they realized that it would be difficult to prohibit other person to misappropriate other creation until the claim supported by strong evidences which may be admissible to the law of courts. There are some tips given how to freeze the evidence of such creation helpful later to prove the rights.

The interaction indicated that there are potential in some candidate who may start their own design boutique after completion of the formal education. Further such candidates having awareness in IPR and preferably having some certification in the subject may be preferred in placement.

Organized for (Target Group): The students of Bsc. Jewellery Design & Technology, BA/BCom./Bsc. Elective Jewellery Design & Technology & COSD Jewellery Designing(Certificate & Diploma course & Advance Diploma Course).

Community Development through NGOs

‘Progress has a plural connotation; it cannot be steered by a single person’. For any society to grow institutional approaches along with the involvement of community is equally essential as today’s world is moving towards greater interdependence. There is no criterion to engage in community development except willingness to help. This same thought was the reason for Mahavir International to emerge which is an NGO working for the marginalised sections of the community. The NGO based on the principles of Lord Mahavir, ‘Love all, Serve all’ focuses on the all round development of women and children across all forms of socio-cultural barriers. Rashmi Saraswat, a doctor by profession represented Mahavir International, Jaipur and oriented the students about the functioning and initiatives taken by the NGO and the impact of the same. They have started various national projects like ‘Vatsalya’ and ‘Amba’ which are focussing on the health of women during pregnancy and empowering women respectively. These two are just two of the nine national projects the organisation has undertaken to help the community.

As we know that India has a bleak picture to present when it comes to maternal health specially in the case of rural women and hence Mahavir international under various initiatives distribute 'Poshan kit' which consists of pulses ,nuts ,jaggery ,ORS and glucose etc. Their approach is to provide pregnant women with a nutritional kit that has all the essentials which are affordable and highly beneficial to the health of the women and they also provide women with baby kits which are prepared by the local women who are paid for the number of kits they make and hence this initiative has led to financial independence for women. The organisation thrives on huge participation of the volunteers in various projects they undertake. For women , they run viable skill development programmes and there is self-defence training being organised ,there are awareness programmes regarding POSCO Act and other government initiatives. The organisation also came up with setting up of breast-feeding booths for women in various parts of Jaipur and they would continue to construct more as per feasibility. They also organise health check-up camps from time to time. All these activities can engage community at both micro and macro levels. The society can through its little actions can bring upon really big changes.

The session indeed had a lot in store for the students to understand how NGOs spearhead development. Students did put up questions at the end of the session. It was truly inspirational to know how members in the society can contribute towards a holistic development

Guest lecture by Professor Pranab Banerji

CURRENT ECONOMIC SCENARIO

The Department of Economics organised a guest lecture on 'Current Economic Scenario' for the students of economics of both UG and PG courses on 25th January, 2020. The speaker for the lecture was Professor Pranab Banerji who has been a professor of Economics at Indian Institute of Public Administration and Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Public Administration, Mussoorie. He has been a Visiting Professor at the Centre of Economic Studies and Planning, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi and Guest Faculty at IIM Rohtak, NTPC Business School Noida, RGIPT (under Ministry of Petroleum) and School of Planning and Architecture , New Delhi. There were fifty students who attended the lecture.

Prof C.R.Bishnoi, head, Department of Economics, felicitated Prof. Banerji. In his lecture, Prof.Banerji discussed the current state of Indian economy and why the year 2019 witnessed the slowdown of Indian Economy. According to him, the fall in the rate of growth of GDP (Gross Domestic Product) of India affected the overall performance of the economy. He provided insight into the theory of macroeconomics which can be studied to determine how the changes in the components of aggregate demand- consumption, investment, government expenditure and exports, can affect the growth of GDP. Decrease in consumption of consumer goods and automobile goods are causing unemployment, further decline in profits and capital formation are causing fall in investments. All of this is also creating uncertainty in the financial market. The other have been decline in the incomes of farmers and increase in the educated unemployment, income inequalities and stagnation of income of middle class. Also decline in exports and government spending are affecting aggregate demand in the economy.

In the interactive session with the students, Prof. Banerji also discussed some solutions to combat slowdown, which are- creation of job opportunities, consumption of basic consumer goods to increase overall consumption and investments in the economy.

This lecture threw light on the current status of Indian economy and it made all the students aware of reasons behind it in a clear and effective manner.

Impact of genomics on everyday life

A Guest Lecture on “Impact of genomics on everyday life” was delivered by Mr. Avinash Dhar, Program Manager, Bionivid Technology Pvt. Ltd. 4th Cross 4C-209, Kasturi Nagar, Bangalore-560043, INDIA under Genomic awareness program for research scholars, post graduate and undergraduate students. He talked about Hands on training on RNA Sequence Analytics using OPEN SOURCE tools and commands (Raw data QC, Alignment/Assembly, Annotation, Differential Expression Analysis and Significant Biological Interpretations. He talked about bottleneck in this field. Since genomics is a data driven domain, more the data being generated, more is the manpower required to analyze the data. Close to 40 exabytes of the sequencing data is expected to be generated peryear by 2025. The lack of skilled manpower is proving out to be a big bottleneck in this opportunity abundant domain.

This lecture surely will help students in deep Understanding of Functional Genomics. It will also aid to the students and scientists who are planning to work on Next Generation Sequencing Based research projects using RNA-Seq, ChIp- Seq, DNA-Seq, Amplicon Seq,etc.

Mobile Application Development

Department of Computer Science and IT organized a guest lecture on Mobile App Development on 2 March 2020 for the students of BCA (all semesters). The session was lectured by Mr. Akarsh Middha. He is currently working as a Freelancer Android Developer.

He apprised the students about developing the mobile apps using different platforms and methods. He used some of his original work to explain this to students and also manifested the working of Amazon's Alexa and the basic coding engineering behind it.

The session was edified by having the interaction session after his explanation. Our students got the opportunity to satiate their curiosity by having the answers to all their queries. Overall the session was very informative. Thus, students look forward for another such interaction in future

Alpha particle scattering and Rutherford Nuclear model of atom

The Department of Physics organized a guest lecture on "Alpha particle scattering and Rutherford Nuclear model of atom" for the students of physics in AV Hall, IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur on 3rd March, 2020. The speaker was Prof. Y. K. Vijay, who is presently the Director, CIST, IIS(Deemed to be University), Jaipur. Dr. Nidhi Bhargava, Head (Department of Physics) facilitated Dr. Vijay and Ms. Neeraj Kulhari introduced the topic of the lecture to the students.

In this lecture he discussed about the particles like Alpha, Beta, Gamma and their decay process in Nuclear Physics. After that he showed up the experimental devices

& some filters used in the experiment. He also introduced to the students many exclusive examples in scattering within the reference to Rutherford scattering. He also showed a vacuum globe shape device in which lights interact with each other just as in Rutherford nuclear model of atom also discussed about different ranges of particles like why alpha particle has short-range difference.

Social Work Interventions

Advancement of any general public or state is decided by the position held by women in that society. Gender equality must be recognised by every society in order to progress. Indian society has achieved a lot in this regard but a lot needs to be done to make things better for women who have been at disadvantage for centuries.

Professor Saxena, discussed about various aspects of Social work interventions related to women welfare. Women are as yet fail to inferior the position that makes them much powerless against misuse and less ready to spare themselves from separation and viciousness. He shared few of his field experiences with us, with this piece of information he stated “relating theory with practical”, is necessary in the field of social work. He talked about how people are suffering from mental illness and the interventions to deal with mental crisis.

He ended the session with the necessity of studying social work is increasing in our day today life. The overall session was informative, and it ended with a question-answer round. The session helped the students to gain knowledge regarding social work interventions which will be helpful for them to make more people aware.

Visit to Geographical Institutes

The students of the PG Program of the Department of Geography visited various Geographical Institutes which was conducted by Dr. Mini Mathur of the Department of Geography for the students of the courses mentioned below:

Programme	Paper Code and Paper Title
MA/MSc	GEO 324 (Visit To Geographical Institutes)

The institutes that were visited are:

- Statistical Department
- State Pollution Control Board
- BISTEC
- Birla Planetarium
- Department of Agriculture
- Irrigation Board

This activity was conducted as part of the curriculum of the above mentioned courses in order to sensitize them towards the functionality of various Geographical Institutes. The students collected data from the archives and gathered information from senior officials and later compiled the data in order to formulate a report.

Visit to KulishSmriti Van

As a part of one day workshop on youth awareness on 'Tree planting techniques for Greening Urban Spaces', a visit was organised to Forest Training Institute, Jaipur on 31 July 2019, along with 13 students of PG, accompanied by a faculty member, Dr. ReenuAgarwal. The programme began with an informative field study on medicinal plants at 'KulishSmriti Van' under the guidance of ShriDevendrabhardwaj.

This was followed by an adventurous trip to KrishiUdyan under the guidance of Dr.AmitKotia where student share the vast repository of knowledge regarding the wild plants. Student also shares pearls of wisdom from Dr. G.V. Reddy, Principal Chief Conservator of Forest, Rajasthan

This was followed by a presentation and an interactive session with Dr. N.C. Jain based on the theme of the workshop. It was truly an enriching experience for the students.

Educational Visit by Students and Faculties of Ramjas School, R. K. Purum, New Delhi

A group of 23 students, all from classes VI to XII; accompanied by 7 school faculties, visited Research and Development Cell of IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur on August 13, 2019 under DBT-FOLDSCOPE promotional drive. The Department of Biotechnology at IISU has organized a small workshop along with visit to other department laboratories to encourage budding enthusiasm among the students.

The session commenced with welcome address by Dr. Radhika Sharma, Head, Department of Biotechnology, IISU, Jaipur. Dr. Ameeta Sharma then introduced the students with the basics of microbial culture and Gram staining. The lecture was very enlightening and received lots of applause from the visiting fraternity.

Dr. Nidhi Gupta, then told them about assembly of FOLDSCOPE, other light microscopes and inverted microscopes. The students were then taught about process of culturing and Gram staining of E. coli microbial cells with the help of Ms. Parikshana Mathur, Ms. Monisha Singhal, Ms. Priyanka Yadav and Ms. Itisha Paul.

School students have a great time in visualizing the slides which they prepared with the help of research scholars in the lab. Dr. Nidhi Gupta then gave them a visit to Animal Cell Culture laboratory which had sparked their enthusiasm for Biology.

The students were then allowed to visit laboratories of Department of Journalism and Mass Communication where Dr. Garima was very kind to answer their queries. On their visit to Chemistry Laboratory, Dr. Varsha welcomed them and entertained all their questions. Later on when they visited Department of Visual Arts, they all were mesmerized with the beauty our students had depicted in the forms of paintings and sculptures.

Dr. Nidhi Gupta from IISU and faculties of Ramjas School, then discussed about various uses of FOLDSCOPE and how can that be beneficial for Science students. We were of the opinion that common people have been shown the beauty of nature much closely with the aid of FOLDSCOPE. Overall, it was a very fruitful gathering and discussion on behalf of Ramjas School, New Delhi and IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur.

The school students were also briefed about the various facility our University has such as Animal House, Plant Tissue Culture lab, Audio Visual Lab, CIT lab etc. They were very happy and satisfied with the hospitality we have shown.

VISIT TO RAJASTHAN NETRAHEEN KALYAN SANGH, JAIPUR

The students of BSc HScSem V and MSc HSc (HD) Sem III visited the school on 1st October 2019 escorted with the teacher Dr. Nalini Totuka. Rajasthan NetraheenKalyanSangh (RNKS) is not-for-profit organization with the motive of providing education and boarding facility to the visually impaired and the blind since past 44 years. They organize an array of activities to enhance the help extended to the sightless.

Office address: Rajasthan NetraheenKalyanSangh, LangarkeBalajika Rasta, Gangauri Bazaar, Jaipur-302001, Rajasthan, India.

The various activities at the school ensure that the deprived learn and master skills which will help them to fetch them good jobs. They also prepare them for self-employment. All this, so that the visually impaired can live a comfortable life and sustain their families. A ray of hope for the visually impaired, Rajasthan NetraheenKalyanSangh did a tremendous job for the betterment of its students.

The sangh provide the education and boarding facility for children. The school is from 1st standard to 12th standard. There were 15 teachers which includes blind and normal teachers. There is well established hostel for boys and girls separately. The rooms are around 15 for boys and 8 for girls. In each room there were approximately 3-4 children. The students are provided 4 meals daily, breakfast, lunch, tea and dinner.

The education, provided to the kids is free of cost. In addition, free boarding and lodging facilities are also rendered. Their only aim is to nourish and develop them so that each and everyone can live a normal life. And can break the superstition surrounding them that the blind cannot live well.

Computer education has become a necessity in every walk of life. Keeping that in view, RNKS started computer center and learning resource center in collaboration with Amway Opportunity Foundation. The objective of computer education is to empower the students so that they can keep up with the development of the technology. In turn, it will fulfill the criteria of making the visually impaired, job-ready.

Braille is the standard script to read and write in the world for the visually impaired and blind people. It's the only measure by which they can learn. Hence, RNKS has set up a Braille Production Center comprising contemporary equipment and a team of well-qualified professionals, to publish books and magazines based on Braille. Furthermore, they publish the only braille newspaper 'Braille Samacharpatra' that informs and inspires the visually challenged people.

RNKS has come up with the digital audio books recording project. The books are recorded and then distributed to the destitute free of cost. RNKS has established a library consisting of braille and talking books. Any person of any age can access the books here, at zero cost.

The students really were surprised with the school, hostel and the facilities. It was a memorable experience and students learned how to use Braille and teaching aids.

SOS Children' Villages of India, Rajasthan

The students of MSc HSc (HD) Sem III and BSc HSc (H) Sem III visited SOS village on 4th October 2019. SOS Children's Villages has been present in India since 1963 and developed rapidly all over the country and started activities in Jaipur in 1976. The SOS Children's Village Jaipur is located in a residential area, around two kilometres from the railway station, and was built on a site which was donated to SOS Children's Villages. SOS work in close partnership with local agencies of Jaipur and community-based organisations in order to identify children who have lost parental care, and families who are in need of support from the family-strengthening programme provided by SOS.

In addition to providing family-based care to children who are orphan, they also support vulnerable families so that they can stay together. SOS Social Centres run a programme to strengthen family which offers a comprehensive package of services to enable families to stay together and take good care of their children.

The majority of the families in the SOS Family Strengthening Programme are headed by females. Women from poor social and economic conditions and are needy do struggle to keep their children healthy and well nourished.

There were total 196 children in SOS , 92 girls and 104 boys. There are 14 SOS families, where they grow up with their sisters and brothers. Every home is known by different name i.e. Neer etc. Each home has mother and there are approximately 13-14 members in one family. Every home has 3 bedrooms, drawing room and kitchen.

There is computer centre also in the SOS which is well equipped with the computers. The teacher visit there and teach them about basic skills in Computer. SOS village also has first aid facility for all the members.

The students were very much impressed with the school ,their management and infrastructure.

The students of B.Sc (H), H.Sc and M.Sc,Ist and IIIrd semester visited the organization “Ladli”, located in 74, Govindpuri, sodala, Jaipur on 19th October 2019. A total of 09 students escorted with ArchanaKumari, Assistant Professor in the Department of Human Development, Home Science, explored the information regarding its organization structure; services provided; beneficiaries and other aspects.

All the information was provided to the students by Mr. Goswami, the coordinator of Ladli.

Ladli is a self owned social enterprise of street children, young adults and women groups belonging to most disadvantaged communities. The main aim of Ladli is to enhance the social status of a girl child in society as well as in family and to provide economic security by providing vocational trainings to girls.

I-India is the Mother NGO of Ladli and under the umbrella of I-India many projects are run. The services of I-India includes: Shelter Homes, School on Wheels, Shower Project, Annapurna Kitchen Project, Informal education, Computer Education, Vocational Training, Child Helpline and Women Empowerment. The project ensures empowerment and sustainable livelihood opportunities for its beneficiaries, by creating quality hand made products based on the principle of fair trade. It is being funded by Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Government of Rajasthan, Donations and contribution of local community.

The students visited the center and interacted with the teachers, trainers etc. They also interacted with few beneficiaries of the organization to prepare their case studies. Not only the information was collected but students also bought few articles made by the incumbent of the organization with a positive thought of putting a drop in the ocean meant for their betterment.

Industrial Visit to MayurUniquoters, Dhodsar, Jaipur

Department of Chemistry, IIS University, Jaipur has organized an industrial visit for the postgraduate students. The visit to MayurUniquoters, Dhodsar, Jaipur leather industry was a wonderful experience for our students. The students were enlightened with the knowledge of manufacturing of artificial leather/PVC vinyl using release paper transfer coating technology and found the visit very relevant and useful for their subject. They were informed about applications of organic solvents, copolymers and colour pigments and the work of certain machineries like circular knitting machines, Brazzoli machines for washing and bleaching of fabrics, hot slitter machines, sterner machines and also how the manufactured products are inspected chemically and physically in laboratories.

They were made aware of the eco-friendly operations of the industry. The above visit provided an opportunity to students to upgrade and enhance their academic skills and their entrepreneurship.

VISIT TO BAREFOOT COLLEGE, TILONIA

The Department of Economics, The IIS University conducted a field visit to Barefoot College, Tilonia for students of undergraduate and post graduate on 21st October 2019. The aim of the visit was to environmentally analyse the team work, other positive traits as well as academic excellence through innovative technology and methodology such as Solar Plants, Biogas Plants, Drip Irrigation etc.

Barefoot College, Tilonia was visited by 31 students of the department. Students were also shown the art of puppetry and how people are trained to portray the importance of skill based learning by the art of puppet shows. Students were also made familiar with some of their most famous puppet characters and also how the people there have prepared some acts to describe the journey of the Barefoot College to the guests and visitors there.

After enhancing their knowledge about the traditional art and uses of puppetry, students were taken to the factory where all the handicrafts were being prepared. Proper knowledge about the machines and materials and the manufacturing process was being provided to the students. After this session students were taken to the solar department where a workshop on photo voltaic cells was going on. Women trainees (popularly known as Solar mamas) from 12 countries viz. Mexico, Syria, Senegal, Madagascar, Bali, Somalia, Kiribati etc. were receiving training on solar components. Pokhar Mal Ji explained, "Barefoot college provides training in solar lighting, solar water heaters, parabolic solar cookers and solar powered water desalination technology addressing the energy needs of people where electricity doesn't reach. Trainees are often illiterate or semi-literate middle-aged women from rural villages worldwide who are trained to become solar engineers."

Students were taken to the Tilonia craft shop (handicraft emporium) showcasing a variety of traditional decorative pillows, bedspreads, paper books, quilts and duvet covers. Emporium manager explained students about different types of traditional arts used in making items here and that all the items are handmade, produced in house by rural women artisans. He said "The purpose behind setting up such type of emporium is that we wanted to empower the rural women and make them self-reliant. During our audits in nearby areas we found that rural women are capable of making creative products if given proper training and support. Thus we started a handicraft center for training and sales purpose and now you can see women are creating wonders."

Also the unit where sustainable sanitary pads are made was a nice experience to come across as it taught the students that how by using environmental friendly things they have surpassed some developed cities as well in their thought process. We also met a lady who has never ever attended school and still can perform some major dental procedures just by watching and learning experts.

Report of Field Visit to Hasanpura Village as part of Community Engagement Service

Field visit to Hasanpura village, located in Jaipur District, was organized by Department of Management in coordination with Centre for Swachh Bharat Swasth Bharat of IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur on 11th January, 2020. The visit was organized with the motive of acquainting the students of MBA regarding the process of vermicomposting on a large scale as part of their community engagement services paper. The resource persons stated that vermicomposting is one of the easiest methods to recycle agricultural wastes and to produce quality compost. Students were demonstrated how the vermicompost is prepared by using earthworms in vermicomposting bins. The overall visit highlighted the importance of vermicomposting in enhancing plant growth, organic farming and the avenues it opens for social entrepreneurship.

A visit to Gyan Museum Jaipur

Department of Jewellery Designing organized a visit to Gyan Museum, Jaipur, for students of Bsc. Jewellery design & Technology on 18/1/2020, Saturday

The Museum is one of a kind in the country which is fully dedicated to Gems and Jewellery. Gyan Museum orbits around the assortments of the naturalist, collector and gemologist Late Mr. Gyan Chand JiDhaddha (1940-2004). It is a tribute to the legend who in the world that he foresaw formulated his own media. Gyan Museum is not just about the collections of the time bygone, instead it is a place where ideas for the Gyan Jewels are envisioned and conceptualized into magnificent pieces which depicts the history. Inspired by the museum antiques, Gyan jewels are created by the Dhaddha family, which delivers the magnificence of the collection in the form of exquisite pieces of jewelry. This is an exclusive collection of limited edition pieces that possesses the unsurpassed excellence, passion and refinement of its founder Gyan Chand Dhaddha.

Gyan, a leading museum in Jaipur, houses over 2,500 treasured pieces including textiles, paintings, antique jewellery, and objet d'art from India and around the world, dating back to over 3,000 years. The museum showcases the tapestries, paintings and antiques collected by Mr. Gyan during his life span. Further, a section of the museum showcases his personal belongings too. It were not the objects that brought life into him, it was he who brought life to the objects.

In the Museum students came to know about International and Indian manufacturers, to know about the latest trends and to show their unique creations to the fraternity. it imparts education in the field of gemstones and jewellery, their classifications, how they are formed, optical properties, causes of colors in gemstones, inclusions, fluorescent minerals, etc as well as process of cutting/polishing of gemstones and manufacturing of various types of jewellery and enhance their knowledge as well as extend their business prospects.

This visit provided our students a lot of idea for designing process. Museum is an inspiration for the students to enhance their ability and career.

A visit to Gem Plaza

An industrial visit to Gem Plaza was organized for the students of B.Sc. Jewellery Design & technology, B.A./B.Com. /B.Sc. Jewellery Design & technology, Diploma Jewellery Designing on 18th jan, 2020.

Gem Plaza Mfg. Co. (P) Ltd is a jewellery house based in Jaipur since 1988. Here each article is exquisite and pure, intricate in fragility yet bold in its artistry; identifiable to the commoner yet has dignity that befits royalty. Gem Plaza has been pioneer of handcrafted jewellery and a synonym for exquisite craftsmanship. We saw the factory and the skilled craftsmen at work. Factory, fully equipped with latest machineries & equipments, situated in Special Economic Zone (100% export oriented zone of Indian government) with a floor area of 10000 sq ft., having 150 workers and a team of experienced, talented & creative designer, the entire production process starting from designing until the final polish is done in-house. They believe in fair trade practices and hence only conflict-free stones and diamonds are sourced for their jewellery. The company manufactures exquisite gold and silver jewellery like necklaces, bracelets, pendants, earrings, rings, cufflinks and other ornaments.

This visit was conducted with the aim to familiarize the students with the machinery and various practical operations involved in the manufacturing of Jewellery. They came to know about various stages of Jewellery manufacturing.

Mr. AkhilDhadda Director briefed the students about the manufacturing process of diamond and kundanMeenaJewellery. She also imparts the knowledge about upcoming technologies in jewellery industry and blessed them for their lucrative career. The visit proved to be beneficial exercise for all the students as it was completely knowledgeable for future perspective.

Educational Tour to JimCorbett, Ranikhet, NainitalUttraKhand

As a part of the course curriculum, an educational tour for the students of faculty of science was organized between 28th January to 1st February 2020. A group of 71 students were accompanied by four faculty members for the tour.

An industrial visit to Havells India Ltd and Kunstocom India limited Nimrana. Havells India Ltd is a producer of wide spectrum of products, including Industrial & Domestic Circuit Protection Devices, Cables & Wires, Motors, Fans, Modular Switches, Home Appliances, Air Conditioners, Electric Water Heaters, Power Capacitors, Luminaires for Domestic, Commercial and Industrial Applications. Kunstocom India limited is well known for Design & Development of Mould, Manufacturing of Plastic Components for Automotive, Electronics and Consumer Durables and Assemblies.

The visit to the above mentioned industries was organized for the purpose of understanding the manufacturing process and the environmental Management system (EMS) of the companies which is a part of the curriculum at PG level. After the visit Students could understand the process of manufacturing LED bulbs and motors at Havell and the process of manufacturing plastic spare parts at Kunstocom India limited.

The visit helped students to understand the prerequisite and process of getting an ISO 14000 certification for the company.

For getting acquaintance with the flora and fauna of Himalyan region, the group visited Jim Corbett National park where the students could get a chance of observing varied type of flora and fauna indigenous to the region. Students could also observe the distinctive features of plants in Himalyan region as compared to a arid /semiarid region.

Visit to Nainital was memorable as the group could get a chance to experience snowfall and could enjoy activities in the snow. At Nainital ,the group visited the Naina Devi temple, Naini lake and bhimtaland enjoyed shopping at the mall road. Students also enjoyed the visit to Himalyan snow view point through the rope way. The tour proved to be very enriching for the students.

A Visit to Dravyavati Experience Centre

Educational visits gives lifetime learnings along with exposure and practical understandings. An educational visit to Dravyavati experience centre (Jaipur) was organized by Department of Management (HRM & IB), IIS (deemed to be University) Jaipur. The major objective of the visit was to attain the better understanding of subject “Project Management” and to know the real scenario and technicalities of the project.

Dravyavati River was once a thriving river turned into a drain (Amanishah Nallah), to rejuvenate this river a project was taken by TATA group in collaboration with Jaipur Development Authority (JDA). This rejuvenation project is based on the concept of watershed rehabilitation, flood prevention, pollution treatment and recovering the lost ecology of the river. Dravyavati River project “A 47.5 km of beauty, cleanliness and joy!”

The visit held was exclusively for MBA semester 4th students. Total 25 students and two faculty coordinators Dr. Mahima Rai and Dr. Varsha Choudhary left the campus at 10:10 a.m. and reached the Dravyavati river front by 10:30 a.m. Initially students explored the entire project sight, i.e. Riverfront and landscape park walkway after that students explored the Experience centre it is beautifully constructed and has pictorial representation of Dravyavati River since the year 1770 till 2018. A beautiful tree that has been made from scrap material, that were gathered while cleaning the nallah at the entrance of the experience centre. Later on, we students were guided towards AV hall inside experience centre which have subtle interior. There students had an interactive session with Mr. Prasant from TATA groups. Initially they showed a short film on Dravyavati river project which stated that the Project is dedicated to residents of Jaipur and aims to improve health and sanitation by proper waste collection and then they gave a brief introduction of project in which they talked about project proponents i.e. water channels, check dams, walk ways, plantation, 3 Parks, garbage collection, STP, street lightings, Wi-Fi facilities, and security surveillance and the project experience centre building (PEC building). They enlightened students with their in-depth knowledge of the subject and all the technicalities of the project with the help of a presentation through which we got to know the materials, technology (SBR) and expertise (engineers and IITians) that has been involved into the project and that the project is a lumpsum EPC (engineering, procurement construction) Project. They gave us some factual knowledge like 1,7500 trees has been planted, and landscape development of 1,00,000 sqm and employment generation (30,000+) and reclamation of value of land.

They also shed light on challenges faced by them during project and how they cope up with such challenges. They talked about their planning for future maintenance of the river as well. Furthermore, they talked about project management concepts linking it to the practicalities of project which includes, Project life cycle phases, social cost benefit and feasibility and all the core aspects of the project like the financial aspects, social aspects, economic aspects, environmental aspects etc. were covered. The session was very wholesome and informative. The visit came to an end with a group photograph and they also provided a Project Brochure to all students. The entire visit was effectual and full of enlightenment and so with good memories and truckloads of experience students reached back to the campus by 12:30 p.m.

Report on Educational Visit to RIICO Sewage Treatment Plant (STP), Jaipur

The department of Environmental Science of IIS (Deemed to be University) Jaipur organized a one day educational visit to RIICO Sewage Treatment Plant, Jaipur on 4th February 2020 for undergraduate and postgraduate students of Environmental Science department. The main purpose of this visit was to enhance the practical and field knowledge of the students, to relate the theoretical concepts with real time problems and solutions, and most importantly to give them the exposure to sewage treatment plant setup. A total of 21 students along with one faculty member, Mr. Ashish Tambi, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Environmental Science, visited the plant. The site Visit was organized with the prior permission of Mr. Bhupesh Saraswat, Jr. Engineer, Jaipur Development Authority (JDA), Jaipur.

The RIICO Sewage Treatment Plant was designed for 100 MLD capacity based on Sequential Batch Reactor Technology popularly known as SBR Technology discharging its effluent into Dravyawati River, Jaipur. M/S TATA Projects Ltd., SUCG Consortium, manages this sewage treatment plant and the complete operation of the SBR basin/reactor is controlled automatically through PLC system. All key functions are automatically controlled along with data logging. Complete historical records of plant operation are available on SCADA system.

On reaching the site, Mr. Vinay Narayan Wadgaonkar, Manager (QS), RIICO STP explained the students about the various processes and working of Sewage treatment plant units. Students were also taken to the laboratory where the wastewater samples are tested on routine basis to check meet the efficiency of the plant in terms of maintaining the effluent standards for inland waste water discharge set by MOEFCC. The parameters which are regularly checked and monitored in the laboratory includes BOD, COD, ammonia, nitrate nitrogen, coliform count, etc. The field visit gave an opportunity to the aspiring students to have an insight to real site working mechanism including process of sewage treatment. By this visit students got familiar with industrial environment and get knowledge of different units of waste water treatment plant.

A one day educational visit to DST- Science Park, Jaipur

A one educational day visit to DST- Science Park, Jaipur was organized on 13th February, 2020. Thursday by Department of Biotechnology and zoology for M.Sc. (Biotechnology & Microbiology) students. It particularly focused on “women in Science: Hands on” on the occasion of National women’s day. This visit was planned for not only empowering our students with the most recent and current trends in the field of Biotechnology and microbiology but also with the role of women in the field of bio-physics, biochemistry and molecular Biology.

Students attended the inaugural function, science film show and talk, poetry elocution, nukkadnatak etc. Students took keen interest and participated in card making competition later etc. In this visit 30 students visited and they were accompanied by two faculty members from biotechnology and zoology departments respectively. Over all it was a very learning experience and students were looking forward to more of this type of visits.

Visit to SDS Instruments Stall

SDS Instruments have put up a stall at 48th Dairy Industry Conference, Jaipur at Birla Auditorium from 20th Feb. to 22nd Feb. 2020. They have invited the faculty members and students of Department of Home Science, IIS (Deemed to be UNIVERSITY), Jaipur to visit the stall and see the functioning of the instruments like Texture Analyzer, water Activity meter and Head Space analyzer.

On 22nd Feb. 2020, one of the faculty member and 3 research scholars of the Department of Home Science went to visit the stall and have observed the functioning of all the instruments displayed at the stall.

First of all, after reaching the stall, we have seen the functioning of Texture Analyzer. It is used to quantify sensory evaluations like Freshness, spreadability, tenderness, springiness, gumminess, hardness, firmness, consistency, fracturability etc. of variety of food products like bread, biscuits, jams, jellies, chocolate, cereals, dough, Ready-to-eat Extruded foods like kuskure, chips etc. We have seen the fracturability of kuskure, gooday biscuits, spreadability of dough. With the use of Texture Analyzer the results can be obtained in just 15-20 minutes.

Later, we have seen the functioning of water Activity meter, this instrument is used to measure the water Activity of dairy, milk and other products like bread, biscuits etc. The instrument employs chilled mirror dew point technology for water activity analysis. This instrument is software supported. We get the results in few minutes.

Lastly, We have seen how the Head Space analyzer analyses the concentration of modified atmospheric gases in the headspace of flexible and rigid packages such as foil sachets, cans, bottles, packets of extruded products like lays, bingo, kurkure, puffed corn etc. We have seen how it works to measure the headspace of lays packet. The instruments were of utility as our students develop new products both as part of their dissertation work and research work, so it would be of use to them. Moreover it was easy to use and give results in few minutes but very expensive the cost of texture analyser was 16 lakhs, water activity meter was 9 lakhs and headspace analyzer was more expensive.

Overall the visit was fruitful and we have learned the functioning also.

VISIT TO BOSCH PLANT

Community engagement services are ones that combine learning goals and community service in ways that can enhance both student growth and the common good. It is a form of experiential education where learning occurs through a cycle of action and reflection as students seek to achieve real objectives for the community and deeper understanding and skills for themselves. Thus, it is included in MBA curriculum in which students have to complete their more than 15 hours in community engagement. For this university has tied up with different NGOs and MNCs to provide students great opportunities. A batch of 19 students are working with BOSCH Company under CSR department.

BOSCH in India has created a space for itself in a society not just as a technology and innovation pioneer, but also as a company that cares. The Bosch Social Engagement aims to make a difference in the communities in which Bosch operates. In Jaipur, its working for Holistic Village Development in 35 villages of Bassi and Sanganer Blocks. The program majorly focuses on 5 areas including economic development, quality education, health and nutrition, environment and water, infrastructure development in the villages.

A meeting was organized on February 24, 2020 for those students working with BOSCH. A batch of 16 students and two faculty coordinators (Dr. Seema Singh and Dr. Nivedita Singh) left the IISU Campus at 10:15 a.m. and reached the arena of BOSCH at 10:44 a.m. The management received them with warm welcome and guided through the site. The members of CSR department, Nikhil sir and Jyoti Ma'am introduced all the students to NGO coordinator's. The aim of the meeting was to interact with the members of different NGO and to get familiar with the work assigned. The company's CSR department is tied with the 6 NGOs and by the management faculty the students are divided into 6 groups with 3 to 4 members each. The different tasks are assigned to individual students who will perform and work under the supervision of their coordinators of the specific NGO. At the end of the session students got an opportunity to interact with their coordinators and know about the further working with them. The students found this meeting highly constructive and informative and got an amazing opportunity to work with them. After the session visit came to an end with a group photograph and students returned to the university campus at 12:40 p.m.

Study Tour to village 'GanwarBhahmana' (SanganerPanchayatSamiti)

A group of some 40 students, as a joint activity from Department of Public Administration and Sociology, visited the village 'GanwarBrahmana' which comes under the SanganerPanchayatSamiti. The tour was organized to make the students acquaint about the Village Panchayat, its working and doing a survey on policies of the Government by interacting the people out there.

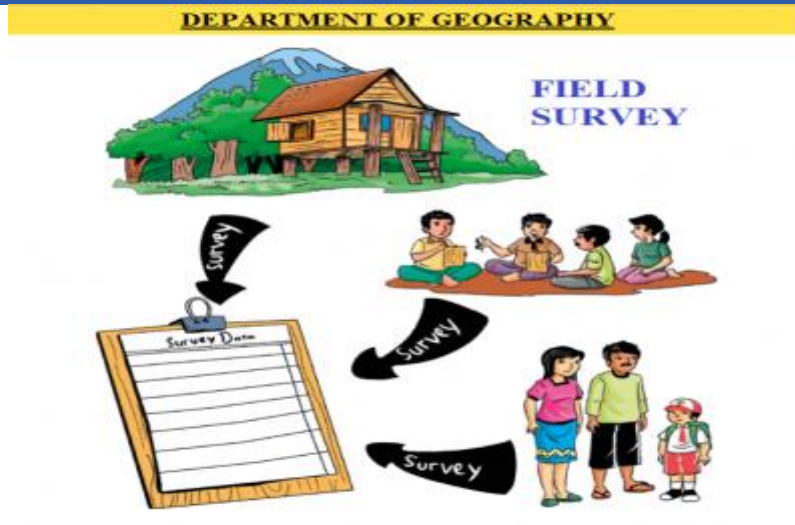

The students did a survey on Centrally Sponsored Schemes of Swachch Bharat and MGNREGA and divided themselves into small groups for survey on the level of satisfaction of the aforesaid schemes and facilities provided under the scheme. It was an attempt to know the implementation mechanism and to evaluate the scheme. The survey was completed with some 30 households and the people were interviewed individually. After the data collection, the analysis was done by each group as a part of their activity.

The experience was very informative and learning for the students about the structure of PanchayatSamiti and how the work and other centers are operated for welfare of the villagers.

Workshop on Insect Identification & Preservation Techniques

M.Sc. students of Zoology, IIS (Deemed to be) University, Jaipur went for a “Workshop on Insect Identification & Preservation Techniques” on 15th October, 2019, organized by “Vivekanand Global University, Jaipur”. This workshop was aimed to provide the detailed information regarding various insect species identification on the basis of their taxonomic keys and to give the hand on training for preservation techniques. We are thankful to IIS (Deemed to be University) for promoting the students for participation in such informative workshop and training session. Scientist from the Zoological Survey of India gave hands on training on capturing, identification and storage of different insects. Students learnt about various insect species, how to identify insect on the basis of very specific characteristic. These techniques will be very informative and useful to PG students.

Student Sensitization Seminar on crime against animals

The Department of Zoology, IIS (deemed to be) University, Jaipur, in collaboration with Wing Of Research In Local Development (WORLD) and Wildlife Crime Control Bureau, Govt. of India organized a seminar entitled 'STUDENT SENSITIZATION SEMINAR' on 3rd January 2020.

The Guests were welcomed by the auspicious presence of Dr. PradeepBhatnagar, Dean of Faculty of Sciences, IIS University, Dr. PriyankaMathur Head of the Department of Zoology IISU and Dr. LataShahani. The guest enlightened the students about WORLD Organization and Operation Free Sky which was initiated by WORLD to save injured birds during the festival of MakarSakranti from 13th to 15th January and Wildlife crime and illegal trade, followed by unveiling the Operation Free Sky posters and play cards. Besides this the dignitaries inaugurated the Free Sky Signature Campaign, further pledge taking by the participants and concluding address by Dr. PriyankaMathur (HOD, Zoology) was delivered.

Introduction to Innovative Zoology Software

Zoology as a subject is loved by students as they get to know about themselves and animal around but the systematic classification is burdensome and they often face problems to memorize the classification of the vertebrates and invertebrates. There is a wide gap between the scientific knowledge of animal classification and student’s conception. An activity was organized by Department of Zoology on 7th February 2020, in which Dr. PallaviKaushik and Dr. NeetuKachhwaha introduced innovative zoology software by which students can learn classifications of the animals.

Students of M.Sc. and B.Sc(H) attended the programme with great enthusiasm. This activity proved very useful for the students and faculty as well.

“Biodiversity Conservation for a Sustainable Future”
11-12 October 2019

The two day National Conference on “Biodiversity Conservation for a Sustainable Future” held on 11-12 October 2019 was organized by Department of Botany, IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur in collaboration with Rajasthan State Biodiversity Board and Indian Science Congress association, Jaipur Chapter. The conference comprised of 5 Technical sessions, each session was opened for healthy discussion. More than 130 delegates registered in the conference from all over the country. The conference began with the inaugural ceremony in the august presence of Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur. He extended heartiest welcome to all the delegates. Prof. PradeepBhatnagar, Dean, Faculty of Science, IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur, acquainted the audience with the aims and objectives of the conference, followed by the release of abstract book by the dignitaries.

The guest of honour, Dr. G. V. Reddy, Chairman, Rajasthan State Biodiversity Board delivered the inaugural remarks enlightening. The importance of biodiversity in cultural, supporting and regulatory services.

Chief Guest, Dr. V. B. Mathur, Chairman- National Biodiversity Authority, Delivered the Keynote address. He introduced new upcoming government projects for Biodiversity conservation and emphasized that students must have the ability and aptitude to spend time in nature for better understanding of biodiversity.

Thereafter, vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. KalpanaAgarwal, Convener of the Conference.

Technical session-I was chaired by Prof. Sudhakar Mishra, Former Head, Department of Botany, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur and Prof. KailashAgarwal, Former Head, Department of Botany, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur.

They invited Dr. M. C. Kharkwal, IAEA, Expert, Ex. Principal Scientist, IARI, New Delhi to deliver his lecture on current status of genetically modified crops in the world. He introduced different methods of plant breeding and also discussed advantages & controversies related to GM crops. The next speaker of the session was Dr. P. C. Trivedi, Former Vice Chancellor, DDU University, Gorakhpur. He enlightened the audience with current status of biodiversity and climate change.

The chairman for the session II was Dr. R. K. Gothwal. This session comprised of oral presentation by faculties and students, followed by lunch.

Dr. M. C. Kharkwal chaired the III technical session, inviting Dr. Veena Chandra, Former Scientist ‘F’ and Head (Botany division), FRI, Dehradun. On speaking about importance of eco-restoration, Dr. Chandra pointed out the impacts of mining operations. The session was opened for oral presentations thereafter.

The day two of the conference began with the commencement of session IV, chaired by Dr. Veena Chandra. The first speaker of the session was Mr. Ayush Sharma, CEO-ECOHOY. He highlighted the co-relation between carbon footprint and global warming and also gave an insight of various ecofriendly products of his startup company that can help in reduction of carbon emission. Second speaker of this session was Dr. Tarun Kant, Scientist 'F' & Head Genetics and Tree improvement division, AFRZ, Jodhpur. He talked about the effect of climate change on land degradation and also suggested various biotechnological interventions to achieve land degradation neutrality and combating degradation.

Thereafter, the session was opened for oral and poster presentations.

Session V was chaired by Sh. Naresh Sharma and Dr. ShilpiRijhwani. They invited Dr. SatyaPrakashMehra, RSNC, Rajasthan, to speak on indigenous eco-culture & sustainable development and goals-case studies of Rajputana Society of Natural History of Rajasthan. This was followed by the last lecture of the Conference by ShriSwapnilKumbhojkar, Founder, Jhalana Wildlife Research Foundation. He discussed comparison of Human Animal conflict in Kruger National Park, South Africa, Neuras conservancy- Nambia and Jhalana Forest Research- India.

In two days conference we had about 28 oral presentations for faculty and 17 for students. In poster session total 60 posters has been displayed including faculty and students. The session concluded with the award ceremony for the best presenters in Oral & Poster categories.

The two day National Conference ended up with the formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. ReenuAgarwal, Organizing secretary of the conference.

As a part of World Wildlife Week Celebration-2019, Department of Environmental Science and Eco-friendly association organized a “Model Exhibition” on 1st October 2019. The exhibition was organized to display the models prepared by UG and PG students of department of Environmental Science. A total of 67 UG and PG students participated in the same. A total of 36 working and non-working models on various environmental issues such as Biodiversity conservation methods, Environmental Pollution, Waste Water Treatment, Eco-friendly Campus, Water and Soil Conservation Methods, etc were displayed during the exhibition. The aim of the exhibition was to spread awareness among all the citizens regarding environmental issues that needs to be addressed to promote sustainability and to maintain a clean and healthy environment. Students and faculty members of various departments visited the exhibition enthusiastically and appreciated the students for their work. Dr. ReenaMathur, Retd, Professor, Department of Zoology, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur, judged all the models and appreciated and motivated the students.

Orientation Programme for Undergraduate students

Orientation Programme for the Undergraduate students was organized on 9th July 2019, for the students of B.Sc (H) Home Science. MsShuchi Sharma, Senior Dietician, Soni Hospital, Jaipur was called to orient them. She has discussed about the general healthy eating practices to be followed during this age group. She has also focussed light on how the regular consumption of fast foods deteriorates our health and leads to further complications.

MsShuchi has also discussed the career opportunities in Foods and Nutrition.

Recipe Making Competition on World Breastfeeding Week

On the occasion of World Breastfeeding Week the Department of Home Science organized a competition of complimentary feed for infant's upto one year of age and protein rich snacks for toddlers on 3rd August 2020. Students of B.Sc (H) H.ScsemV and M.sc (Foods and Nutrition) sem I and sem III participated in the competition. The participants prepared various healthy recipes for infants and toddlers. The recipes were evaluated by panel of two judges Dr. Swati Vyas, Associate Professor and Dr. NaliniTotuka, Sr. Assistant Professor and Additional Head. Ms. Isheeta Sharma and Ms. Priyanka Singh bagged first and second position and third position was bagged by two students Ms.Arshiya Sheikh and Ms. AkshitaKumawat in complimentary feed category . Ms Tanya Bhardwaj and Ms. Kriti Jain stood first and second lastly Ms. Aarti Mali bagged third position respectively in protein rich snack preparation . All the students participated in the competition with great enthusiasm . Above all the activity was found to be very fruitful for the students

Quiz organized during WBFW'2019

As part of World breastfeeding week celebrations, the quiz was organized on 5th August 2019. The quiz was organized by the final year students of M Sc H Sc (Foods & Nutrition). It was open for the undergraduate students of the Department of Home Science. Total 24 students have participated in the quiz. There were 5 teams namely- Cereal Killers, Mint-o-fresh, Egg-cellent, e-lemon-ators, Soup-a-stars. The quiz was conducted in 4 rounds – Scratch your mind, picture abhihakihai mere dost, don't loose your head, fast and furious wins the race. All the participants have performed very well. Team e-lemon-ators was the winner, followed by cereal-killers. Mint-o-fresh & Soup-a-stars stood third.

Demonstration on Preparation of Souffles

A demonstration on preparation of soufflés was organised by department of home-science on 26th August 2019. The demonstration was attended by students of BSc. Home-science- semester I, Semester III and semester V, Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics Semester I and FSQM Semester III. In all 30 students benefitted from the activity. The demonstration was held in Lab C-305 in the Home-Science Department Pastry Chef MrChandan Kumar Baral from Hotel Hilton Jaipur conducted the demonstration. He had a vast experience in Bakery and has worked with many International chains of hotels in India as well as abroad.

He taught the students the basics of foam desserts and the skills required in preparation of cold soufflés. He also emphasized upon the importance of accurate weighing and measuring in dessert preparation.

Mr. Baral gave demonstration on 4 variants of Souffles-

1. Lemon Souffle
2. Chocolate Souffle
3. Mocha Souffle
4. Mango and Mint Souffle

All the soufflés were amazingly delicious and the students as well as present faculty really enjoyed the demonstration. Many students were actually first time initiated to this classic French dessert. It was a huge learning experience for students. His guidance and experience sharing was indeed commendable.

Chef Chandan Baral was introduced by Ms. Arshiya Sheikh (BSc. HomeSc. Sem V) and presented with a memento by Dr. Ila Joshi (Head of the Department) as a token of appreciation. The vote of thanks was given by Ms. Yogita Karnani. The overall activity was coordinated by Ms. Simran Singh.

Book mark distribution as part of National Nutrition Week celebration 2019

On the occasion of National Nutrition Week, Department of Home Science has distributed Bookmarks to all the academicians of the University. The Bookmarks were prepared by the students of Department of Home Science. All the students of COSD courses (Food Science & Quality Control and Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics) were asked to prepare 5-5 bookmarks each. Also, students of B Sc (H) Home Science and B Sc CND Electives were also asked to prepare the same. The bookmarks were prepared to convey messages related to healthy dietary habits. Overall 120 bookmarks were distributed to the academicians by the students of M Sc (Home Science) Foods and Nutrition Sem I on 3rd September 2019.

Inter-College Quiz Competition

On the occasion of Nutrition week, Dietetics department of Eternal (EHCC) Hospital organized an Inter-college Quiz competition on September 5th, 2019. IIS deemed to be University students Ishita Sharma and Sameeksha Sharma also participated in the same against teams from Rajasthan University and Mahatma Jyoti Rao Phule College. The students from M. Sc. Food and Nutrition Semester III won second prize in the same.

The quiz was held in three rounds where two rounds had multiple choice questions and the last round was a buzzer round. The questions asked contained variety of subject area under the head of Food and Nutrition including Biochemistry, Microbiology, Therapeutic Nutrition and Public Health.

Extension Activity Titled- "Gender Discrimination"

The Department of Home Science of the IIS University organized an extension activity on Gender Discrimination on 14th Sept 2019 in Haziawala community. The extension activity was organized by Ms. Archanakumari, Assistant Professor, Department of H.Sc, Human Development and students of B.Sc (H) H.Sc Semester III.

The programme aimed at creating awareness among women and children of urban slum about gender discrimination at home, school and public places.

Target Group & Venue:

The target group for this activity was women and primary school children of Haziawala community. The reason behind selecting this particular section was that when the NSS team of IISU was conducting their activity, it was observed by the coordinator that many students especially females are irregular. The principal of the school informed that she talked to their mother and got to know that since in most of the family both the parents are working and they leave their daughter at home to take care of the home and siblings. So a urgent need was felt to conduct an extension activity in this area.

The activity was organized in the premises of Haziawala Government Primayschool after taking the prior permission from the principal of the school. A total of 106 women and children of the community attended the activity.

Materials & Methods Used:

The whole activity was planned in three steps namely, Presentation, Role Play, games and Interaction with women and children. Materials were prepared accordingly like pictorial self- explanatory PPT, costumes, stickpuppets for games etc.

First a game was played by all the participants in which questions were asked by the students regarding expected gender role. All the participants were given sticks puppet having pictures of girl and boy. They were asked to show the appropriate puppet according to them suited for that particular role. This game was conducted to have an idea about the prevailing gender streotypes and perception of gender role in the community. It was surprising to know that most of the household chores were expected to be done by the girl child whereas male child were given much freedom.

This was followed by a role play performed by all students depicting different ways in which gender discrimination is done by parents, family members and teachers. All the students participated in this role play as per the role assigned to them.

Lastly an interactive and counseling session was held with the help of pictorial PPT. Women were counseled to give equal opportunity to their girl child in every field. They were told about the changing gender roles in today's society with the help of PPT.

Impact of the Activity:

It was observed that the interactive session was very effective. Women and children interacted with students about their prejudices and stereotypical thought. Many of them said that they also faced gender discrimination in their own family in their childhood. So they have those prejudices that girls are supposed to perform household chores and boys are better at outside work. One old lady was very sad as she was having two three granddaughters and no grandson. Many females were having two-three daughter but they are hoping to have a boy baby in the next delivery. Many females were workers and they shared their feelings that how they are being discriminated by their employer for their wages and leaves. Towards the end some of them realized that they need to change their stereotypical thought regarding gender roles. The activity was ended with a hope that one day they will raise their voice against this shameful act. In the end small refreshments were given to all the participants. i.e. Poha and tea.

Navratra Celebration in SaraswatiAnchal Day Care Center

In India, Navratri is Hindus famous festival celebrated with great joy and reverence. This festival is a joyous way of worshipping Goddess Durga. Dressed up in colorful dresses, children of SaraswatiAnchal Day Care center celebrated Navratri on 4th October 2019. To make them understand the story behind celebrating Navratra, a skit was performed by B.Sc (H) H.Sc, Sem I and SemV students. Dancing to the beats of music they performed garbaras. They also danced using their colourful dandiya sticks.

PLANT DECORATION

A Demonstration was organized on Plant Decoration by department of Home Science on 12th February, 2020. This activity was opened for all the students of Department of Home Science and around 30 students eagerly participated in it. The activity started with the welcome speech which included a brief introduction of Dr. Aditi R. Khandelwal Senior Assistant Professor, Department of Business Studies, The IIS (deemed to be) University , Jaipur. Besides Academics Dr. Aditi is doing plant ornamentation as her hobby. She also has her own page on instagram ,where there are various types of decorative plants are available for purchase. She makes the student learn about different types of plants that can be used for decoration, materials that can be used for decoration like floral foam, pin holders, pin toys etc.

Dr. Ila Joshi presented bouquet of flowers to the Guest and Miss Isheeta Sharma gave a brief introduction about her. Later, she began the activity with an elaborate explanation of the different types of indoor plants like succulents zade etc. She also gave some tips for indoor plants to fresh and alive for longer period. All the prepared plants were very beautiful and the activity was found to be very fruitful for the students as well as the staff.

Two day National Conference on Advances in Food Science, Processing and Technology

The Department of Home Science, IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur had organized a two-day National Conference on 13th and 14th March 2020, on 'Advances in Food Science, Processing and Technology' sponsored by ICSSR, New Delhi. The aim of the conference was to highlight the latest trends in food Science and processing and the importance of food safety as a shared responsibility of the government, retailers and consumers. The main focus of the conference was to provide a forum or platform for discussions on emerging ideas and technical know-how in the field of food science, processing as well as safety standards towards meeting the need of a growing population.

Inaugural Session

The conference commenced on 13th March, 2020 at 10:00am with the Inaugural Session, seeking the blessings of the Almighty in the form of Saraswati Vandana. This was followed by lightning of the lamp by the dignitaries on the dais - keynote speaker Prof. N. Venkatachalapathy, Head, Department of Food Engineering, Indian Institute of Food Processing and Technology, Thanjavur, Tamil Nadu, Honourable Vice Chancellor, IIS (deemed to be University), Dr Ashok Gupta, Rector and Registrar, IIS (deemed to be University), Dr Raakhi Gupta, Dean, Faculty of Science, Prof. Pradeep Bhatnagar, Conference Convenor Prof. Ila Joshi and Organizing Secretary Dr Gargi Saxena.

This ceremony was followed by the Presidential and welcome address by the conference chairperson Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice-Chancellor, IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur. He extended a warm welcome to the resource persons and delegates who braved the scare of corona virus and came to attend the conference from all around the country. Prof. Pradeep Bhatnagar, conference Counsellor, then acquainted the delegates with the purpose of the conference. This was followed by the release of the book of abstracts by the keynote speaker Prof. N. Venkatachalapathy. In his inaugural remark, the keynote speaker called all the delegates as brave hearts for fighting the Corona virus and coming to attend the conference. He talked about how India was dependent on foreign countries for food some 50 years back whereas today India not only produces food but exports it as well! He threw light on the latest trends in food processing to make food available to all throughout the year. He concluded his talk by motivating the students and young scientists to opt for start-ups and become employers instead of job seekers.

The inaugural session ended with a formal vote of thanks by conference convenor Prof. Ila Joshi. The inaugural session was followed by the Keynote Session.

Prof. N. Venkatachalapathy delivered the keynote address on the theme of the conference. He talked about the leading cause of the development of processed foods. He emphasised that new consumer satisfaction technologies are required to mitigate hunger so as to fight against malnutrition. His talk also covered various types of Ready to eat foods available in today's market, various processing methods employed to improve the shelf life of the products. He ended his talk with the message "Eat Right, select good processed foods that are nutritious."

Technical session I

This session was chaired by Prof. Pradeep Bhatnagar, Dean, Faculty of Science, IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur. The invited speakers of this session were Prof. V.H. Patel, Head, Department of Foods and Nutrition, Sadar Patel University, Anand, Gujarat and Prof. Mamta Tiwari, Director, Prioritization, Monitoring & Evaluation and Associate Director, Extension at Agriculture University, Kota.

Prof. V.H. Patel, delivered a talk on "Nutrigenomics: An Interdisciplinary approach towards healthy life". He started by explaining that Nutrition + genetics = nutrigenomics. He said that, Genetic material differs with person to person. Therefore, personalized nutrition, custom made for one's genes is needed.

Prof. Mamta Tiwari gave a talk on "Entrepreneurship through Agro Processing and value addition" wherein she highlighted the importance of providing jobs to poor farmers through skill development trainings and entrepreneurship ventures.

Technical session II

Technical session II was chaired by Dr Madhu Bala Singh, Scientist 'G', ICMR, DMRC, Jodhpur. In this session, two invited speakers Prof. P. K. Nema, Department of Food Engineering, NIFTEM, Sonapat and Ms. Shakun Sharma, Senior Project Associate, Food Fortification Programme - GAIN, New Delhi delivered their talks.

Prof. P. K. Nema spoke on "Superheated steam drying for better retention of nutrients in the processed food products". In his talk, he has discussed about the need of drying food commodities and various methods employed in drying of the food for better retention of nutrients and better shelf life. He has focussed on Hybrid drying method, a upcoming technique and the technology of SSD ie. superheated steam drying along with its advantages and disadvantages.

Ms. Shakun Sharma from GAIN talk about “Food Fortification: Enriching Foods, Enriching lives”. She has thrown light on importance of food fortification. She has shared the latest data on prevalence of malnutrition, anaemia and other micro nutrient deficiencies prevailing in India. Ms. Sharma also discussed the technique of fortification of salt, flour and oil and about the logo of fortification.

The Technical session II was followed by oral presentations by Young Scientists from different cities of the country. DrKanikaVarma, Associate Professor, Department of Home Science, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur has chaired the session. There were six oral presentations in this session. The judges for the same were DrSreemoyeeChatterjee, Associate Professor, Department of Biotechnology, IIS (deemed to be University) and DrYaminiChaturvedi, Associate Professor, Commissionerate College Education, ShikshaSankul, Jaipur.

On the second day, the conference commenced at 9:00 am with poster presentations by young scientists. The posters were judged Dr P. N. Kalla, Dean, Faculty of Science, Jagannath University, Jaipur and DrCharuJhamaria, Associate Professor, Department of Environmental Sciences, IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur.

Technical session III started at 10:30 am on day 2. Session was chaired by Prof BeenaMathur, Retired from Department of Home Science, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur. The speakers of this session were DrMadhuBala Singh, Scientist ‘G’, ICMR, DMRC, Jodhpur and Mr. Anshuman Jain, packaging consultant, Mindbox Packaging Solutions, Jaipur.

DrMadhuBala Singh delivered her talk on “Role of pearl millets and its products in improving nutritional outcomes”. She stressed on the importance of pearl millet for iron retention, zinc retention and prevention of anemia.

Mr. Anshuman Jain talked on “Food Packaging”. He emphasised on variety of packaging materials available, importance of biodegradable packaging, threat of plastic disposal and the latest trends in food packaging. He has also focussed on how packaging is done and content specific packaging.

Technical session III, was followed by 10 oral presentations. Total 16 presentations were given by young budding scientists.

This session was followed by Lunch.

The last session was Technical session IV, which emphasised specifically on Food Safety. This session was chaired by DrMuktaAgrawal, Associate Professor & Head, Department of Home Science, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur. The speakers of this session were Mr Rahul Mathur, Academic Head & HOD, Front office, Ananta Institute of Hotel Management, Jaipur and Mohd. Shahid, Plant Manager, Frubon, Jaipur.

Mr Rahul Mathur delivered his talk on “Food Risk Analysis”. He has covered all the three aspects of Food risk analysis ie. Risk assessment, risk management and risk communication along with Hazard Analysis Critical Control Points, a very important parameter in maintaining Food Safety. He concluded his talk by saying, “Food safety affects us all, and in our daily lives we naturally want to avoid food that puts our health at risk”.

MrMohd. Shahid talked about “Food Safety and Management System”. He has focussed on the regulatory authorities of the Government, basically the rules and regulations laid down by FSSAI to be followed by each food industry.

The conference concluded with a valedictory session where awards and certificates were distributed to the winners of oral and poster presentations. The awards were given only to the student category. TanushreeChakraborty has won the first prize and Sunidhi Mishra From MPUAT, Udaipur has won second prize in oral presentation. Under poster presentations, awards were given in 2 categories – research & review. In Review category of poster presentation, NeelamRathod from MSU, Baroda stood First, Followed by Priyal Vijay from IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur. Two awards for appreciation were also given to BhanushreeBagh&TejinderKaur. In the research category, Ms. Anjana Singh from IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur has won the first prize & the runner up was ShikhaSehgal from IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur. In this category also, two appreciation awards were aged by Ms. NeelakshiTanima from SKRAU, Bikaner and Sameeksha Sharma from (deemed to be University), Jaipur. Impressions of the conference were given by two faculty members – Ms. Swetha Rani Rai from J.D. Birla Institute, Kolkata ad Dr Ramesh V. from College of Dairy Science and food Technology, Dantiwada, Gujarat. Lastly formal vote of thanks was given by DrNaliniTotuka, Additional Head, Dept. of Home Science, IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur.

Workshop on “Drying of solvents”

A workshop on solvent drying was organized in the department of chemistry. Demonstration for the drying of various solvents was taught. She further explained the importance of solvent drying and the effect of impurities in a solvent including moisture. Describing the importance of solvent drying, it was explained that it is more economical to purify commercial grades than to purchase more expensive Analytical grades.

Workshop on “Chromatographic Techniques”

The workshop on “Chromatographic Techniques” was organized by the Department of Chemistry for B.Sc. (H) students under the supervision of Ms. Manjinder Kour on 10th August, 2019. The demonstration on “Chromatography techniques like Column and Thin Layer Chromatography” was carried out. Column Chromatography is a method used to purify and separate individual compounds in a mixture. Experimentally also, they performed Column Chromatography and prepared TLC plates. The workshop was summed up with the question-answer session.

Celebration of International year of Periodic table

The IISU Chemical Association of IIS (deemed to be university), Jaipur, celebrated International Year of Periodic Table (IYPT) 2019 - “Know your Elements” on the 4-5 October 2019 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the establishment of Mendeleev’s Periodic Table of Elements, one of the most significant and influential achievements of Science.

As part of the celebrations, in the first phase, a Chemistry Olympiad based on the Periodic Table for the Undergraduate and Postgraduate students of Science in different educational institutions of Rajasthan was organised. More than 1500 students actively took the Olympiad Quiz. The top scorers from each institution were awarded on Oct 4 2019 in the inaugural ceremony of IYPT 2019.

Day 1

The programme was inaugurated by an invocation to Lordess Saraswati succeeded by lamp lighting by our distinguished guests. The chief guest for the event was

Prof. UdayMaitra Professor, Indian Institution of Science, Bangalore. Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, IIS deemed to be University presided over the function.

Further, the opening and welcome regards were given by Dr. Ashok Gupta. He told about the importance of periodic table in our daily life. Prof. R K Bansal briefed about the events going to be held and also he addressed about Prof. UdayMaitra.

The winners of Chemistry Olympiad from each institution were awarded by Dr. Ashok Gupta and Prof. UdayMaitra. Around 57 students (first, second and third position holders from each institutions) from 19 institutions were awarded. The Science magazine, Science Spectrum was released by Dr. Ashok Gupta, Dr. Rakhi Gupta, Prof. UdayMaitra, Dr. ManishaPatni and Dr. SreemoyeeChatterjee.

Then, a lecture was given by Prof. UdayMaitra. In his lecture he highlighted about the various ways to represent a periodic table and performed various magic tricks with chemicals, like reaction of thiocyanate and cyanate with ferric chloride. He discussed the chemistry in human body, animals, mobile phones etc. He performed some experiments like the elephant toothpaste, nucleophilic substitution reaction, photo-luminescence and chemi- luminescence. He also interacted with the students during his lecture and told about the history behind the names of chemical elements. He also motivated students to never give up. At the end he entertained the students by playing a periodic table song.

A vote of thanks was given by Dr. PragyaSinha, Head, Department of Chemistry.

The inaugural ceremony was followed by inter collegiate competitions for the UG and PG students of science from different students. All the activities were based on the periodic table. These three activities were organised on day 1.

SKIT COMPETITION

Topic: “Know Your Elements”.

Total participants- 5

Judges: Mr. Kapil Sharma, Department of Dramatics, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur and Dr. ShashiPrabhaTiwari, Professor, Department of Chemistry, IIS (deemed to be University) Jaipur

Various aspects of Chemistry were presented by the students in the SKITs performed. The themes of SKITs presented were based on periodicity and reactivity of elements, s, p, d, f block depicting the importance of f-block elements and chemical bonding of elements like covalent, ionic, and metallic bonding.

The Prizes were given by Mr. Kapil Sharma to the position holders.

Judges- Dr. SudhaKalla, SKIT College, Jaipur and Dr. ShwetGoyal, Department of Fine Arts, IIS (deemed to be University) Jaipur.

Topics covered by the students for poster presentation were transition elements, Chemistry of five life elements of Periodic Table and some of the students prepared periodic table on their own way. Several models were prepared on periodic table. The theme of the models prepared by the students were-Halogens, E-waste recycle, mother country of elements with importance, Periodic Board game, use of waste material to improve your knowledge, Periodic Table on the basis of blocks.

The Prizes were given by DrSudhaKalla to the position holders.

Day 2

The Morning session started with an inspiring lecture by Prof. R K Bansal. He shared some interesting facts about periodic table. He described the discovery of phosphorus and talked about Madam CURIE, who was given noble prize for the discovery of radium. He made the students aware about the extinction of different elements on earth. He showed 'periodic table's new version that warns about the elements which are endangered.

He discussed the different properties, special traits and uses of some elements like lithium, yttrium, gallium, oxygen, hydrogen, aluminium, calcium, tin, tungsten, and osmium etc.

Two events Quiz and JAM were organized on second day.

Quiz

Topic- Periodic Table

Total teams participated- 18

DrRaakhi Gupta briefed about the competition and rules of this quiz followed by an elimination round between 18 teams registered for the quiz competition. Seven teams were selected for the quiz after elimination round. The quiz was divided in different rounds. Quiz masters for different rounds were Dr. Raakhi Gupta, Dr. ManishaPatni and Dr. VarshaGoyal.

The competition was further accompanied with different rounds.

Audience also participated in Audience round.

The winners were awarded and certificate were given to them by Dr. ASHOK GUPTA (Vice chancellor of IIS Deemed to be University) and Dr. RAAKHI GUPTA (Registrar of IIS Deemed to be University)

Topic- Influence of elements in our daily life/tales from the periodic table

Judges- DrSatpal Singh Badsara, Vice Principal of Maharaja College and Dr. Neelima Gupta Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry, University of Rajasthan

Total teams participated-14

The participants were briefed about the competition and rules of this competition. All the students had to pick three chits and had to choose on topic to speak on. They got one minute to prepare on the elements they have chosen and had to speak for about one minute on it. The students were performed very well.

The Prizes were given by the judges Dr. Satpal Singh and Dr. Neelima Gupta to the position holders.

Extension activity: Demonstration for the preparation of soap, hand wash and detergent

To support this rapidly-evolving world, a new breed of academics has emerged: academic entrepreneurship. With the aim to develop entrepreneurship skills in the students this workshop was planned to demonstrate the preparation of soap, handwash, sanitizer and liquid detergent.

Dr. Trapti Gupta, Assoc. Prof. Department of Chemistry demonstrated the step by step procedure for the preparation of soap and handwash. Ms. Chandani Mathur, demonstrated the preparation of sanitizer and liquid detergent. The students were also performed the same. The workshop was summed up with the question-answer session.

Workshop on "Instrumentation Techniques"

Instrumentation techniques for PG students and Research scholars. The demonstration was given by Prof. K. S. Gupta, Department of Chemistry, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur. He made the students familiar with various instrumentation techniques. Prof. Gupta gave a demonstration of different instrumentation techniques FTIR, UV-Vis spectroscopy and others present in the laboratory along with emphasizing the applied applications in analytical chemistry.

Orientation Programme

An Orientation Programme was organized for the BCA students of the CS & IT.

In this interactive session the students were given introduction about the following:

- Course Structure
- The Metacampus app
- Biometric attendance
- Code of conduct
- Examination pattern

This session provided the students with introductory knowledge regarding the course that is provided by the university. The students were told about the Metacampus app how they can download on their cell phones and use. All the university announcements are available on this app. Students were also told about the biometric attendance, use of the ID cards and the code of conduct that has to be maintained in the University. Discipline is a major factor that has to be looked upon which includes proper uniforms.

At the conclusion of the session, the students were asked to put forward their queries, if any. The overall session was enlightening and informative. Guest speakers for the session were Mr. Kishore Chenani and Professor SatishBatra. Students equally enjoyed their session too and overall the orientation session was a success.

Departmental Orientation Program on COSD Diploma Course in “Integrated CAD and Graphic Designing”

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized an orientation program on the COSD Diploma course in “Integrated CAD and Graphic Designing”.

In this orientation the students were given a brief description of the following:

- Introduction
- The softwares taught in the course
- Career options
- Course Structure
- The Metacampus app
- Biometric attendance
- Code of conduct
- Examination pattern

Through the session an understanding was developed in the minds of the students that this course is intended for the students who want to be a graphic designer and have many other designing capabilities. This course will teach them color schemes and then its applications to draw compositions and layouts (color theory). The students will learn the critical elements of digital figure modeling that distinguish levels of refinement and quality in character models.

The students were acquainted with the fact that the course will provide the information about CAD, Photoshop, 2D, 3D Drawings, Corel Draw. Introduction and knowledge to these softwares will help the students to stand-out in the market and pave a way to their carrier. The students were informed about the roles for which they can apply for after the completion of the course:

- Graphic Designer
- Digital Artist
- Illustrator
- DTP Operator
- CAD Designer
- Product designer
- Motion Graphics Artist
- 3D Artist

At the conclusion of the orientation the query round was held in which the students got an opportunity to put forward questions to satiate their curiosity. The overall orientation was informative and the students got an exposure on new technologies.

Departmental Orientation on COSD Diploma course in “Web Design and Technology (WDT)”

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized an orientation program on COSD Diploma course in “Web Design and Technology(WDT)”.

This course is intended for students who want to be a web designer/ developer. These days almost every company requires a web designer to have a strong online presence.

In this interactive session the students were given a brief description of the following:

- Course Structure
- The software taught in the course
- Carrier options
- The Metacampus app
- Biometric attendance
- Code of conduct

- Examination pattern
- About points to keep in mind while designing a website, and about the new technologies.

They were also informed about the profiles that they can apply for after the completion of the course like:

- Web application developer
- Front end web developer
- Back-end web developer
- Design and layout analyst
- Web marketing analyst
- Senior web analyst

The main goal of the session was to acquaint the students with the course and to introduce important web design tools and processes of how to design with HTML 5, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript, JQuery, Photoshop, Flash, PHP and Angular JS. This course is intended for students who want to be a web designer/ developer. These days almost every company requires a web designer to have a strong online presence. Relevant information regarding this was also given to the students.

At the conclusion of the session the query round was held in which the students got an opportunity to put forward questions to state their curiosity. The overall program was informative and the students got an exposure on new technologies.

Departmental Orientation Program on COSD Diploma course in “Data Analytics (DAC)”

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized an orientation program on COSD Diploma course in “Data Analytics (DAC)”.

In this interactive orientation program, the students were given a brief description of the following:

- Course Structure
- The Metacampus app
- Biometric attendance
- Code of conduct
- Examination pattern

The main goal of the session was to acquaint the students with the course and to its objective which is to help students learn, understand, and practice big data analytics and machine learning approaches, which include the study of modern computing, big data technologies and scaling up machine learning techniques focusing on industry applications. In the session students were also informed about the technologies to be taken up in the course viz. Data Analysis using EXCEL, Python, Machine Learning and Statistics using R programming.

At the conclusion of the orientation a query round was held in which the students got an opportunity to put forward questions to state their curiosity. The overall program was informative and the students got an exposure to the course, its structure and the upcoming new technologies covered the course.

In -House Brochure design Competition

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized an in-house brochure design completion for the upcoming "FICR International Conference on Rising Threats in Expert Applications and Solutions". The judges for the vent were Dr. Vijay Singh Rathore and Dr. Anubha Jain. Megha Sharma bagged the first position, Niharika Jain and SapnaMadhu stood third, Riya Jain and DikshaLalwani stood third.

The students designed very innovative brochures with novel design. The event was appreciated by all.

TECHNORAZZ-2019

The students from Department of Computer Science and IT participated in an event called "TECHNORAZZ", organized by JAIPUR NATIONAL UNIVERSITY from 26 to 28 day of September'19. Our students participated in different events related to their field of interest and performed well. Following are the names of students who participated in particular competitions-

Name of the participant	Position	Name of the Activity
JigyasaAgrawal Palak Jain NishthaBhargava PriyankaRanawat	-	C Debugging
Anjali Motwani Saagarika Avni Gaur	-	General Quiz
PakhiChaudhary Seha Jain	-	Paper presentation

The students appreciated this opportunity and were given an exposure of how to deal with such competitions and how to prepare for the same. The students worked hard and hope that will also perform well in future in such competitions.

Rang De! Jaipur (Jagatpura station makeover)

Rang De! Jaipur a colorful and inspirational Event was organized by Indian Railways & Contree Jaipur. This event was whole day long and was held at Jagatpura station, where artist contribute in makeover of railway station by painting the walls. In this mega event, many Collages, schools & individual artists had participated.

Indian Railways has been on a mission to give railway stations across the country an attractive makeover. Railway Stations are being beautified with wall painting and beautiful murals.

Participants really enjoyed a lot and dispersed with a sincere hope that such mega events will be organized again giving the students a chance to display their talents and contribute as citizen.

Montage 2019 (IT Fest)

The Department of Computer Science and IT sent a group of 12 students to Montage 2019(2-day IT Fest) which was held in IIIM. Students took part in various tech and non-tech events and won various positions.

IIS (deemed to be) University won the rolling trophy as the maximum number of position were secured by students of IIS (deemed to be) University itself.

Montage 2019 has given the students new exposure to various academic (Code-Acumen, Bits & Bytes, Brain Bench, etc.) and non-academic (Spectrum, Thru-ur-eyes, Aamne-Saamne, etc.) activities. The overall event was enlightening. The awards were given by Dr. Ashok Gupta and CEO of AU Bank. There was a short motivational speech by the CEO of AU Bank on the basis of his past experiences. The session ended with various cultural events.

Bootstrap

Venue: IIS (deemed-to-be) University

Date: 22 October, 2019

Name of Guests/Speaker: Mr. Rohit Jain

The Department of Computer Science and IT organized a workshop on "Bootstrap" lead by Mr. Rohit Jain, founder and CEO of Full Stack Learning.

In this interactive session the students were given a brief description of the following:

- Introduction
- Mobile First
- Components
- Implementation

The students were provided the information on Bootstrap where Sir told the students that Bootstrap is not no CSS but less CSS. He gave the introduction about Bootstrap official website. Also he told about Content Delivery Network(CDN).

Sir further discussed about the implementation of Bootstrap where he explained the components of Bootstrap i.e. Alerts, Cards, Buttons. It was an enlightening experience for the students as they were able to learn and implement the basics of Bootstrap. All the students gained valuable insight regarding Bootstrap.

At the conclusion of the session the query round was held in which the students got an opportunity to put forward questions to satisfy their curiosity. The overall session was enlightening and the students enjoyed it. The session ended with thank you note by expressing gratitude to Mr. Sharma for taking out time from his busy schedule and making the students aware of the basics of Cloud Computing.

Miss Pink City 2019

It was a moment of great pride for the dept. of CS & IT as Ms. YashviSoni of BCA Semester IV was crowned the Title- "Miss Pink City 2019" 2nd Runner Up at "Mr and Miss Pink City Season-3". She proved her talent and bagged the award at the show which was organized on 18th November 2019 and was directed by MrGauravVerma.

IPRISM COMIC SRTIP COMPETITION

It was a moment of great pride for the dept. of Cs & IT as Joyec Philip, KashishKhatri, Niharika Jain, SapnaMadhu students of B.Sc. (H) Multimedia & Animation (Sem VI) had participated in the IPRISM COMIC SRTIP COMPETITION, in under supervision PriyankaDewatwal. The competition was organized by ASSOCHAM (the Associated Chambers of Commerce & Industry of India) held in Aug 2019. The Topic of the competition was INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS. They got 5th rank (all over India) and invited in the IPRISM award ceremony held on 20th November 2020, New Delhi.

Jaipur's Largest Live Art Exhibition

Department of CS & IT participated in Rang De! Jaipur another colorful and inspirational Event, organized by Jaipur Development Authority &Contree - Let's Get Together For a Cause.

The event was supervised by Ms. Joshita Sharma (Assistant Professor, Dept. of CS & IT). The event was whole day long and held at Central Park Jaipur, where artists contributed in makeover of Central Park by painting the walls. In this mega event, many other Colleges, schools, institutions & individual artists have participated.

Jaipur Development Authority has been on a mission to give parks an attractive makeover by organizing Jaipur's Largest Live Art Exhibition. Blank Canvases were decorated by the splash of colors and strokes of creativity.

FICR International Conference on Rising Threats in Expert Applications and

It was an opportunity of immense pride and prestige for IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur to organize 3 day's FICR International Conference on Rising Threats in Expert Applications and Solutions 2020 from 17 January 2020 to 19 January 2020.

The event commenced at 10:00 a.m. on 17 January 2020 with the inaugural proceedings comprising a prayer seeking blessings of the Almighty followed by lamp lighting by the dignitaries on the dais. The dignitaries present were Dr. Ashok Gupta, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor IIS(deemed-to-be) University, Prof. Venugopal K.R.(VC, Bangalore University, Bengaluru), Prof. E Balagurusamy (member, UPSC, govt. of India, Delhi), Prof. PradeepBhatnagar (dean, IIS (deemed-to-be) University, Prof. Vijay Singh Rathore (Conference Convener), Dr. Niko Philips, Prof. Milan Tuba, Prof. Mike Hinchey and Mr. Aninda Bose.

Dr. Ashok Gupta, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, IIS (deemed-to-be) University, congratulated the organizers and highlighted the facets of technology and its need in the coming future. Prof. Vijay Singh Rathore appraised the gathering with the aims and objectives of the conference. Prof. Rathore said that the purpose behind naming the conference FICR is because it is high time to find positive solutions to worries for things (fikra).

The book of abstracts also was released by the dignitaries on the dais. It was followed by address by special invitees.

Prof. E. Balagurusamy (Former Vice Chancellor, Anna University, Chennai) highlighted the timeline of Artificial Intelligence and importance of rightful smart use of data.

Dr. Niko Philips (Director-International, Activate Learning, City of Oxford College, UK) expressed his pleasure in having come to participate in the conference and thanked everyone for the warm welcome.

Prof. Venugopal (Vice Chancellor, Bangalore University, Bengaluru) acknowledged the organizers for organizing a conference of such magnitude.

Prof. Milan Tuba (Vice Rector International relations, Singidunum University, Belgrade, Serbia), acquainted the gathering with the enormous opportunities in the field of computers, artificial intelligence and discussed the current trends in the field of computers.

Dr. Mike Hinchey (Professor, Software Engineering, University of Limerick, Ireland) stressed on the use of data and how companies are strategically using its various forms.

Mr. Aninda Bose (Senior Publishing Editor, Springer Nature, India) highlighted the importance of organizing such conferences which focus on discussing innovative ideas, addressing challenges, and finding solutions on a common platform.

The inaugural was concluded with a formal vote of thanks by Dr. Anubha Jain, Head of CS & IT, IIS (deemed-to-be) University.

The first technical session was chaired by Prof. E. Balagurusamy, (Former Vice Chancellor, Anna University, Chennai). Prof. Venugopal K.R. (Vice Chancellor, Bangalore University, Bengaluru), Prof. Mike Hinchey, (Professor, Software Engineering, University of Limerick, Ireland), Mr. Aninda Bose, (Senior Publishing Editor, Springer Nature, India) and Dr. Niko Phillips, (Director-International, Activate Learning, City of Oxford College, UK) spoke over the theme “Science, Technology and Society”.

The second technical session of the conference was chaired by Prof. N.N. Jani (Mentor, Institute Industry Interaction cell, Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya, Gandhinagar), who very warmly welcomed all the keynote speakers. The theme of the session was “Humane Conduct-The Only Solution To Every Problem” and Prof. Milan Tuba, (Vice Rector International relations, Singidunum University, Belgrade, Serbia), Prof. Dharm Singh (Professor, Department of Computer Science, Namibia University of Science and Technology, Namibia), Prof. Hanumanthappa M., (Director, Department of computer science, Bangalore university, Bengaluru) and Prof. R.S. Salaria, (Head, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Rayat-Bahra University, Hoshiarpur) delivered their keynote address.

A special session was held on the topic “Directed Thinking” with large number of students in the audience.

Wherein, Dr. E. Balaguruswami interacted with the students over how to get happiness and success with their work. He suggested students to focus on Character enhancement, Competitiveness, Confidence in oneself, Creative Thinking and accepting challenges in Career. He discussed how goals should be realistic enough in order to be achievable and to compete with others rather than comparing. Dr. R.S. Salaria shared his views about the “Think, Innovate and Excel programme”. He advised the students that one should be a solution seeker for problems. Dr. Bindu Vijaykumar suggested the importance of Global Careers, Internship, Social Media, Foreign languages, and Conferences for making a successful career. The session was ended with a thank you note addressed by Dr. Vijay Singh Rathore.

The third Technical session of the conference was chaired by Prof. Milan Tuba, (Vice Rector, International Relations, Singidunum University, Belgrade, Serbia). The theme was “Internet of things (IoT): Living in Connected World”. Keynote addresses were delivered by Prof. N.N. Jani, (Mentor, Institute Industry Interaction Cell, Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya, Gandhinagar), Prof. O.P. Rishi, (Head, Department of Computer Science, University of Kota and Mr. Vipin Jain, (Tech Lead -QA, Metacube Software Pvt. Ltd., Jaipur).

The fourth Technical session was chaired by Prof Sheng Lung Peng, (Professor, Department of Computer science and information Engineering, National Dong HWA university). Keynote addresses were delivered by Dr. Nilanjan Dey, (Editor at IGI global journals, assistant professor, Department of Computer Science, Techno India, College of Kolkata, Kolkata) proclaimed that computer aided detection helps in making accurate and reliable predictions in the field of medical sciences, and Prof. Reena Dadhich (Associate Professor, Kota University, Kota) discussed the security of expert applications using quantum cryptography, opportunities and obstacles therein.

The conference received incredible response from both delegates and students in reference to research paper presentations. More than 300 abstracts were received out of which 100 full length papers were selected after rigorous review process. In all 80 oral presentations and 10 online presentations (through Skype) were made and 11 posters were presented. Paper presenters came to attend the conference from all corners of the country. We had international participants as well from countries like Italy, Nepal and Peru. We highly appreciate their sincere contributions.

Republic Day Prade

It was a moment of great pride for the dept. of Cs & IT as Anshika Jain student of BMA (BSc (H) multimedia and animation Sem II) participated in republic day parade program held in Delhi on 26 January 2020. She proudly represented the state Rajasthan with dance performance "ghoomar".

Technitude 2020 - S.S. Jain Subodh P.G. College

The Inter College Fest from 7/ 2/2020 to 8/2/2020, "Technitude 2020" an inspirational Event was organized by S.S. Jain Subodh P.G. College.

Technitude was organized to encourage and give knowledge about the Technology and its right use, where students participated in Poster making, Short Film Making and Face Painting. In this mega event, many Collages participated.

Our students stood 2nd position in Poster Making and Short film making. Everybody enjoyed the cultural function during validation ceremony and highly appreciated the organizers. The function revealed many aspects of our culture before the audience.

MIR Best ramp walk 2020

It was a moment of great pride for the dept. of CS & IT as Ms. YashviSoni of BCA Semester IV was crowned the Title- "MIR Best ramp walk 2020" at "Miss Iconic Rajasthan 2020". She was crowned the title by very famous Fashion designer Mr. Karan Vig. She proved her talent and bagged the award at the show which was organized on 8 February 2020 and was directed by Mr. SomilJagjyo. The show was organized by Uttam Sharma, MukeshSaini, Ravi Sharma and SomilJagjyo.

Changing Technology For Better World

On the occasion of Science Week being celebrated by DST, Rajasthan, a presentation competition on the theme "Changing Technology For Better World" was organized on 27/02/20 at Science Park, Shastri Nagar Jaipur.

It was a moment of great pride for the dept. of CS & IT as Harshita Sharma, RadhikaRathore of BCA Semester VI ,JigyasaAgrawal of BCA Semester IV and Swati Agarwal BCA of Semester II participated in the Technical Presentation Competition. They presented their student research project of "Virtual Labs" as an innovative approach towards updating the teaching technology in order to provide a better academic environment to the students.

There were total 10 presentations from different institutions and universities of Jaipur. The idea of taking classroom teaching to next level by introducing Learning Management System was appreciated by all the judges and delegates. They bagged the first prize in the competition.

One Day Workshop on Blender

Department of Computer Science and IT of IIS (deemed to be University) organized a one-day workshop on Blender LED by Dr. Sameer S Sahasrabudhe Senior Project Research Scientist, at the Department of Computer Science, IIT Bombay on 7 March 2020 from 9:00 am to 1:30 p.m. DrSahasrabudhe is specialized in advertising, animation film production and open source 3D animation software: Blender. He focused on concept of designing and provided various activities to make it clear.

In this workshop, students were given a brief description on using Blender for 3D modeling and creating animation video. The students were informed about the 3D objects and their different views. And the basic features of Blender i.e. moving, rotating and scaling the object. At the end, students were able to animate the objects by learning the concept of key frames. Students performed modelling via blender. Around 30 students participated in this workshop.

At the end of the workshop the query round was held in which students got an opportunity for to put forward questions to satisfy their curiosity. The overall session was informative and students enjoyed it. The workshop ended with thank you note by expressing gratitude to Dr. Sahasrabudhe for taking out time for from his busy schedule and making the students aware of the basic concepts of blender.

Online three days Refresher Course

The Department of Computer Science organised an online three day awareness program on "Digital Platforms for Online Teaching & Evaluation" for the faculty members of the University on 24 and 25 April 2020. The IISU faculty has been taking online classes successfully during the lockdown period. Through this program they were further exposed to various other platforms which are helpful in effective teaching and efficient student assessment. LMS like Canvas and Google Classroom, Quizzers like Kahoot, Educaplay and class marker, Remote Desktop Sharing platform like Teamveiwer, Secure Meeting platform like Cisco WebEx, Video recording software like Loom and Camtasia were discussed. The program turned up to be informative for all. A troubleshooting session will be held on 30 April 2020.

" Faculty Development Programme on Python 3.4.3 "

A five day Faculty Development Programme on Python 3.4.3 was successfully organized by the Department of CS & IT from 25 April to 29 April 2020. The FDP was organized in association with Spoken Tutorials and IIT Bombay. 31 participants took part in this FDP. Through Spoken Tutorial, which is an initiative of National Mission on Education through ICT, MHRD, Govt. of India, the participants were given access to collection of videos related to Python 3.4.3. The participants watched these videos and completed the assignments. A course journal was also submitted by all towards the end of the workshop. The FDP was self paced and was organized free of charge. The participants found it to be very useful and fruitful.

Orientation Programme for Undergraduate Students

An Orientation programme was organized by the Department of Mathematics for all the Under Graduate students on July 22, 2019.

The programme started with final year students sharing their summer internship experience with the first year post graduate students. They gave presentations which threw light on course. This interactive session was appreciated by the students of both years.

Copies of syllabus of various UG courses were given to the students. Detailed information was given by DrSurenDrakumarAgrawal, Head, Department of Mathematics.

A feedback form, pertaining Departmental & University Orientation Programmes, was distributed to all the students present. Then some activity plan for students The session ended after collecting the duly filled-in forms from the students.

Orientation Programme for Postgraduate Students

An Orientation programme was organized by the Department of Mathematics for all the Post Graduate students on July 23 , 2019.

Copies of syllabus of various PG courses were given to the students. Detailed information regarding Dissertation was given by DrSurenDrakumarAgrawal, Head, Department of Mathematics.

A feedback form, pertaining Departmental & University Orientation Programmes, was distributed to all the students present. The session ended after collecting the duly filled-in forms from the students.

Brain Zone: an exercise on Mathematica and Matlab

The Department of Mathematics organized a Brain Zone: an exercise on Mathematica and Matlab for all the UnderGraduate students on September 28, 2019. The exercise was for harnessing the power of thinking outside the box to solve that high level problem. Brainstorming combines a relaxed, informal approach to problem solving with lateral thinking. It encouraged students to come up with thoughts and ideas that can, at first, seem a bit crazy. Some of these ideas can be crafted into original, creative solutions to a problem, while others can spark even more ideas. This helps to get people unstuck by "jolting" them out of their normal ways of thinking. The total 98 students attended the session. The test was successful and beneficial for the students.

Online course on LaTeX for Students, Engineers, and Scientists by IIT BOMBAYX

The faculty members and post graduate students of the department of mathematics joined an online short term course on "LaTeX101x: LaTeX for Students, Engineers, and Scientists" organized by IIT BombayX from 24 September -2 December. 2019. Total 7 faculty members and 9 students of PG enrolled and successfully completed the course. The numerous customization options in LaTeX allow for the creation of a diversity of documents with precise control over layout and formatting. LaTeX lends itself well to the creation of templates which do not require advanced knowledge of LaTeX to use and manipulate, allowing a novice LaTeX user to create beautiful documents and learn LaTeX as they go. Students learnt the tool very well and hope will use in writing their seminars, dissertation, research paper etc.

LaTeX is a document preparation system and is widely used in many scientific fields like mathematics, statistics, computer science, engineering, chemistry, physics, economics, linguistics, etc.. It is a powerful and open-source system that provides numerous facilities for automating typesetting of the document: i.e. structuring page layout, listing and auto-numbering of sections, tables, figures, generating a table of contents, managing cross-referencing, citing, and indexing. Unlike other WYSIWYG editors, the content is written in plain text along with appropriate commands, thus, allowing the user to concentrate on the content rather than the aesthetics.

Orientation Session for UG students

A departmental orientation session was organized for the benefit of the new students joining the department in the 2019-2020 sessions. Wherein, the presentation included Location of the Department, Faculty Profile, Semester System, Syllabus, Credit System, Scheme of Examination (CA and SEE), Assessment and Evaluation, Time Table, Departmental activities of 2018-2019 session, Metacampus, Library – Digital, On-Campus and Reference Section and plans for the present 2019-2020 session were discussed and introduced to the students. The queries of the students were also addressed.

To introduce the new students to their seniors an interactive activity of Quiz was organized by the senior students. The students participated in the activity with great enthusiasm. In the end the Feed-Back was taken.

CARTOGRAPHY ACTIVITY

Activity: Cartography Activity

Date: 12th August 2019

Time: 10:00 to 01:00 PM

Venue: Geography Lab, IISU Campus, Jaipur

The Department organized a “Cartography Activity”. The session was conducted by Dr. Mini Mathur of the Department of Geography for the students of the following courses.

Programme	Paper Code and Paper Title
BA/ BSc/ Bed (P/H) (Practical)	GEO 303 (TECHNIQUES OF RELIEF REPRESENTATION IN GEOGRAPHY)
BA/ BSc/ Bed (P/H) (Practical)	GEO 503 (TOPOSHEET AND WEATHER INSTRUMENTS IN GEOGRAPHY- Practical)
MA/MSc	GEO 325 (Practical)

HUMAN GEOGRAPHY QUIZ

The department of geography organised an online gaming quiz for the students of third semester on 23rd August 2019 on the theme of Human Geography by Ms. Taniya Singh. The event was planned so as to make students aware of the online educational gaming platforms like Kahoot.

It was an interactive and fun session where the students learnt about the various aspects of the subject amidst a fun and frolic environment. Ms. SimranBhati of BA Semester third secured the first position.

Mock - Regional Organization Activity

The Department of Geography organised Mock - Regional Organization Activity for the students of Fifth Semester on the theme of Role of International and Regional organizations in shaping the world economy, geographically. This is the first time that an activity of stature has been organised at university level in the state of Rajasthan. This inter- disciplinary activity was coordinated by MsTaniya Singh. The students represented as delegates from various organisations like World Trade Organisation, European Union, SAARC and ASEAN.

This event gave the students a chance to embody the diplomats of various countries who facilitate the global trade and tariff policies. The event was judged by Dr. Archana Gupta (Dept. Of Political Science), Dr. ShilpiChakravarty(Dept. Of Foreign Trade Management) and Ms.TaniyaSingh(Dept. PG Orientation - Department of English

The Orientation session for the Post-Graduate students joining the Department of English was held on 16 July, 2019 in the Aaditya Hall from 10:30 AM onwards. The students were welcomed by the Head of the Department, Dr. Rimika Singhvi, who introduced the faculty members of the English Department to the students, and also informed them about the details of the M.A. curriculum, referring to a PPT prepared by the faculty for the students' benefit. In their turn, other academic and extra-curricular aspects of the Department and the facilities and infrastructure provided to the students was explained.

The new candidates were also given information about their seniors in the course who had achieved accolades in the field and two alumnae also spoke to them via recorded videos, making for a lighthearted, yet informative session.

The session broke for refreshments at this time and the students were taken to the Hostel Mess for light snacks, after which they returned to an interactive session with three Alumnae of the Dept., Sagarika Prabhakar, Mili Jain and Avani Joshi.

Sagarika Prabhakar is a graduate of the Erasmus Mundus Master's program and is returning now for her PhD. Mili Jain is a NET qualified graduate who is currently an intern at Siyahi, a literary consultancy. Avani Joshi will soon be joining King's College, London, to pursue an M.Sc. in Digital Marketing.

All our visiting alumnae evinced interest in advising, guiding and welcoming the new candidates into the Department's fold with enthusiasm, answering questions and providing pertinent clarifications.

The session came to an end with mementos being accorded to the visiting Alumnae and a group photograph taken to make the gathering a memorable one.

UG (Honours) Orientation - Department of English

The Orientation session for the Undergraduate Pass Course students joining the Department of English was held on 23 July, 2019 in the Vinayak Hall from 10:30 AM onwards. The students were welcomed by the Head of the Department, Dr. Rimika Singhvi, who introduced the faculty members of the English Department to the students, and also informed them about the details of the M.A. curriculum, referring to a PPT prepared by the faculty for the students' benefit. In their turn, other academic and extra-curricular aspects of the Department and the facilities and infrastructure provided to the students was explained.

The new candidates were also given information about their seniors in the course who had achieved accolades in the field, in an effort to highlight the avenues available to them through their course.

Immediately after followed an interactive session with two Alumnae of the Dept., Unnati Jain and Anushka Yadav. Unnati Jain is a NET qualified Assistant Professor at SS Jain Subodh College, while Anushka Yadav has gained experience as a reporter and copywriter, and will soon be joining Humber College, Toronto for a Diploma in Journalism. Both of them expressed their pride at returning to their Alma Mater and regaled students with enlightening anecdotes of their experiences as students. Both of them also encouraged students to participate in college life and learn from the numerous opportunities available to them on campus.

The session came to an end with mementos being accorded to our visiting Alumnae and a group photograph taken to make the gathering a memorable one.

Poem-a-Sketch

The Reader's Club of the Department of English organised a Poem-A-Sketch activity on 30 July 2019, wherein students participated in a creative session on writing a poem based on a sketch that had been mounted on an easel for visual emphasis. A number of thought provoking, reflective and uplifting poems were penned by the students and many were read out for the audience to enjoy. It proved to be a very satisfying event.

Reader's Club Session on Kaafir

The Reader's Club of the Department of English organised a session on the discussion of the web series Kaafir on 25 September 2019. Based on a true story, the 8 episode long series traced the experiences of a Pakistani woman and her Indian daughter, as they endeavour to return to Pakistan aided by a sympathetic Indian journalist. The students were asked to watch the series well in advance, which many of them did. Attendance at the event was notably contemplative, enthusiastic and discursive, as participants exchanged opinions on topics ranging from the characters' sense of identity to the complexity of human relationships. The session was informative and enjoyed by all.

BEC Teacher Support Programme

She emphasized on different factors of deterioration like natural and manmade and discussed the factors that cause damages through an example of Calico Museum Ahmedabad. Sensitivity of textiles and vulnerability to decay when stored or displayed in inappropriate environmental conditions was also explained.

Thereafter Dr. Anamika Pathak briefed the audience about the handling and movement of textile objects. She described the materials used in handling of textiles like aluminium with wooden edges, PVC tubes of different dimensions according to the products and for storage of the object like flat keeping, framing, mounting and card box.

Another session was taken by Ms. Smita Singh. The key highlights were on the different factors and causes of deterioration like mechanical, physical and chemical. She gave the condition report for textiles to the participants for getting an idea about the practical procedures of documentation of textiles. This report is used by the conservators in museum to keep record of the objects. She also explained the concept of reactions which can be the cause of degradation of textiles like photochemical and oxidative reactions in the presence of light, humidity and temperature. She also explained how condition reports are produced after detailed examination of the object.

The second day of the workshop begins with the session conducted by Ms. Smita Singh. She addressed on analysis and testing methods for textiles like weave analysis, stitch analysis and digital methods. She explained the method of handling objects which includes folding with the concept of tissue paper padding to resist the object from creases.

This was followed by an overview of curative treatment of textiles. She explained that there are two types of cleaning i.e. mechanical and solvent cleaning were explained. She emphasized the selection of appropriate cleaning method to be used for conservation of textiles either in museum or in personal wardrobe.

She explained the concept of cleaning through pictorial presentation, and demonstration was given. She also showcased the specimen of adhesive coating to the participants for better understanding of object preservation. She also demonstrated the digital tool known as dinolight microscope which is used to take pictures of minute details of the object. This was followed by practical exercise where participants used sponge, brush and vacuum cleaner for cleaning purpose. Thereafter Dr. Simmi Bhagat took a session on stabilization of textiles. In this session she explained the basic stabilization of textile conservation stitches. She demonstrated various stitches and participants tried those stitches on samples.

The sum up the workshop was very useful and meaningful for the participants and delegates. With the help of practical experiences participants were able to understand the importance of valuable textile heritage, handling the museum artefacts and basic curative conservation techniques for upkeep of the textiles artefacts for the posterity.

भाषाएँ केवल अभिव्यक्ति का माध्यम नहीं, सांस्कृतिक गौरव की भी वाहक होती हैं। विभिन्न भाषाओं का ज्ञान हमारी अभिव्यक्ति को अधिक प्रभाव गाली बनाता है। खासकर लोकभाषाओं के पास मुहावरों व लोकोक्तियों का असीम भण्डार है जो उनके कथन को स त्क बनाता है। लोकभाषाओं की भाब्द सामर्थ्य का अनुमान इससे ही लगाया जा सकता है कि राजस्थानी भाषा में ऊँट के लिए ही चार सौ से अधिक पर्यायवाची हैं, तो विक्रमी कलेण्डर के हर महीने में बरसने वाले बादलों के लिए एक अलग नाम है पर अत्यन्त खेद का विशय है कि दुनिया में इस समय प्रचलन में मौजूद करीब सात हजार भाषाओं में से आधी भाषाओं पर इस सदी के अंत तक लुप्त हो जाने का खतरा मंडरा रहा है। ऐसी स्थिति में हर संवेदनशील व्यक्ति का यह कर्तव्य है कि वह अपनी मातृभाषा को बचाने का दायित्व निर्वहन करे। यूनेस्को ने भी 21 फरवरी को अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के लिए चुना।

अ या कपूताँ सूँ दुखी, सगलो देस समाज।

महाविद्यालय की छात्राओं में मातृभाषा के प्रति प्रेम जगाने व उन्हें जागरूक करने के उद्देश्य से 22 फरवरी 2020 को दी आई आई एस वि वविद्यालय के हिंदी विभाग की ओर से मातृभाषा दिवस के उपलक्ष्य में अनेक गतिविधियों का आयोजन किया गया। इस अवसर पर छात्राओं के लिए— भारतीय मातृभाषाओं में वर्णमाला लेखन, स्लोगन एवं पोस्टर प्रतियोगिता तथा लघु वीडियो प्रतियोगिता का आयोजन किया गया जिसमें छात्राओं ने उत्साह से भाग लिया।

मातृभाषा दिवस के अवसर पर आयोजित वर्णमाला लेखन प्रतियोगिता का

आयोजन 22 फरवरी 2020 को प्रातः 11:15 से 12:00 बजे तक व 601 में किया गया।

इस प्रतियोगिता में 15 विद्यार्थियों ने भाग लिया। प्रतिभागियों ने पंजाबी

Poster Exhibition

IIS University celebrated Mahatma Gandhi's 150th Birth Anniversary by organizing a 'Picture -Poster Exhibition' by students of Department of Political Science, History and Public Administration on 31st August 2019.

The event began with lighting of the lamp and garlanding picture of Gandhiji as a sign of respect. It was inaugurated by Prof. K.S Sharma (Advisor) and Prof. M.K. Sharma (Dean, Commerce and Management). Students presented Posters, comprising of Gandhiji's motivational phrases, their moral values, life achievements, struggle in achieving independence to the country. The event concluded with pictures with the judges and their decisions. It was a very fruitful experience for the students and faculty.

Film Screening and a Quiz on Mahatma Gandhi

To commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the department of History, Political Science and Public Administration came together to organize a joint activity to celebrate the occasion. On 3rd September, 2019, all the students of semester V of aforementioned departments gathered together at the Vinayak Hall for a short film screening on the various facets of life of Mahatma Gandhi and his significant contribution in paving ways for India's freedom through his philosophy of non violence and truth. This was indeed a great learning experience by re memorizing the sacrifices and freedom revolts which eventually played inevitable role in shaping India's freedom.

The screening was then followed by an interesting quiz based on the film, which covered questions on Mahatma Gandhi's decisive role and involvement in achieving Independence of India. The students were distributed pens for every correct answers. The response for the activity was not only enthusiastic but gleeful. The activity finally was concluded with a vote of thanks.

Documentary Screening on Vijayanagara Empire

To acquaint the students with the Character of Krishna dev Raya and his contribution to the development and consolidate of the Vijayanagara Empire, a documentary was screened for Semester III students of the Department of History. The film dealt with the history of Vijayanagara Empire which was one of the powerful empires of south India founded in 1336 A.D when Mohammad Bin Tughlaq was ruling over North India. The focus of the documentary was on Krishna dev Raya's reign and achievements and his role in making Vijayanagara as one of the important kingdom of Hindu dynasty.

Interactive session with the students New Jersey (USA)

The Department of History, IIS (deemed to University) had the privilege of hosting a student exchange contingent from the College of New Jersey (USA) on January 13, 2020. 10 Students of the College were accompanied by two Faculty members-Prof. Marla Jacksh and a Dean. The students of New Jersey introduced themselves. Prof. Sharad Rathore, Head department of History welcomed the students. The students of the Department welcomed the students with garlands of flowers .This was followed by the Guest lecture on Royalty in Transition. She started with her presentation through an overview of Indian History while,emphasizing the position of women in Rajasthan through various periods. The students raised various questions and pointed out key insights from the discourse.The students had made a background reading of the material and had many queries related to the issue, which were answered by Professor Rathore. This was then followed by a formal vote of Thanks which was delivered by Ms Aadya Sharma from Semester IV of the Department. This session ended with a group photograph of the students from the College of New Jersey along with the students of Department of History of the University. This session was an enriching experience and was appreciated by all.

Film Screening on Gandhi

To acquaint the students with the character of Mahatma Gandhi and his contribution to Indian National Movements, a film “Gandhi” by Richard Attenborough was screened for all students of the Department of History on 24th February, 2020. The film dealt with Gandhi who was the leader of the Indian independence movement against British rule and his social, political and spiritual influence on the country during pre and post-independence times. The film starts with childhood, his early influences, and his study to England and then goes on further to South Africa to practice law. When he attempted to claim his rights as a citizen, he was abused and soon saw that all Indians suffered similar treatment. He developed a method of action based upon the principle of courage, non-violence and truth called Satyagraha. Using the principles of Satyagraha, he led the campaign for Indian independence from Britain. Gandhi had been an advocated for a united India where Hindu and Muslims lived together in peace and helped free the Indian people from Britain rule through nonviolence resistance and is honored by Indians as the father of the nation.

Picture Poster Exhibition (150th Gandhi Jayanti Celebration)

IIS University celebrated Mahatma Gandhi's 150th Birth Anniversary by organizing a 'Picture -Poster Exhibition' by students of Department of Political Science, History and Public Administration on 31st August 2019.

The event began with lighting of the lamp and garlanding picture of Gandhiji as a sign of respect. Students presented Posters, comprising of Gandhiji's motivational phrases, their moral values, life achievements, struggle in achieving independence to the country. The event concluded with pictures with the judges and their decisions.

Documentary Screening and Quiz

The Department of Political Science, Public Administration and History jointly organised a documentary screening followed by a quiz on 'Gandhi and his role in National Movement' for the students of Sem V(Hons. and Pass Course) in the A.V Hall on the 1st September 2019 to celebrate 150th Gandhi Jayanti.

The documentary was very informative and the students participated eagerly in the quiz. Overall the event was very fruitful.

Model United Nations

On 05th March 2020, the Department of Political Science organized its very first Model United Nations (MUN) for students. Model United Nations, also known as Model UN or MUN, is an educational simulation and/or academic activity in which students can learn about diplomacy, international relations, and the United Nations. MUN involves and teaches participants speaking, debating, and writing skills, in addition to critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership abilities.

The students participated in great number and prepared rigorously and enthusiastically for the event one month in advance.

This activity generated a very good sense of team work and leadership skills in the students. Also one noticeable outcome of the event was that the students had prepared their topics thoroughly and done their research to a very good extent. Also initially the students who hesitated in speaking publically, eventually started taking interest in the debate and represented their thoughts in impressionable ways. The overall outcome was very positive on the side of the students, at the same time was an enriching and highly informative session.

Departmental Orientation

The Department of Psychology organized an Orientation Programme for Freshers 2019 (Both Undergraduate and Postgraduate) on Thursday, 25th July 2019. The event was organised in order to familiarize the newcomers with the functioning of the department as well as make them gel in with their seniors at an informal level. The programme began at 11:30 AM with a traditional and warm welcome to all the faculty members and students with tika-moli. The faculty members also planted a seed of life to symbolize the beginning of a new academic year.

The event proceeded with an AV Movie presentation comprising of an Informal Musical and poetry cum skit Introduction of the teachers, which not only filled enthusiasm within the audience but also kept everyone in splits. Thereafter an interesting Ice breaking game cum Name introduction was held. The programme was carried further with the words of the Dean Academics. Dr.Roopa Mathur who acquainted the students with the course structure and departmental facilities at the university. This was added by an explanation of the credit system, examination pattern and a short discussion on the working of Metacampus and various co-curricular activities by other faculty Members. Also, some of the new students gave solo musical performances. The orientation then concluded on very informative note by discussing the scope of psychology and making the new students aware about the various fields of psychology.

Movie Screening "The Voices"

The Psychology Department organized a Movie Screening "The Voices", It is a 2014 black comedy horror film movie. It is based on the tale of a man who can't look back, really since the death of his mother, or he'll really go insane. Once you start talking to your pets, there's no turning around. And that's what Reynolds truly captures: the idea that Jerry is a man forced down a road of violence by things that he cannot control .The movie screening was held in A.V. Hall and was attended by nearly 100 students. All the students and faculty members found the movie very beautiful.

Workshop on Expressive Artwork Therapy

February 22, 2020 turned out to be a very positive day, thanks to Mrs. Manju Khaden and Mr. Khaden. These facilitators of the Expressive Artwork Therapy opened the session with an extremely warm greeting to everyone followed by individual introductions of all the participants. They clarified the tone of freedom, non-judgment and safety from the very beginning and maintained the same throughout the session. The theme of the therapy was Self-Compassion. This concept was broken down into 3 parts and the session was also divided into phases accordingly.

I. Recognising emotions and befriending them

The facilitators distributed drums to everyone and a team-building exercise took place. Everyone was to beat their own beat and not talk, and then drum together with everyone as well. This enhanced the realization that each person was alone but also together at the same time. After this, the facilitators portrayed six gestures of self-love and went around asking everyone what their intensions from this session were. This was followed by a few Tai Chi exercises. The following aspects were covered:

Emotion: Scribble on the newspaper using 2 pastels representing any two negative emotions.

Message to Emotions: Write what you tell your negative emotions.

Embodiment of pain: Draw and depict where does it hurt when you experience these emotions.

This was followed by distribution of a sensory bag which contained a stimulus for all the 5 senses.

II. Recognize that you are not alone in experiencing these emotions

Using the newspaper (and/or pastels), we were asked to create a representation of interconnectedness, on half the chart. Also, a prayer was to be written which promotes contentment.

III. Loving yourself

Finally, the third phase was marked by creativity and pastels were used to portray self-compassion on the rest of the chart. Then, in a group of two, students were asked to discuss coping strategies.

Everyone's artwork was displayed and the session ended with a few more drumming exercises. All in all, it was an enriching experience and the session was packed with many little lessons. Expressive artwork is a rejuvenating technique which brings out your inner child.

Dialogue around gender and sexuality

The Department of Psychology, IIS (deemed to be University) organised a seminar on 29th Feb 2020 on " Dialogue around gender and sexuality" that majorly focused upon LGTB community and their constitutional rights. Members of Global Shaper Community, World Economic Forum were also invited to throw light on the issues of LGBT community. The session was taken by Ms. Shikha Soni of IIS university.

The presentation also aimed at highlighting the concepts and the differences between sexual orientation, gender identity, and sexual identity. The Kinsey's Model of Sexual Orientation was also discussed. Other relevant topics such as ; The effects of Social discrimination that brings stress to the LGBT community (like depression, homelessness, suicidal symptoms, alcoholism) and myths around LGBT community were also discussed in detail. The idea of being an ally to LGBT people was also put forward. Overall, it was an enriching experience for all.

Celebration of 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi

To commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the department of History, Political Science and Public Administration came together to organize a joint activity to celebrate the occasion. On 3rd September, 2019, all the students of semester V of aforementioned departments gathered together at the Vinayak Hall for a short film screening on the various facets of life of Mahatma Gandhi and his significant contribution in paving ways for India's freedom through his philosophy of non violence and truth. This was indeed a great learning experience by re memorizing the sacrifices and freedom revolts which eventually played inevitable role in shaping India's freedom.

The screening was then followed by an interesting quiz based on the film, which covered questions on Mahatma Gandhi's decisive role and involvement in achieving Independence of India. The students were distributed pens for every correct answers. The response for the activity was not only enthusiastic but gleeful. The activity finally was concluded with a vote of thanks.

1.	Breast Cancer Awareness	22 October 2020	100	Ms. Angana Goswami Counselor, Sanjeevani NGO, Jaipur

Breast Cancer Awareness

Breast Cancer is the most common female cancer worldwide. In India, it accounts for 25% to 32% of female cancers, where in every four minutes one woman is diagnosed with breast cancer and in every thirteen minutes one woman dies of it. Therefore, it makes it essential to have cancer literacy in women and for this, an initiative was taken by Women Cell of Department of Sociology by organizing a guest lecture on 22nd October 2019 to raise awareness for breast cancer among Indian women and health professionals.

Ms. Archita and Ms. Angana stated that because of low cancer literacy the risk factors are more among Indian women, irrespective of their socio-economic and educational background. Considering this fact, there is an urgent need for nation- and state-wide awareness programmes, engaging multiple stakeholders of society and the health system, to help improve cancer literacy in India. They also shared the information and tips on how a woman could take care of herself and can examine herself initially for breast cancer at home. As they were the face of Sanjeevani NGO, they told us about how their NGO functions in terms of helping people who suffer from cancer.

The overall session was informative and concluded with a question-answer round. The session helped the students to gain knowledge regarding breast cancer which will not only be helpful for them but also making more people aware of this.

Visit to Rajasthan Lalit Kala Academy,Jaipur

The students of IIS deemed to be University were taken to Rajasthan Lalit Kala Academy,Jaipur on 14th September 2019 from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m to attend the art talk and exhibition of an Egyptain Artist Muhammad Mustafa Aljabi. His sculptures are made up of different materials such as wood, marble and metal .They were based on ancient and modern Egyptain theme with thought process of 20years.The visit was planned to enhance the knowledge of the students in the art filed. Total number of 57 students, both from BFA,BVA (sculpture and painting) and MVA(Print making) accompanied by Dr.Nirupama Singh ,Senior Assistant Professor and Mr.Heera Lal Kumhar,Lab Assistant of Fine Arts department. It was successful visit and the students got benifited from the artist's sculptures and the information provided by him.

Painting Demonstration on Creative Composition

What better opportunity a student can get than seeing an artist creating his masterpiece while getting along and sharing his experience and knowledge. The event was a live demonstration on " Creative Composition" by Dr. Nandanlal Thakur. He is the Assistant Professor in the Department of Visual Arts, Himachal Pradesh University, Summer Hill, Shimla. Apart from being a teacher, he is also a renowned artist at national and international level. He has taken part as an exhibitor in various places in India & abroad. He was appointed as an administrative member in Lalit Kala Academy, New Delhi.

The demonstration was organised by The Fine Arts Department of The IIS University on 17th September, 2019. Following our Indian culture Dr. Nandanlal Thakur was welcomed by tika mauli and a memento was offered as a token of appreciation. There were around 64 students in all who witnessed it.

Dr. Nandanlal Thaur was kind enough to interact with the students on each stage while creating his painting. Before starting off with his work he told the students to just play with the colours rather than paying attention and focus on the subject matter. He used different acrylic colours to apply the base. He applied the colours in strokes and a lot of free brush strokes were visible in it. The student's curiosity was getting deeper and deeper as he proceeded with playing with colours . it was looking like our artist was creating an abstract painting but in the end everyone was surprised as it turned out to be a beautiful composition of human figures. As he was applying more colours to the canvas he was continuously interacting with the students and sharing his experiences and knowledge. As said by the artist himself he had nothing on his mind before starting the work, he just went with the flow and created whatever was coming to his mind on the spot.

One of the major take back from this session was that it isn't necessary to pre decide the subject matter of our painting. We should simply let our thoughts flow and create as we paint. Composing while playing with the colours and on the go.

It was a great experience for the students to see how to create a composition without any predefined thoughts.

students could learn rapid sketching and converting that into a perfect composition. They also observed the style and technique of the artist. This could open the hitch of creating painting rapidly.

Visit to 'Gandhi Utsav'- Art Camp at Central Park

On the occasion of 150th birth anniversary of the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi ji, Cultural Institution Seher has organized an event named 'Gandhi Utsav'- Art Camp in collaboration with Department of Tourism, Government of Rajasthan on 2nd October, 2019 at Central Park, Jaipur. Around 30 national as well as international artists participated in the event. They had to make their paintings related to Bapu's life.

Total 48 students of the Department of Fine Arts went to the camp accompanied by Mr. Shwet Goel, Asst. Professor- Selection Grade and Ms. Aayushi Jain, Asst. Professor. It was a very different exposure for them. They got to see how every individual artist used different techniques like doodling, abstract, charcoal etc. to portray bapu's life and got a chance to interact with them. Also they got an opportunity to interact with Mr. Hari Shankar ji, renowned calligraphy artist and learnt how to write Hindi and English calligraphy. Such activities are very beneficial for the students as they learn something new from them.

Poster making Activity

How will one make its contribution in creating awareness on water conservation in this hour of need. The students of Bachelor's of visual arts, The IIS University got this opportunity on 11th January 2020 when a poster making activity was organised by THE TIMES OF INDIA & WATER SANITATION SUPPORT ORGANISATION (Public health and engineering department). It was an initiative to conserve water, save life.

Around 43 students took part in this awareness campaign. Their contribution came out in the forms of various digital and manual posters, all talking about ' EVERY DROP COUNTS, DO YOUR BIT.' Each and every poster had a strong visual impact. The colors, compositions, visuals and slogan all came out beautifully together. A new perspective was seen on this topic through various colors and thoughts the students had.

At the end of the activity everyone left with a feeling of responsibility towards the society and nature. All the students received a participation certificate along with very appreciative words from the organisers which motivated them to become a part of such initiatives more often.

Election Commission of India Poster Competition

Being a good citizen of any country comes with the responsibility of voting regularly in order to have a good functioning government. College life is where we learn how to become responsible for the country. The students got such an opportunity in the painting workshop conducted under the guidance of Rajasthan Lalit kala Academy on the occasion of celebrating the 10th national voter's day on 25th January' 20.

The workshop was organised at Bhagwat Singh Mehta Sabhagar, Jaipur in which around 25-30 artists had taken part. 15 students from our university went under the curatorship of Mr. Shwet Goel. It was a good platform to express views about voting and election as a student. To see people around working through different mediums and visuals and conveying strong messages gave a different insight. How a simple poster can convey mind altering thoughts is something which was interesting to see for the students. Strong lines supporting visuals of people voting, representing different parts and castes of india was a thing to look forward to.

This workshop proved to be a good exposure for the students who are the future of our country, the working group in a few years. The one thing which everyone took back from this workshop is how to convey a message impactfully to the masses with minimum words and visuals.

Fresco Workshop

To learn an ancient Indian painting technique 'Fresco Buon' which was a very prominent style of painting and can be seen in the frescos of Ajanta and was lost in the time due to invasions and some or the other reasons?

Fresco is a style of painting which is done on the prepared walls. It is an ancient Indian technique which is being practiced by a few artists of India. Dr, Nathulal Verma a miniature artist as well as a fresco artist is well known in this field. Another artist cum artisan Mr. Radha kishanji is also technically sound in preparing surface, colour and tiles to teach students the actual technique of Fresco Buon. The main objective of the workshop was to learn this ancient Indian technique to work on walls.

A piece of art is just not the final end product, it's the artist's hard work, patience, a lot of thought process put into it. It is to know from where it originated, the history it has. It requires a lot of hard work and patience to create an artwork. The students of Fine Arts were able to experience this in the "Fresco Workshop" conducted by The Department of Fine Arts, IIS Deemed to be University from 5th - 25th February'20.

Dr. Nathulal Verma and Radha Kishan Ji were the eminent artists who guided our students through it. In this 20 day workshop the 35 students learnt the art of making a fresco tile from the scratch. Starting from how a tile is made, how to make the natural colours, the process of applying it. Their patience was tested along with it, taking care of the tile as if it was a child. The phrase of putting all your heart and soul in an art work was well seen in action here.

Our faculty members and lab assistants didn't stay behind. They took this as an opportunity to enhance their skill and knowledge. They enjoyed being a student again. This chance of getting the knowledge first hand about an age old art form from the artist was a golden opportunity for everyone.

The students of painting could learn one of the famous painting style of Indian Art. They were taught to create tiles made of ancient methods, make colours through natural things like minerals, Kajal, semi precious stones etc. The students learnt the whole process of painting and technique. They were asked to create one or two tiles but they got so much interest in that they created more than three or four tiles. A great enthusiasm could be seen in the students to learn this technique and creating many tiles.

Painting Demonstration

Painting is one such medium which allows us to express our emotions, thoughts, imagination through colours without any boundation.

This phenomenon was well understood in a demonstration done by Prof. Anjani Prabha Reddy , former head, painting, JawaharLal Nehru Architecture and Fine Arts University, Hyderabad. She is now working as a freelance artist. It was a good interactive session in which all the students and faculty members of Department of Fine Arts took part.

She advised the students not to lose the connection with art and practice it on a daily basis. This routine will help in building up confidence and hold on various mediums along with reducing the fear related to art. Her best advice was to be unafraid in expressing any thought and keep experimenting with art we are related to. This fearless feeling was evident in the way she applied colours to the canvas. Started off with dark colors and easily kept on mixing others into it. Experimenting was just not in her words, it was visible in the way she used the tail end of a brush to create the masterpiece on the base she had applied. The next canvas was unpredictable. None of the viewers could guess the colours that came out in the end. How easily she included a human figure in the whole composition along with the supporting elements was interesting. How to work in layers without the fear of the outcome and how to compose different elements together was what every student could learn from her.

No point in running away from new techniques she said,as the great artist Picasso also said that we should do self discovery through our art and try new things and not stick to making it realistic. Prof. Anjani was kind enough to share how she practices her art and the process she goes through in coming up with one masterpiece. She breaks out of her mundane routine and experiments with different mediums and ends up discovering a new thing. Self criticism is the key to creating good paintings that's her mantra.

She ended the workshop on the note that while being a student one should learn every preset rule of art but as we grow further one should know how to unlearn those rules. One should always keep the child alive within and everytime draw fearlessly like a child.

Strategies to Manifest your dream career

22 August 2019

The IIS (deemed to be) University, Jaipur 229 organized a session on 'Strategies to manifest your dream career'. The session was taken by CS Vanshika Mathur who is the Manager of UCO Bank, Bangalore and an alumini of ICG. The session began with small introduction and interaction with students asking them about their future career plans and what they are pursuing at the moment. Ms Vanshika encouraged the students that if you think you can do it then you can do it. The person needs to have a positive outlook in life. She spoke about how we should believe what we want to do and have determination towards achieving it. She talked about the importance of connections and fellowships in one's professional life. She told the students about financial independence and its importance for the girls. She told the students about how how she started and how she achieved what she has today. She asked the students that they should not take burden of studies and give their health and equal importance.

In a nutshell, the session was very motivating and encouraging for the students specially who are pursuing a professional course as their career.

Community engagement service
Naya Sawera
'Let's wake up for a better tomorrow'

Department of Management (HRM & IB) organized a session on 'Let's wake up for a better tomorrow' as part of its Community Engagement Activities Drive for MBA Students at Room no. 409 in IISU Campus on 29th July 2019, time 9.30 am. to 10.30 am. The session was taken by Mr. Akhilesh Maheshwari, through intervention of Naya Sawera NGO. Naya Sawera is an NGO which runs several campaigns across Jaipur to help the under privileged people of the society such as:

1. Days of pride- Akhilesh Maheshwari is also called the "padman" of Jaipur and has sold over 25000 sanitary pads for just rs.10.
2. Shelter home for boys- they have a shelter home for boys who went missing, went through child labour, or were misplaced.
3. Kokh- this campaign is for pregnant women who are not financially capable enough to birth a healthy baby. They provide them with food and medical assistance. More than 600 women have been helped by them.
4. Blood donation drives
5. Walk against hunger

Mr. Akhilesh highlighted that they welcome anyone who is kind enough to volunteer in their organization. Mr. Akhilesh showed the students some presentations containing the amazing work that they are doing and had an interactive session asking what everyone felt about the current situation of the society and the changes we want to see. Overall, it was quite an eye opening and motivating session for everyone present.

Community Engagement Service Activity

"BECAUSE EDUCATION EMPOWERS"

Department of Management: HRM & IB organized a community engagement service activity on 3rd August 2019. The speaker for the session was Ms. Mrinalika to address the students about the wonderful initiative she has taken towards the society and also shared about her journey to this foundation.

Sashaktikaran Foundation is a non-profit organization established in 2017. They envision and enable children in Rajasthan with basic literacy but also empower them with values and expose them to opportunities to explore themselves inside as well as the outside world. They do this by creating schools into a sustainable learning system where every stakeholder- Principal, teachers, students as well as parents are collectively committed towards a collective vision and constantly learning to improve themselves for the best of children studying in school. Sashaktikaran, in the year 2017 took up the project named as PARIVARTAN - A School Transformation Project. The year 2017 was marked by the association with very first school in Jaipur, Geeta Ashram Children's School. They welcome anyone who is kind enough to volunteer in their organization.

Students were shown some presentations containing the amazing work that they are doing and had an interactive session asking what everyone felt about the current situation of the schools and the changes we want to see and ways we can help those children. It was quite an eye opening and motivating session for everyone present.

ALUMNAE MEET

Department of Management: HRM & IB organised 'Alumnae Meet' on 17th August, 2019 in Ojas Hall, IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur. The session begin with the welcoming of the seniors and sharing of their experiences. The objective of this meet was to reconnect with pass out students of the Department and utilize their resources and skills for betterment of current students. Alumnae of the department shared their experiences and cherished the memories of their students life.

In the end, Professor M.K. Sharma (Dean Faculty of Commerce and Management) blessed the students with his motivational words. The entire programme came to an end by a photo session and refreshment.

Alumnae Corner

'Journey of an Entrepreneur'

Department of Management: HRM & IB organized an activity on 'Journey of an entrepreneur' as part of the monthly Alumnae Corner of the department on 26th September, 2019. Department alumnae, Ms. Chetana Agarwal, Regional Operations Coordinator, BNI India was invited to share her professional experiences and evaluate the presentations prepared by MBA-Sem-I batch (2019-21) students.

Nothing shapes a student's perception about their idea or market better than talking with an Entrepreneur; this transforms them and their way of thinking; Students in this "Journey of an entrepreneur" activity went out to understand market, pivot, pitch, and spend time outside the building to learn and practice Lean Startup concepts by taking Entrepreneur interviews. These interviews were a valuable source of information as successful entrepreneurs shared their success stories and experience behind the stage.

Community Engagement Service SASHAKTIKARAN

MBA Semester I students of Department of Management: HRM & IB went to GEETA ASHRAM SCHOOL on 28th September. The main aim of the visit was to interact with kids by knowledge sharing and developing their interpersonal skills. Students were divided them into three groups as follows:

- Group 1 (Art & Craft)

Classes (Nursery, KG, Prep)

The objective was to enhance the recognition in colors, numbers, letters, fruits and vegetables of kids.

Class 1-3

The objective was to make kids more familiar with surroundings

- Group 2 (Dance)

Classes - Nursery, LKG, Prep, 4-6 and 8th

Our aim was to develop the art of performance and communication among students who are articulate and sensitive to open up. A purpose was to enable students to learn about the importance of culture, movement analysis and physical expression

- Group 3 (Sports)

Classes 1-6 and 8th

The objective was to build a sense of physical strength in children and help them to open up and also develop confidence and a strong mental health.

Overall it was interesting and experience sharing visit.

Community Engagement

“SPREADING AWARENESS ABOUT TRAFFIC RULES”

On 28 September 2020 Students of MBA Semester I, Department of Management: HRM & IB, IIS DEEMED TO BE UNIVERSITY went to Ryan International School for spreading the awareness about traffic rules. They were accompanied by President Mr.K.K Sharma and treasurer Ms.Khushbu Bhardwaj from Traffic Tutor NGO along with Asst. Sub Inspector Smt.Indira Ji and Sub Inspector Sripal Singh Ji from traffic police. The main objective of the activity was to prepare the Generation Next to follow traffic rules and bring change in society. Students also learned how to handle digital media through online awareness drive.

Experinomics: Learning through Experience

In the soaring heat, everybody needs a refreshing drink or two. On 30th September 2019,the students of MBA were given an opportunity of learning through experience by participating in an activity called “Selling Lemonade”. For this activity, all the students of MBA first year were divided into groups and each group had to sell lemonade by following some guidelines.

This activity was designed in two phases with the objective of making students understand the practical application of classroom lectures of Economics, Accounting and Research. The first phase was performed on 30th September in college hours i.e. from 8:00am to 12:00 noon in the college campus. A big challenge was to arrange all the input/raw material in the budget of Rs.500 only. All the students worked in advance with their particular groups and developed their plans and strategies to take this activity further. The project manager and the location for the activity were decided well in advance.

On the day of the event, all groups arranged and decorated their stalls innovatively at the pre-decided location. There was lots of enthusiasm among the students. Each group had something unique in their lemonades. They made variations in the prices of lemonades to identify the price elasticity of demand. Each group also adopted different market strategies and methods to attract customers. At 12:00 noon the activity was declared over and all the teams reported with their sales and cost sheet to Dr Mahima Rai. The first part of the event ended with a lot of learning in terms of planning, organizing, coordinating and working in teams.

The second phase of this activity will be followed next week when a presentation will be made by each group on practical application of classroom learning.

Women Empowerment through Self Defence Skill Camp

The NSS unit of IIS (deemed to be university) organized a seven days camp for Women empowerment through self defence in collaboration with Women cell of Jaipur Police for NSS volunteers of the university. About 60 students of MBA also participated in the camp as part of their Community Engagement paper. The objective of this camp was to empower the girls by imparting them with self defence martial art skills. Self defence martial art skills training is specifically chosen to empower the girls so that they can protect themselves from mis-happenings taking place with girls in society now a days.

During the camp two women police officers have trained the girls. In order to empower the NSS volunteers of university with skill of martial art to be used against wrong doers, they taught various techniques practically to the girls. They also presented various situation in front of girls like front rolling, back rolling , when someone push from back or front ,etc. and taught them how to tackle in such adverse situation.

The seven day camp ended on 25th January 2020 in presence of DCP and IPS Preeti Jain, Additional DCP Sunita Meena and Inspector Mamta Shardul along with rector and faculties of university. In the valedictory session, DCP and IPS Preeti Jain addressed the gathering and quoted that martial art skills are insurance which will help girls to save in situation of difficulties. She focused on the fact that a girl should try to save herself on her own for first by making use of self defence techniques and then only look for legal help. Additional DCP Sunita Meena also addressed the girls and given them a message of not to be afraid of anyone. During valedictory session, NSS volunteers have demonstrated different tricks learned during the camp in front of dignitaries. All the volunteers trained in camp seemed to be full of strength and confidence after the camp.

JOY OF LEARNING WITH KIDS & UNDERSTANDING THEIR RESPONSIBILITY TOWARDS FUTURE GENERATION...
As part of the community services with NGO Sashaktikaran Foundation, students designed fun activities for school kids including Art & Craft, Dance and Sports.

With Traffic Tutor.. preparing the Generation Next to follow traffic rules and bring a change in society... Students also learned how to handle digital media through online awareness drive... Thank you Traffic Tutor

Employability Mock Process' Workshop

The Department of Management Studies and the Training & Placement Cell, IIS (deemed to be) University had organised a Three-Day Workshop on 'Employability Mock Process' held on 10th, 11th and 12th October, 2019 for the students of BBA Semester III and V. There were about 75 students participated in the Workshop. The Workshop was chaired by the Resource person Ms. Akansha Manchanda, Endeavor Careers, Jaipur. The key Resource person was felicitated and warmly welcomed by Dr. Shivi Saxena, Training and Placement Officer, IIS (deemed to be) University, Jaipur.

The objective of the Workshop was to develop the employability skills among the students and instill confidence in them.

Day1 Preparation for Aptitude Test

The workshop was commenced on October 10th 2019. On the first day, Ms. Manchanda discussed about how to enhance aptitude and reasoning skills. She discussed various forms of vocabulary including the meaning, origin, pronunciation and usages of words, their synonyms and antonyms, as well as uses of idioms and phrases.

Day2 Techniques for Group Discussions and Mock Group Discussions

On October 11th 2019, the resource person discussed the techniques of participation in Group Discussions, Do's & Don'ts in Group Discussions, and conducted Mock Group Discussions for the students. There were about six Group Discussions held in the session. Each group consisted of 8-10 members. The topics of the discussion were related with current scenario. All the students actively participated in the mock Group discussions. At the end of each discussion, the resource person gave personal feedback to the students.

Day3 Tips for Personal Interview and Mock Personal Interviews

On the third day of the Workshop i.e. October 12th 2019, the resource person addressed the students about the tips for how to face Personal Interviews effectively. Mock interviews were conducted for all the participant students. During the mock interview, questions were asked from students like - introduce yourself, tell about your hobbies, strengths, weaknesses, career objective, and some specific questions regarding their discipline. This gave an opportunity to the students to interact with the Resource person and her team for personal counselling. Feedback was also provided to each student on their performance.

Outcome: The workshop was successful in promoting the employability and aptitude skills among students. The sessions were very interactive with the students. It helped the students in promoting knowledge of reasoning, vocabulary and grammar. The workshop gave an insight on the use of communication skills, leadership skills, effective listening, outer box thinking, self-efficacy, Interview skills, and use of data and information during Group Discussions.

Professional Makeup Workshop

“Make up is an art and beauty are the spirit”

The workshop was on power dressing and professional make up organized by the Training and Placement cell of The IIS University was conducted by Pooja Khandelwal, make-up artist and currently an IISU student.

The workshop first focused on professional grooming. Grooming is presenting yourself. Ms. Pooja believed that grooming and make up must be as natural as possible. Since every time we use artificial chemical embedded products so she believed in using natural herbal products to take care of the skin naturally without harming.

The workshop next focused on how to do makeup, the do's and don'ts while applying makeup. She thoroughly explained the steps involved in it and also talked about the consistency, density and texture of layers on the face to give it a professional look.

This workshop was both theoretical and practical. Here, we had one volunteer on whom Ms. Pooja applied makeup to show the right way of doing so.

The workshop concluded with a very beautiful makeup on the volunteer's face. To conclude the conclusion of the workshop when art, spirit, and nature comes together it creates an innate beauty.

Talk Journalism

With the changing needs of media that is undergoing these days; there is a requirement for platforms where the learners can take a step towards initiating the media dialogue. Aiming towards the same the Training and Placement cell of IIS (deemed to be) University became the bridge between the students of journalism department and the 6th Annual Talk journalism -2019 which took place between 20-22 September,2019 at Hotel Fairmont, Jaipur.

Talk Journalism is an event which enables students to listen and interact with various prominent journalists from many media houses. This year to promote the learning of the working of the news agencies and news industries which is why a newsroom was made. The Training and placement cell called out to all the interested candidates to sum up in 100 words that why should they be the part of Newsroom. Anisha Singh, Sapna Isswani and Shruti Bohra finally got the selection mail from Talk Journalism for the same.

Various famous personalities like MP Mr. Shashi Tharoor, the veteran Media personality, Indian TV anchor, writer and Managing director of NDTV Mr. Ravish Kumar, the political satirist, columnist, podcaster and author Mr. Cyrus Broacha, the Indian television journalist and anchor of CNN-News 18 Mrs. Marya Shakil and many such personalities were the prime speakers at the forum.

Our students got the golden opportunity to intermingle with them, ask questions and video interview them behind the scene and report their sessions as well, Anisha Singh covered a story on Mr. Tharoor's session and that even got published in DainikBhaskar. She even covered the Ravish Kumar story in Hindi. Sapna got to have a video interview of Mrs. Marya Shakil, Mrs. Deepal Trivedi (Editor, Ahmedabad Mirror) and Ms. Nistula Hebbar (editor- Politics in National Bureau of The Hindu), and Ms. Prerna Sahini (city editor- Dainik Bhaskar). They even learnt how news room works at different Hierarchy and what perception to have in mind while writing a new beat, how to do the field work, what and how a reporter does; from classroom to newsroom how the transition takes place.

The aspiring journalists in making from the university got recognized for their work and was rewarded in form of bylines of various stories for the same. Anisha got to cover 5 Hindi stories and begged the Best Reporter of the newsroom. Shruti Bohra got 4 Hindi stories and 1 English story. Sapna got bylines for 4 English stories and credits for 5 pictures and 3 videos. They learnt various tips from many sessions and seemed to have an amazing and a very memorable experience.

Resume and Statement of Purpose

A two-hour workshop was held on 14th October, 19 in The IIS University, Jaipur which was open for all the students of the university. The workshop focused on building a student's resume and the Statement of Purpose. The workshop started around 1 pm with the felicitation of the guest speaker who was Mrs. Vidya Suresh, the country manager, ESIGELEC India office.

In the first half, Mrs. Vidya Suresh emphasized on the significance of resume. She elaborated some of the characteristics of a good resume. She also explained the format of a CV which has to be in the reverse chronological order. She highlighted some of the main points which has to be included in the person's CV and those were: Personal contact details, Professional experience, Educational qualification, language skills, computer skills, Personal interests, References. She also emphasized on the importance of using some of the action words that can make a resume more attractive. In the educational column of the resume-Specializations, ranks, honors, awards, publications etc. are to be included to get an overall review of the person's performance.

Other things like attending a workshop, learning a new language could also be included. She also mentioned things that don't work in a CV which include spelling errors, lack of personal details, poorly presented photograph, fancy formatting etc. The second half was all about how to write a Statement of Purpose. The student has to understand that it is not a literary exercise. The answer to the following questions has to be there in the SOP: -

- What do I wish to accomplish?
- How did I arrive to this choice?
- How will this impact my future career plans?
- What style am I going to adopt?
- Who's my audience?

She also suggested checking the SOP, editing it, rewriting it and asking a family member or a friend to read the document to provide suggestions. The things that are to be taken into consideration when writing an SOP is, to avoid lies, plagiarism, flattery, childish sentences.

The workshop was wrapped up around 3 pm. The efforts of Mrs. Vidya Suresh ji were appreciated and encouraged by the staff as well as the attendees. There were a lot of questions put up by the audience which impressed the guest speaker. She showed her willingness for such workshops more in the in the coming future which is certainly motivating and encouraging both for the students as well as the faculty.

Industrial Visit to Zee Studio

An Industrial Visit to ZEE STUDIO, Sitapura, Jaipur was organized by the Training and Placement Cell and Department of Advertising and Brand Management. Dr. Shivi Saxena and Dr. Shubha Meghwanshi facilitated the visit for students.

The studio stands as one of its own kind, spread over 4 acres of land, with 4 studios in the premises. During the visit, the students were acquainted with the Pre and Post recording sections viz. Session on Incubation Centre

A session was held on 20.08.19 in the meeting room of IISU campus on 'Handholding Budding Student Entrepreneurs by establishing Incubation Center'. And was attended by the HD of all professional courses of IIS deemed to be University.

The session covered the necessity of Incubation center on campus and the requirements for the same. The speaker started the session, elaborating the necessity of incubation center. He apprised the audience about the Government funding policy for campus incubation center. He also told that Government focuses on entrepreneurship to create more businesses.

The role of the Incubation Center was explained, which basically motivates the students for idea generation. It helps students from idea generation to up scaling business.

The speaker informed that, there are five stages of setting up the cell -

1. Idea generation - Placing an idea drop box in the campus can be a good source for collecting ideas from the students. This provides a good thrust area for incubation center.
2. Infrastructure for establishing the center
3. Concept of businesses - Registration of the start - ups from campus. IPR cell to help for the same.
4. Funding - university should also provide seed funding to the start-up companies, which can be from 1 lac to 10 lacs.
5. Mentoring - A mentor to be appointed, who shall have experience in the same area. Faculty members can be real mentors.

Cultural Extravaganza

There is a plethora of extra-curricular activities on campus which give an opportunity to the students to hone their creative skills and further enrich themselves. Participation in these activities develops team spirit and raises their level of self confidence in interacting with fellow students and peers.

From folk and classical to contemporary dance forms and enchanting music performances, there is something for everyone. A number of inter and intra institutional competitions such as painting, Poem recitation, Rangoli, Mehendi, Debates, Short plays, Singing, Dancing etc. are organized regularly to keep the campus alive and vibrant throughout the year.

THE IISU COUNCIL

The Students' Council of IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur is the representative body of the entire student community. It is the interface between the students and the administration and the two work together to identify and address concerns that affect the students directly and indirectly. It represents the interests of the students and participates in discussions and decisions that affect the entire student body.

The members of the council are nominated through an open and transparent system which ensures that students from all faculties, programmes and departments have an equal opportunity of being selected. The members of the Council are nominated for a term of one year.

From acting as the students' voice and ensuring that each student gets the best out of their university experience, the Council works with a focus on an all round development of students. It organizes several co-curricular events through the year, in association with the various activity clubs/ guilds on campus. The Council also organizes most major events of the University like the Freshers' day, Thank You get together, the Annual day and the much awaited Annual cultural fest - Cosmos& Xuberance. It is also actively involved in coordinating the participation of students in Inter University competitions and fests.

An extremely important domain of The Council is its role in streamlining the student volunteer effort for the Institute events that are organized periodically. It also looks after the designing and distribution of the University t-shirt and sweatshirt. The Council is headed by the Smarnika Shekhawat (UG) and Anuradha Dasani (PG) who, in close association with other student members, work under the able leadership of the student welfare committee which includes faculty members as well.

ORIENTATION CEREMONY (FOR FRESHERS)

The University's annual Orientation programme was organized for the new entrants on 8-10 July 2019 for UG and 16th July 2019 for PG to acquaint the fresh batch of students with the institutional profile and campus environment. There were talks and presentations by experts from various fields to address the new students on the challenges posed by higher education today and how best to overcome them. There were also faculty-led sessions in which the students were briefed on the university's infrastructure, facilities, faculty profile, the institution's day to day operations, curricula and the examination scheme.

FRESHERS' DAY-XUBERANCE 2019

Fresh Start for Newbies

The University wore a festive look as it geared up to welcome the new batch of freshers. The seniors presented a kaleidoscopic show of dance and music and danced to the tunes of latest bollywood chart busters.

The program commenced with a welcome note by Dr. Ashok Gupta, the Vice-Chancellor of the University, wherein he said that good education and guidance prepares the foundation of a promising future and the university provides opportunities to its students to express and hone their abilities & talents to the fullest.

The seniors took over the stage and took the juniors to fun-filled and enthralling ride. The students of the university set the stage on fire with their exuberant performances. The girls were at their best when they performed on foot-tapping numbers from Hollywood as well as Bollywood. Some students took the program on another level with western dance forms like free style, Jazz and Broadway and left everyone spell bound.

The highlight of the event was the Ms. Fresher Contest, which was organized in various phases and was adjudged by a panel of judges that included Ms. Shreya Pardal - ICG Alumna, Ms Vinnie Kakkar, and Ms Kamna Tiwari.

Anvi Sharma (B.Sc. Hons.) from UG and Anuradha Dasani (MA-English) from PG were crowned Ms Fresher of the year. While Nalini Agarwal (BBA) was second Runner up and Hiral Bhutalia (B.Com. Hons.) & Shimoni Rathore (BA Hons.) were first Runner up from UG and Madhu Kanwar (M.Sc) & Perna Sharma (MSW) were Runner's up from the PG section category.

Verve 2019-THANK YOU BASH

The newcomers of IIS(deemed to be University) organized a Thank you bash 'Verve 2019' on 5th September 2019 to show gratitude to their seniors for the welcome party hosted by them. The event, which had a host of cultural presentations, saw freshers dancing to the tunes of Indian & Western numbers. An investiture ceremony was also conducted in which the Student Council for the session 2019-20 was announced. Smarnika Shekhawat of B.A. was nominated as the Head Girl (UG) and Anuradha Dasani of M.A was appointed as the Head Girl (PG) 2019-20.

ANNUAL PLAY -“Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha”

The students of the IISU Theatrical Society staged their Annual Play 2019 titled “Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha” on 23rd September, 2019. The play was a culmination of a 30 day workshop that taught the participants various styles of theatre, disciplines and etiquettes of working on stage.

The Chief Guest of the play was, the renowned theatre and film artist, Ms. Ratna Pathak Shah. She not only acknowledged the teams’ efforts into creating the play but also provided useful insights about what the focus points while performing should be.

The entirety of the play was a result of a lot of time put in and had its own moments. After all, Rome wasn't built in day.

Process and milestones of the workshop:

The journey of 30 days was a splendid one. Each step, leading the students to become better actors and moreover, better people with strong personas.

The workshop began with the basic step of familiarization. Introducing themselves, the students' ideas and reasons to join theatre acted as a small window to knowing the team. They got to know the director, Mr. Siva Prasad Tumu and understood his expectations from the play, the team and his work ethics.

The very next step and one of the most important one was that of interpretation. It involved looking at the play beyond literal levels of understanding. Participants pondered upon the message these stories are trying to convey and how they link them to the real world. Through this, they got an outlook upon how the participants were not there as blank slates but came with their own set of thoughts which needed to be spoken out.

Portrayal through improvisations was a very intriguing step of the process. It not only showed how creative the participants were but also brought out their opinions in a structured manner. Each group gave different forms of the same story in different styles like mime, musical or dance drama or through plain narratives but with intricate formats.

Through these improvisations, the director moved on to character blocking. This was done through linking the participants' personalities with the characters' needs. Each person brought their own eccentricities and ideography as a contribution to the characters' development.

Once the blocking was complete, the plot as a whole was formed. The loop holes were understood and covered and each story was worked upon numerous times with several different styles. In this, our acting trainers, Mr. Jagannath Seth and Mr. Mahesh Godeshwar, played a significant role.

The participants were introduced to Chaau dance and Pina Bausch's style of theatrics. Mr. Seth made them understand the importance of inculcating the habit of feeling the rhythm of the music and the essence of the story and bringing it out in our movements. Mr. Godeshwar essentially worked on building an aura and leaving your presence on stage long after you've exited. Speech should not be limited only to words and dialogues but should create a link between the actor and the audience was his training motto.

The first run through was an impactful moment and nothing less than a milestone in this workshop. The students understood what the play was trying to tell us, how strong its message is and how much more we need to contribute to it. It was one of the most emotionally moving aspect of this workshop.

Further to this came the stages of property development, set development, lighting and music settings and most importantly the art of projection techniques. The participants actively worked through the nitty-gritties of the play. Among other things was understanding how to use the stage space and exploring all possibilities of the set that was so vigorously made.

One thing that this workshop taught everybody all is that 'Theatre' is not just being on stage and delivering dialogues. It's about understanding others and more importantly, ourselves. From getting rid of inhibitions, stage fears and mental blocks to knowing that no matter how quirky you might be, theatre accepts you for who you are.

It taught us that no role is big or small. We're all working as a cohesive unit which might break and fall if one of us is lax.

Fashion Show-'CREATIONS 20'
Department: Fashion & Textiles

Department of Fashion & Textiles had organised its 11th Annual Fashion Show "CREATIONS-2020" on 22nd January 2020 at IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur. The fashion show was an initiative to provide a platform for the emerging designers and models.

The Chief Guest for the event was Mr. Jagdeesh Chandra, CMS First India News and Guest of Honour was Mr. Gaurav Jai Gupta, Fashion Designer, AKAARO, New Delhi.

The panel of judges for the show were:

1. Ms. Mamta Mansingka, Founder, KILOL Fabrics, Jaipur
2. Ms. Ritu Kedia, Fashion Designer, Jaipur

In all there were 35 designers, 50 models and 10 dancers. The choreography and music was given by Mr. David. In order to groom the girls, 15 days training for modelling was conducted. Each round was mentored by the faculty of the Department of Fashion & Textiles. For the final show, the colour board, mood board, theme board, story board, swatch board and working pictures of how they developed the entire collection were displayed through power point presentation by the designers for their respective rounds.

A total of 11 rounds were showcased in the show, which were created by the students of Department of Fashion & Textiles.

The themes of the rounds were as follows:

- Indigo Fables : Of all the rainbow colours, one knew this one's between violet and blue. Deep and rich, a bit towards azure it's sustainable fashion, for sure. Indigo rules and how! The collection comprising pants, tops and skirts, crafted from cotton-dyed fabrics, tells a scintillating story of fashion clothing done right.
- Nostalgic Vibes : Old drapes get a whole new avataar in this reflective collection which draws inspiration from the four gates of the City Palace in Jaipur. Stately spirit gets transformed in silks, crepes and nets in tints of green, blue, brown and pink, adorned with embroidery and gota work to recreate the regal splendour of the past.
- Bewitching Blend : Freedom would not be to choose between black and white, but to adjure such a prescribed choice. Quintessentially opposite in a cultural and visual sense, this formal wear collection in black and white is a rage. Chic trousers, skirts with nifty tops and jackets in stripes and animal prints are sure to give the dull and boring board-room dressing a bold and sassy makeover.

- Mosaic Flair : At the core of it all is nothing but the heart, One that understands the timeless appeal of the alluring mosaic art. A re-fashioning of denim gives way to realizing the designer's dream. Paired with tulle and bespangled with mosaic art, this dainty collection is sure to win the hearts of hard-core denim lovers.
- Wayside Wanderer : Coming straight from the majestic land of Rajasthan, asymmetrical 'street wear' in Khaddar is festooned with motifs, embroidery, appliqué, patchwork, beads and tassels, to create a bespoke look that promises to be an affair to remember.

- Forward Fusion : Reminiscent of a time gone by yet contemporary and very with it, this collection in tie and dye lends a charm that's quintessential to fusion wear. The choice of regal fabrics in quirky tints and geometrical patterns works well to give us a classic amalgamation of the timeless old and the trendy new.
- Ethnic Enchantment : Shibori art gets imprinted in silk using natural tints of warm green, pigmented yellow and raw clay in western easy-going ensembles. The essence is that of the yesteryears coming to life in the here and now. An oomphy blend of the traditional and the modern, the outfits will surely be the go-to ones for the upmarket fashionista.
- Ethereal Saga : Invoking Lord Jagannath and drawing inspiration from Him, this opulent collection in taffeta, glace cotton, georgette and net uses metaphoric tones of yellow and white with well-crafted hand-painted temple motifs to express well-being and joy, in the celebration of divinity.

- Dayspring Blaze : Amid the cheerful dayspring light, The Aurora glows, oh so bright. This dazzling formal wear collection uses interplay of lustrous colours, both inky and neon. Outfits in satin-silk and satin-cotton, flaunting the tie and dye technique, create a mesmerizing effect akin to the spectacular Northern Lights.
- Neon Glint : In the glow of the bright neon light, Let these beauties cheer and delight. Creativity gets embodied in artistic expression when pop colours in lively neon hues add to the spunk in this western wear-collection which comes embellished with neon accessories. All in all, the entire look promises to pack in quite a punch.
- Vanguards of Vogue : She leaves an impression, all classy and smart, Everlasting and timeless, like a gift of inimitable art. The age-old craft of Phulkari from Punjab inspires this Indo-Western look. The culture and festivity speak loud in shades of green, red and mustard-yellow, using silks and nets, matched with splendid accessories that spell artistic fusion.

Tree Plantation Drive

On 15th July 2019 the NSS volunteers organized and successfully completed a tree plantation activity at Sanganer area, Jaipur under the “GO-GREEN DRIVE” initiative. Trees are the foremost source for producing the oxygen in environment, they helps to reduce the level of CO₂. As we all know that the whole world is facing the problem of global warming and to recover from such problem, planting trees has become one of the most important aspects today. Tree planting is grounded in forest science and if performed properly can result in the successful regeneration of a deforested area.

A group of 50 volunteers from group C with faculty member reached the ground of the garden and were handed saplings to be planted. The event in-charge first briefed the students about the importance of tree plantation. Even the help staff demonstrated the whole process and gave the students all the know-how's on how to plant the trees and water the plants. The helpers told them about the importance of plants, their uses etc. Various types of saplings were planted by students and faculty of the university.

Tree Plantation Drive

On July 22 , 2019 NSS volunteers went to Government Schools of Dadabari, Haziawala and The students and the volunteers of the NGO together with their coordinator Abhishek worked to give manure to the trees in the forest. The students were also made aware of the importance of afforestation, the role of forest in maintaining ecological balance, natural habitats of a geographical territory. Since its monsoon time, so this activity was conducted in government school as a step towards conserving our environment by planting trees. On the day volunteers planted as well as gifted several plantlets to the school authority and to the students.

Guest Lecture on Relevancy of NSS

On 22nd July, 2019, the new members of were introduced to what NSS is all about. The session was taken by MsChandaAsani, Lecturer Women Studies. She acquainted the students with the meaning and goals of NSS and how while studying they can actually do their bit in community service. The volunteers got to know how community service can bring a positive change in their overall character and the relevance of youth involvement in India's progress. All the activities that are undertaken during the session and the information regarding credits were disseminated. The students did have queries which were duly addressed. This interactive session involved senior students too who helped in the overall arrangement. On the same day the new volunteers were allotted their NSS groups. The session gave students an insight into NSS activities.

Oath taking on Swachhata

On 5th of August the SwachhataPakhwada was started with taking pledge to devote 100 hours to cleanliness. NSS volunteers of IIS (deemed to be University) have taken oath for Swachhata. In the oath everyone took the pledge to keep their surroundings clean and make each and everyone aware of SwachhataAbhiyan.

Swachta Campaign at Dwarkadas park

On 7th August, a Swacch Bharat Campaign was organised by IIS University for all the NSS volunteers on 19th August 2019. The volunteers visited Dwarka Das park for Swachh Bharat campaign. Volunteers were provided with Poly bags along with this they used hand gloves for picking the waste. Hygiene is key for a healthy lifestyle. The activity was done to create awareness and motivate people around us , so that they do take initiative for Swachh Bharat. People passing by the park appreciated the work done by the volunteers. At the end the volunteers were happy enough for the work they did.

Swachhata Campaign at Sanganer Railway station

As we commemorate 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, his great thoughts need to be pulled into action. He is not only the political visionary who led India to freedom but a social reformer who wanted the society to outgrow prejudices, move forward to become self-sufficient and self-reliant. In tune with Gandhian philosophy the NSS volunteers participated in a cleanliness drive under Swachhatapakhwada on 8th August 2019 and the venue was Sanganer Railway station. NSS volunteers divided themselves into groups of four each. They all wore gloves and cleaned the area near station entrance. The volunteers managed to clean the entrance area of railway station. There was an excellent display of teamwork and cooperation. This for sure set an example for the general public to learn that the onus to maintain a clean environment is on us as citizens.

Swachta Rally

On Monday 14th August 2019, NSS volunteers organized Swachhta Rally in Hajiawala Community. NSS volunteers with students of Hajiawala Government School did the rally in nearby community by showcasing posters and saying slogans in chorus. Creative and informing posters were made by the NSS volunteers. The rally was conducted in two groups so that the whole area could be covered.

The aim behind the rally was to aware and educate people of the nearby community about cleanliness and healthy surroundings. Posters carried the messages like 'KACHRA KUDADAN MA HI DALE', 'SWACH BHARAT- SWASTH BHARAT' and many more which were appealing regarding the cause. Such rallies help every individual to contribute in making India clean and green.

After the rally school students with the help of NSS volunteers pasted posters on the walls of the school. The rally was successfully done in the community.

Guest lecture on Gandhiji and his humanitarian values

NSS volunteers attended a guest lecture on Monday dated 12th August 2019 by Mr. Ashutosh Nandwana of Pravah Jaipur Initiative on the topic Gandhi and his humanitarian values. The programme was started with a short movie on SMILE internship (In-'TURN'-ship) in which he talked about self discovery which is gained through engagement and having more and more interactions with people. The speaker also updated about the Pravah Jaipur Initiative, an organisation which was started in 2007. It offers a range of interventions, one of the most important being youth 'JUMBISH' annual youth festival organised to celebrate the spirit and potential of youth for social change. The guest lecture ended with a quote by Mahatma Gandhi - 'Be the change that you want to see in the world', and a memento was presented to Ashutosh sir.

Poster making on Swachhata

On 9th August 2019, posters were prepared by the volunteers related to cleanliness and hygiene with catchy slogans and pictures. Prepared posters were used in the program, some of the posters were pinned up on the different notice boards of campus as well as in faculty rooms, labs and even in classrooms. Creative posters prepared by the volunteers were pinned up in different faculty rooms around the campus. prepared posters on say NO to PLASTIC, not throwing garbage in the campus, using bins for the disposal of waste and keeping the campus clean and green. In their efforts of proliferating awareness, they also put up creative and persuasive posters at different corners of the university .

Swachta Campaign at IIS University Campus

A campus cleaning programme was organized by NSS volunteers in the university campus with active participation of NSS volunteers dated 5th AUGUST 2019 Monday. The cleanliness tasks were divided amongst the sub groups. Volunteers were divided into groups and were allotted with classrooms, laboratories, library etc. where the NSS volunteers interacted with the students briefing them about the importance of cleanliness in classrooms. Volunteers picked wrappers and foils and bits of paper lying in classrooms and threw it in dustbin and helped arranging chairs. The main purpose of this program was to create awareness among the students regarding cleanliness and its benefits and not to use plastic bags or any form of plastic .To save electricity and to take a step forward in this campaign by cleaning their classrooms. Efforts were done by the volunteers to create awareness not just among the students but also the staff members. Volunteers even interacted with teachers and briefed them about the consequences of littering and the benefits of keeping our campus clean. Volunteers even briefed about the arrival of diseases due to unhealthy environment and also stressed on Hygienic environment as it aids in better learning. "Cleanliness is next to godliness"- with this mindset volunteers took the initiative to clean the university labs. So the volunteers visited geography lab, food science lab, textiles lab, chemistry lab, physics lab ,and psychology lab .Activities ranged from cleaning the slabs and boards of the different labs which were covered in dust, volunteers even urged the students as well as faculty members to reduce their usage of electrical appliances ,students were even briefed about the proper disposal of test tubes and even the importance of using clean and sterilized instruments to prevent the dangerous spread of germs. Our teacher coordinator motivated students towards 'Clean India' by his inspirational talk. The volunteers started cleaning the entire campus and collected all the litter for disposal. Some of the students were found using plastic bottles and straws so volunteers urged them and made them aware about the consequences of using plastic and also suggested them the alternatives of plastic .while investigating the campus the students found a pile of plastic glasses, straws and bottles around the canteen area so they requested the Janitors to clean it. The enthusiastic NSS volunteers devoted their time and energy to spread the message of cleanliness across the campus at multiple canteens and rest rooms. They visited the 'Planet J' canteen and picked up littered trash and used paper plates. They also stopped by the 'Amul' canteen and spread awareness about the importance of cleanliness and being plastic free. The volunteers even closely inspected the cleanliness of the rest rooms and volunteered to close leaking taps and even picked up some scattered trash .The project does not end here volunteers took an initiative to continue this project even outside the campus and be a helping hand towards the conservation of environment .The volunteers were instructed to clean their hands with soap at the end.

Digital Awareness

India is one of those countries that is grappling with digital divide which in the present times can pull the country down in terms of development. We all are a part of 'knowledge economy' where information is the benchmark of progress and power. We are past the days when knowledge had physical boundaries or a typical formal education was determining the intellect. After IT revolution India did have smart phone revolution too, modern technology is successfully substituting primitive methodology of work and hence under the Ministry of Human Resource Development, India started a project called National Digital library of India which is a digital repository containing textbooks, articles, videos, audio books, lectures, simulations, fiction and all other kinds of learning media. As IIS (deemed to be) University is promoting learning on digital lines, the NSS volunteers were oriented for the same by Dr.Sonal Jain delivered lecture on how the portal is to be used. She acquainted the students with the registration process and gave them necessary information regarding access and restrictions.

She told the students about how they can access the Library and other digital libraries linked with it. From accessing the library through metacampus account to borrowing book digitally from another library, DrSonal Jain ensured that the session proves to be useful and informative.

Further, Dr SonalJainalso made the students aware about the best library user award, its criteria and the perks the award offers. She ended the session by telling the do's and don'ts for the college library. The session came out to be very informative and useful. The volunteers were happy and contented to know such important details. The session ended at 10:30 am

Gandhi and his humanitarian values

On 19th August 2019 , in order to mark 150th birth year of Gandhi ji , NSS volunteers took an oath on swachhta. The oath taking ceremony was followed by a Guest lecture on 'Gandhi and his humanitarian values' by AshutoshNandwana, a social worker/ entrepreneur. The lecture included a brief introduction about PRAVAH, a youth development organisation which aims to build leadership capacities of young people and unleash their ability to bring transformational social change. They have reached more than 15 States with more than 20,000 trainers and more than 300 partners. The organisation embraces more than 5,00,000 Youth and 2,00,000+ adolescent volunteers. The organization have brought about 500 social entrepreneurs as of now. The speaker also informed volunteers about their upcoming event

JUMBISH 2019 , An annual youth festival organized every year to celebrate the spirit and potential of youth for social change. It's mobilization sessions are held in schools/colleges/public places which has a wide outreach. It included an informative interactive session between the guest and the volunteers as well. In conclusion the session was educational and enlightening. Bestowing a strong message of 'Being the change we want to see in the world'.

Poster Making on Gandhiji

On 26th August volunteers of NSS attended Painting competition of Gandhiji in the Badmohanpura and Dadabari govt. School. All the children of the school have to draw the drawing of Gandhiji we made drawing of the same on the blackboard and children also made it efficiently if anybody has a problem we helped them and make them draw, we also made them draw Swachhta related drawings like Dustbin ,people cleaning with broom ,how to clean our surroundings .We have collected the sheets and photographs of it. Children enjoyed it very much.

Quiz Competition

What a wonderful way to start the week!

The NSS volunteers were privileged that they got a chance to bring smiles on the faces of little children. Monday 26, August 2019 , NSS volunteers visited Kalyanpura government school with an aim to educate children about the father of the nation Mahatma Gandhi. Volunteers conducted a quiz session on Bapu's life and teachings. Each group had a total of 20 questions made & displayed either on a chart or on sheet. Students were asked to answer different questions. To our surprise , the observation was that the students of the school upto class fifth were not even aware of Mahatma Gandhi. We tried to impart the knowledge to them about who Mahatma Gandhi and his teachings.

SwachhataPakhwada

SwachhataPakhwada was conducted in IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur between 1st September to 15th September. A Jal Shakti Team was constituted involving the faculties and students. The activities which were undertaken during this Pakhwada were conducted in University campus and in Hasampura village adopted by the University under Unnat Bharat Abhiyan. Details of the activities are:

Problem Identification

Members of Jal Shakti team visited the Hasampura village on 2nd Sept 2019 to have an idea about the existing water conservation activities undertaken by the villagers, water related problem which they are facing and to formulate strategies to deal with those problems. One day before the visit Sarpanch was informed and he was requested to inform the villagers about the Jal Shakti team visit. Villagers were asked to gather at a common place and the activity started with a discussion on present status of water in the village. During the discussion the problems identified related to water are: There is an acute problem of water in the village and there is no alternate resource except Nevta bandh. The villagers did not just face problems with respect to irrigation for agriculture but also experienced difficulties in arranging water for day to day activities. The water level in the village had depleted alarmingly over the years.

Villagers were found aware about the water scarcity in their village and they are facing it too but surprisingly not doing anything for water conservation. Male complained that women at home waste water a lot but women did not agreed to their statement. Although they are informed about water scarcity in Rajasthan through different media sources but not taking any step to resolve this problem due to lack of self-realization. Only two-three households were found to have installed the system of water harvesting. No further step was taken to renovate the traditional water bodies like wells, ponds etc.

Constitution of “Gram Jal Shakti Team” in Hasampura

A Gram Jal Shakti team of total seven members were constituted in Hasampura village on 2nd Sept 2019. Two women and three men from the village and two faculty members of IIS (deemed to be university, Jaipur), Dr. Alka Katiyar and Ms. Archana Kumari were included in the team. Approval of the village Sarpanch was taken for the Gram Jal Shakti Team.

Expert Talk on Water Conservation

On 4th Sept 2019 an expert talk was organized in Hasampura village. The expert was Dr. Alka Katiyar, Assistant professor in the Department of Environment Science. She began her talk with importance of water and scarcity of it especially in Rajasthan. She said that water conservation should begin from home itself and teaching the future generation about the value of every drop of water should be practiced in each household. She suggested few measures for saving water and appealed especially to women present there to practice those strategies at their home. She talked about the depletion of groundwater level in the village and suggested the villagers to save rain water through the technique of rainwater harvesting. She also suggested few techniques to farmers for using and storing rainwater efficiently for irrigation in their farms. Tree plantation on a huge scale was also suggested by the expert.

Poster making on Efficiency in utilization of water

A poster making competition was organized in government school of Hasampura on 6th Sept 2019. The purpose to organize this competition was to make children aware about the ways they can adopt in their day-to-day life for saving water by using it efficiently. Before making the poster children were explained by the students of IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur about how and when they generally waste water in their daily activities and how they can save water. It was very surprising to see that many students showed the ways of water being wasted in their surroundings through pictures or writing on paper.

On 9th Sept 2019 poster making competition on the same theme was organized in the IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur campus. 46 students participated in this activity and prepared meaningful posters and pasted in every classroom.

Oath taking on water conservation

Students, teachers as well as non-teaching staff members of government school of Hasampura took a pledge to conserve water. The aim of this activity was to educate children on the importance of water and the need to plant saplings. Emphasizing on the significance of water conservation, the faculty of IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur and Principal of the school asserted that it was the need of the hour. The teachers advised the students to stop wasting water and motivate their family members, friends and other acquaintances to save it.

Slogan writing on “Ban use of Plastic”

The activity of Slogan writing on ban on single use plastic was organized in government school of Hasampura on 11th Sept 2019. To make the campus free from plastic it is very important to make the students aware about the harm to the environment caused by using plastic and encourage them to take initiatives in making their campus plastic free. Slogans on ban of single use plastic were written and displayed in each and every classroom by the students.

On 12th Sept 2019 slogan writing competition on the same theme was organized in the IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur campus.

Distribution of bags for collection of plastics from households

During the visit it was found that plastic has created havoc in Hasampura as there is no facility of common dumping area. The whole village is littered with plastics. Faculties and students of IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur tried to convince villagers for not throwing garbage in open areas but in the absence of garbage dumping area it cannot be possible. So as alternative villagers were given big plastic bags and were asked to dump their plastic waste in that bag so that the van from the university will come and collect the garbage once in a fortnight.

Skit on Ban of single use plastic

Cattles roam the streets littered with garbage looking for food. As cows pick through piles of garbage, hunting for leftovers, they also consume plastic. Unsurprisingly, the biggest plastic pollutant digested by cows is plastic bags. The bits of plastic consumed build up in their internal organs, which make it difficult for cows to eat. As a result, milk production drops as does milk quality. Over time, the plastic consumption “sentences cattle to a slow and cruel death.

To sensitize the students towards this issue a skit was prepared and performed by students of government school under the guidance of students of IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur in the school campus on 14th September 2019.

Documentary Screening on Ban of Single Use Plastic

Plastic bags are everywhere in our environment. In our modern lives, they have become a part of us. However, the convenience of these plastic bags come at a very high cost to the environment and negatively affects human health. To raise awareness on the same, a documentary screening was organised for the students of D6-D10 of NSS on the topic of “Ban on the use of single use plastic”. Three documentaries were screened for the students namely ‘A plastic wave’, ‘India could ban 6 single-use plastic products from Oct 2’ and ‘What really happens to the plastic you throw away’. It was an eye opener for the students as most of them were not aware about the complexity of the situation.

Documentary screening on Mahatma: A great soul of 20th Century

The volunteers of group A, B, C, D, E (6-10) attended the screening of the documentary on Mahatma – a great soul of 20th century for their NSS activity. The activity was held at the AV hall at 9:30 am. A short documentary was being played in which all the struggles faced and witnessed by our freedom fighter Mahatma Gandhi – ‘The Father of the Nation ‘ were shown.

All the movements which took place for the independence of our country and the particular cause behind all these movements were also informatively displayed. All the rights, policies which were removed and implemented by the Britishers were also discussed.

All the students found the documentary very informative and interesting. They all came to visualise the lives of their freedom fighters more closely and got to know more about the history and importance of which played the vital role in the independence of our country.

Literacy Project in Dadabari School

The NSS volunteers went to Dadabari school for the literacy project. There were forty volunteers who took up the task to impart knowledge among the students by using innovative ideas related to education. The students made posters with the volunteers. They expressed their concern about the importance of cleanliness through art. This activity aimed at inculcating knowledge among the students so that they can become channels of spreading civic sense in general. It was a true learning experience for the volunteers as well as the students.

Literacy Project in Dadabari School (Acknowledging Mahatma Gandhi's Contribution)

As a part of the literacy project, 28 volunteers of group A went to Dadabari government school to share knowledge about Mahatma Gandhi's contribution as we mark the 150 years of his birth anniversary. The volunteers made the students write few lines about the father of the nation so that children can get exposed to India's most crucial part of the history and understand the impact that substantial leadership can have.

Literacy project/ Short film screening Hajiawala Government School

Under Literacy project, 23 NSS volunteers of group D1-D5 went to Hajiawala Government School for their NSS activity. Under the guidance of Ms. Vyoma Agarwal, the students of the school were divided in groups. Each group was allotted one class and the volunteer taught them different topics. Group D1 taught cleanliness of surroundings, group D2 taught traffic rules and animal cruelty, group D3 taught hygiene and healthy living, group D4 guided students about healthy eating and proper nutrition and group D5 screened a documentary on Mahatma Gandhi.

The main motives of the activity were to aware students about the little things which we tend to ignore and are important for the development of a little kid to a responsible citizen. The students were very happy to have an interactive session filled with knowledge, joy and fun. For NSS volunteers the feeling of teaching students was rewarding.

Guest Lecture on topic 'Healthy Breakfast as a part of PoshanMaah

A guest lecture was held in AV Hall on monday 23/09/19 on topic 'Healthy

Breakfast as a part of PoshanMaah' by NSS Department of IIS University in a time slot of one hour. The main aim of the activity was to spread awareness about importance of healthy breakfast in day today life. The speaker for the session was Ms.VyomaAgarwal, who with her sound knowledge on the topic gave us important information and cleared doubts of students at the end of session. Thus it was an overall interactive session.

Awareness about importance of breakfast among primary class students

An interaction session was held in Government Middle school, Sumernagar for making the students aware about the importance of breakfast in their meal routine. They were made to interact and take a pledge to have their breakfasts daily and a poem was also sung with the kids on the importance of the first meal of the day. Overall, it was an interactive, fun filled session.

30th September, 2019

On 30 September, 200 students of NSS attended a session on Single-Use Plastic. The session was taken over by Dr. Harshita Upadhyaya who is an assistant professor at IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur. She has life membership of certain organizations. She has also presented papers in more than 30 national and international conferences. She explained how plastic is made, how it is harmful to animals as well as for humans. She also suggested ways by which we can reduce the use of plastic and even substitute it.

The session was an informative session as the students gained a lot of information. The topic was "Thali on balanced diet". Today we have to go to Badmohanpura school and we have to teach the students that they should eat nutritious food so all the volunteers brought a thermacol plate and pictures of healthy food and taught them to eat cereals, pulses, vegetables, fruits, milk products which are high in calcium and are high in nutrition and also have many Vitamins in it, we told them to avoid the packaged food and the food which is not good for their health.

Blood Donation Camp

National Service Scheme unit of IIS (Deemed to be University) organized a blood donation camp to commemorate 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on Wednesday, October 2nd from 10.00 am to 3.00 pm. The camp was organised in association with SwathyaKalyan Blood Bank and Rajasthan Hospital. The inauguration was done by the Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, IIS (Deemed to be University). Dr. Rakhi Gupta, Rector and Registrar, IIS (Deemed to be University), Dr. Sharad Rathore, Programme Officer Unit I, Ms. Archana Kumari, Programme Officer Unit II, all the faculty coordinators, and student volunteers of NSS Unit were also present in the inaugural ceremony.

A team of 7 doctors and nurses of Swathya Kalyan Blood Bank came for collection of blood. Doctors from Rajasthan Hospital checked all the registered donors thoroughly for hemoglobin, weight, BP and other disease before approving them for blood donation. Students and Faculty members of IIS (Deemed to be University) donated blood in the camp.

There was an overwhelming response from students and faculties, a total of 102 units were collected in the camp. Some of the donors who could not donate this time were assured for donation in the next camp. Blood donors were distributed refreshment after the donation to regain the energy. The camp created awareness regarding the importance of blood donation amongst the students and faculty members.

On 14 October,

Celebrating Gandhi's Birthday by sharing quotes at BadmohanPura

50 students of NSS, Unit II went to Badmohanpura government school for celebrating Gandhi's Birthday by sharing quotes and small poems with students of school. There they all gave brief ideologies of Gandhi Ji to inspire the students and motivate them.

It not only benefited the school students but also the NSS students to get a exposure and a wide area to come up to teach others and get a chance to be the reason for someone else's smile.

21st October 2019,

Hand-Wash Awareness

Students from unit II went for community services in Badmohanpura Govt. School for hand wash awareness. Students played some animated videos and demonstration of how to wash our hand properly.

Students also distributed liquid hand wash soap in school to create hygiene awareness in small government school students. Students also displayed hygiene awareness posters on school notice board for their future referencing.

Slogan on Gandhi

On 14th& 21st October 2019, NSS volunteers , in order to mark 150th birth year of Gandhi ji , decided to make school students learn Gandhi ji's quotes. NSS volunteers for the purpose selected several quotes Gandhi ji related to non -violence, truth , faith, Simplicity, belief, Vegetarianism, etc. Volunteers explained the meaning of quotes to school students and them make them memorize those quotes. Also volunteers ask the school students to follow those quotes in their life.

Report

14th October

As a guide to action, Gandhian philosophy is a double-edged weapon. Its objective is to transform the individual and society simultaneously, in accordance with the principles of truth and nonviolence. A guest lecture on the topic “ Revisiting Gandhian Philosophy” was organised in IIS , AV hall. The resource person as Dr.Garima Srivastava, Head, Department of Journalism and Mass Media Nss Volunteers of Unit I attended the guest lecture. The students could understand that Gandhism is a body of ideas that describes the inspiration, vision and the life work of Mohandas Gandhi. It is particularly associated with his contributions to the idea of nonviolent resistance, sometimes also called civil resistance.

14th October, 2019

On 14 October, 50 students of NSS, Unit II went to Badmohanpura government school for celebrating Gandhi's Birthday by sharing quotes and small poems with students of school. There they all gave brief ideologies of Gandhi Ji to inspire the students and motivate them.

ORIENTATION - 2019

The IISU Theatre Orientation- 2019 was organised on 30th July 2019 by the IISU Theatrical Society. The Orientation Programme saw an enthusiastic participation of the students who were all geared up to attend the same. The programme commenced with a monologue presented by a member student Mansi Choudhary which was focused on how a girl survives it when the world isn't aware about what she is going through, while her innocence is being drenched in the darkness.

The programme included the introduction to the IISU Theatrical Society by Dr. Aditi R. Khandelwal (Convenor) via a PowerPoint Presentation in which she introduced the students to various coordinators and members of the society. The students were also briefed about the various events and achievements of the society, along with the introduction to the Annual Theatre Workshop and the Career Oriented Skill Developing (COSD) Course in Theatre.

Hate and crime against minorities have spiked in India since 2010, dozens of men have been lynched by mobs. With further explanation to this, next was a mono act performed by another student Mili Chadha. To lighten up the mood and spread some giggles, mono act was followed by a comic-skit presented by the students of theatrical society titled "JUNG-E-JUNGLE" which was a live telecast of the news show jung-e-jungle depicting what if all animals go on recusance against humans and to witness who will be there next leader. The skit truly made everyone laugh their heads off.

In order to break the ice, few fun-filled theatre activities were also conducted, that not only allowed the students to interact with everyone but also tested their awareness and presence of mind. The orientation was concluded with audience feedback and a note of thanks.

SKIT ON ANTI-RAGGING

The 1st year students of COSD Theatre Studies & Theatrical Society performed the first skit based on 'Anti-Ragging' on 10th August 2019 in Srijan hall at 12:00 Noon.

The skit revolved around the realization by the bullies that ragging is not a joke. The whole story revolved around a group of seniors in college and how they harass the new comers in their college. However when one of the bullies' sister is injured in the act of ragging, they rectify their mistake and understand that playing with somebody's life is not something that can be taken lightly.

The 5 minute play entails a series of events and explains that even the most insignificant acts of calling out, extortion (in case of assignments) or embarrassment to freshers can be harmful. The performance made students aware of UGC's rules and regulations against ragging and the compulsory measures for colleges to take in case of such events and the punishment that the culprits can face.

All in all, the skit was an active effort by the Anti-Ragging committee and Theatre students to encourage freshers to report any incidents of abuse or humiliation that might take place in the college premises. It promoted students to be fearless and explore college life without inhibitions and with confidence.

SKIT "TALE OF 1947"

The IISU Theatrical society's students Priyal Mathur and Nitya Saxena performed a play "Tale of 1947" on 19th August 2019 at 9:30 AM in Srijan Hall for all the students of Cultural Activity. Tale of 1947 is a story of two friends Muhammed and Jugal who face dilemmatic situation during partition. The story is penned by leading Urdu-short story writer Sadat Hasan Manto after partition of India. The play was graced by enthusiastic participation of students and various faculty members who were all geared up to attend the same.

About the play:

Religious violence in India includes acts of violence by followers of one religious group against followers and institutions of another religious group, often in the form of rioting. Religious violence in India has generally involved Hindus and Muslims. The partition displaced between 10-12 million people along religious lines, creating overwhelming refugee crises in the newly constituted dominions; there was large-scale violence, with estimates of loss of life. The violent nature of the partition created an atmosphere of hostility and suspicion between India and Pakistan that plagues their relationship to the present.

Our play showcased this disease of bitterness which grew among every single person including Muhammad and Jugal, two close friends who couldn't even imagine a day without each other but later became the part of partition ending with Jugal killing Muhammad because of their religious fights. After partition was announced, the subcontinent descended quickly into riots and bloodshed resulting not only open killing of Hindus and Muslims but also murder of their unbreakable yet breakable relationships.

RAGGING - A SOCIAL EVIL

The 1st year students of COSD Theatre Studies & Theatrical Society performed skit based on the evils of ragging in educational institutions on 26th August in Ojas Hall at 9:30 AM.

It was a story of a group of seniors who engaged themselves in ragging their juniors. The skit revolved around the realization by the bullies that ragging is not a joke. This happens when one of the bullies' sister is injured in the act of ragging. On realization they rectify their mistake and understand that playing with somebody's life is not something that can be taken lightly.

The 5 minute play entails a series of events and explains that even the most insignificant acts of calling out, extortion (in case of assignments) or embarrassment to freshers can be harmful. The performance made students aware of UGC's rules and regulations against ragging and the compulsory measures for colleges to take in case of such events and the punishment that the culprits can face.

VOCAL MUSIC TRAINING FOR THEATRE STUDENTS

Music gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination and life to everything.

A music workshop was organised by The IISU THEATRICAL SOCIETY from 10th to 20th September for the students who participated in Annual Play 2019. The music lessons were taken by the college faculties Gaurav Sir and Sir. It included the sessions of writing , composing and singing a variety of songs related to the play.

The music class was a fun filled experience for the begginers as they got an opportunity to explore in this field and got a chance to write and compose songs of different genre like mythology, love and war. The students were keen to learn different sargams and music instruments like dholak, dafli and keyboard. They were also taken to a recording studio to record some songs whereas some songs were sung live.

The music lessons with our amazing teachers will always be memorable and cherished.

GUEST LECTURE: SHRI NIRANJAN GOSWAMI

“We make the visible invisible and the invisible visible.”

This is how Padmashri Niranjana Goswami describes his art form: mime.

On the 9th of September, 2019, Shri Niranjana Goswami visited the IIS University as a guest lecturer and guided the students of the Theatrical Society about the foundation of mime in India and its origin. Shri Niranjana Goswami was born in 1949, Dhaka, Bangladesh. He trained in mime with Jogesh Dutta from 1966 to 1969 at the latter’s institution Padaboli, and trained himself in theatre working with Sombhu Mitra at Bohurupee between 1970 and 1975. He established the Indian Mime Theatre in 1976. Shri Goswami has advanced the practice of mime as an independent genre in Indian theatre with his performances over the past two decades.

Among his significant productions are Sonarganyer Meye (1983), Dena Paona (1989), Srikanta (1990), Beej (1995), and Nagamandala (1997). Most of these are based on well-known literary works. To build up an audience for mime, Shri Goswami has been organizing festivals of mime theatre since the mid-1980s. He has also taught mime at several institutions, including the National School of Drama in Delhi, the Trissur School of Drama, and the Film and Television Institute of India, Pune. He has given lecture- demonstrations at the University of California at Los Angeles, U.S.A., and the Jawaharlal Nehru University in Delhi. Shri Goswami has been working with deaf children for several years, some of whom have won young Talent Scholarships of the Government of India. He has performed in the World Youth Festival (1989) in Pyongyang, North Korea, and the Shanghai International Art Festival (2002) in China, and has besides toured Europe, the former Soviet Union, and the United States as a cultural delegate.

Among other honours, he has received the All India Critics Association Award in 1998. He was awarded a Senior Research Fellowship by the Department of Culture, Government of India, in 2001.

Shri Niranjana Goswami received the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award for his excellence as an actor in mime. As part of the lecture, Sir illustrated the intricacies of mime. He taught the students the relevance of painting the face in mime, how the whole body acts instead of words, the extraction of mime from Natyashastra as 'Mukhabhinaya' and many such things. Currently, Sir has founded the National Mime Institute in Kolkata that gives a post graduate course in theatre. For the students, it was an enlightening experience to meet somebody with such a powerful aura. Sir left them with an insight to the world of mime. He taught the students how one must incarnate oneself into the object so as to understand the art. It was an enriching experience to say the least.

DANCE TRAINING FOR THEATRE

Dance is the joy of movement and the heart of life.

A 5 day dance workshop was organised by The IISU THEATRICAL SOCIETY from 20th to 25th September for the students who participated in Annual Play 2019. The dance lessons were taken by the college faculty Ms Gargi Ma'am who is a classical dancer specialist in Kathak.

The dance classes were an incredible experience for the students as they got an opportunity to explore in the field of dance while they were learning theatre. The students learned semi-classical dance and practiced the coordination which even magnified its beauty.

The lessons were of more worth when the fusion of drama, dance and music was blended together to enhance the beauty of the play,actors played their part amazingly which made audience to continue applaude.

The dancing lessons with the amazing teacher will always be cherished.

GUEST LECTURE ON CHHAU DANCE

Knowledge is best gained if someone experienced shares it. It was today, 16th September, 2019 when Mr. Jagannath Seth, a specialist in Chhau dance came to the IIS (deemed to be) University for a guest lecture, organised by IISU Theatrical Society. Jagannath Seth, an alumnus of National School of Drama is an actor, dancer and a Chhau artist. He has done total of 42 plays and has won many state and national level drama competitions. It was mind blowing to watch this personality perform.

The program began with his warm welcome. Jagannath sir talked about the origine chhau and it's types. He talked about 3 kinds of chhau, belonging to Bengal, Jharkhand and Odisha respectively. He efficiently taught us about various musical instruments which are used in chhau including dhol, nagada. Not just this, he explained the relevance and importance of the use of mask in chhau dance. Moreover, he talked about different kinds of costumes used in depicting different characters. The program was uplifted when he himself performed and showcased the magic of chhau. It was mesmerising to watch him perform. The kind of balance and patience he had was remarkable.

He briefly explained the mythological connection chhau dance holds as an art form. His body was full of grace , beauty and charm. He is definitely an epitome of talent and skills.The event ended with an interactive session where students cleared their doubts about chhau. Lastly, he was thanked and praised with a round of applause. This event was entirely full of knowledge, adventure and experience.

Grand Run Through -Annual Play

On the 22nd of September, the students of the IIS Theatrical Society performed their grand run through for the annual play-“Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha”. It was the 29th day of their 30 day workshop. The event was attended by the students of the India International School, Kshiprapath. The day of the Grand Run had an energetic start. All technical adjustments were taken care of and the participants performed vocal and physical exercises right before the beginning of the play.

In the duration of the play, the students faced many ups and downs. Problems came in forms of technical issues, dialogue delivery, entries and exits and most of all the energy required to keep the performances engaging throughout the span of 65 minutes. Nevertheless, the participants picked up the pace whenever there was a fall, improvised their way through mistakes, compensated for the setbacks with their acting and never gave up.

For the audience, the span of an hour is not a great one. However, only the actors, directors, technical teams and trainers know what kind of struggles a team faces when bringing a production to life. For the team, the Grand Run is a deciding factor.

It is a determinant of how ready they are, it tells them what they lack, what they did right and gives them the confidence to carry out everything they've constructed. The 22nd of September was an emotional day for the team, knowing that their journey would end in a few hours and what they'd spend so much time working upon would finally be out for the world to see, for the world to hear.

ANNUAL PLAY 2019-20

The students of the IISU Theatrical Society staged their Annual Play 2019 titled “Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha” on 23rd September, 2019. The play was a culmination of a 30 day workshop that taught the participants various styles of theatre, disciplines and etiquettes of working on stage.

The Chief Guest of the play was, the renowned theatre and film artist, Ms. Ratna Pathak Shah. She not only acknowledged the teams’ efforts into creating the play but also provided useful insights about what the focus points while performing should be. The entirety of the play was a result of a lot of time put in and had its own moments. After all, Rome wasn’t built in day.

Process and milestones of the workshop:

The journey of 30 days was a splendid one. Each step, leading the students to become better actors and moreover, better people with strong personas. The workshop began with the basic step of familiarization. Introducing themselves, the students’ ideas and reasons to join theatre acted as a small window to knowing the team. They got to know the director, Mr. Siva Prasad Tumu and understood his expectations from the play, the team and his work ethics. The very next step and one of the most important one was that of interpretation. It involved looking at the play beyond literal levels of understanding. Participants pondered upon the message these stories are trying to convey and how they link them to the real world. Through this, they got an outlook upon how the participants were not there as blank slates but came with their own set of thoughts which needed to be spoken out. Portrayal through improvisations was a very intriguing step of the process. It not only showed how creative the participants were but also brought out their opinions in a structured manner. Each group gave different forms of the same story in different styles like mime, musical or dance drama or through plain narratives but with intricate formats. Through these improvisations, the director moved on to character blocking. This was done through linking the participants’ personalities with the characters’ needs. Each person brought their own eccentricities and ideography as a contribution to the characters’ development. Once the blocking was complete, the plot as a whole was formed. The loop holes were understood and covered and each story was worked upon numerous times with several different styles. In this, our acting trainers, Mr. Jagannath Seth and Mr. Mahesh Godeshwar, played a significant role. The participants were introduced to Chau dance and Pina Bausch’s style of theatrics. Mr. Seth made them understand the importance of inculcating the habit of feeling the rhythm of the music and the essence of the story and bringing it out in our movements. Mr. Godeshwar essentially worked on building an aura and leaving your presence on stage long after you’ve exited. Speech should not be limited only to words and dialogues but should create a link between the actor and the audience was his training motto. The first run through was an impactful moment and nothing less than a milestone in this workshop. The students understood what the play was trying to tell us, how strong its message is and how much more we need to contribute to it. It was one of the most emotionally moving aspect of this workshop. Further to this came the stages of property development, set development, lighting and music settings and most importantly the art of projection techniques. The participants actively worked through the nitty-gritties of the play. Among other things was understanding how to use the stage space and exploring all possibilities of the set that was so vigorously made.

One thing that this workshop taught everybody all is that 'Theatre' is not just being on stage and delivering dialogues. It's about understanding others and more importantly, ourselves. From getting rid of inhibitions, stage fears and mental blocks to knowing that no matter how quirky you might be, theatre accepts you for who you are. It taught us that no role is big or small. We're all working as a cohesive unit which might break and fall if one of us is lax. This is a place where we find solace among a whole team. A little bit of you can be found in everyone.

SKIT ON "HINDI HAMARA GAURAV"

The Government of India observes 14th September every year as an annual day to celebrate Hindi as one of the official language of India. Recognising the same an ebullient performance was organised by the students of IISU Theatrical Society on 30

September 2019. A skit on Hindi divas called 'Hindi Hamara Gaurav' took place on the stage area at 12:00 noon. The event aimed at creating awareness of the merits of Hindi and its utility to the respective audience and to the participants.

The skit started with the jovial background music and attractive poems sung by the respective participants. The skit was about how and from where our official language Hindi has originated how it has become an important part of our society. The play talks about Hindi becoming an official language to Bihar, the discovery of its name and about how so many other languages were also originated from Hindi. Hindi is not only spoken by natives of India but by many other countries also, this fact was very beautifully enacted by the participants.

No. of students participated : 16

The skit was not only alluring by its story but also with its costumes and props. The participants were looking very colourful and vibrant in different costumes with mesmerizing make-up. The enthusiasm was not only seen in the participants but within the audience too as they all were encouraging the participants by their unstoppable clapping and cheering's. Last but not the least as memories have to be kept forever, came the photography time. Group photographs were taken. All smiley faces full of zeal and energy. It was definitely an eye catching performance.

SKIT - "VOICES- A PERFORMANCE ON MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES"

On the occasion of World Mental Health Day, the students of the IISU Theatrical Society presented a theatrical production that touched topics ranging from social stigmas about mental health to the root causes of issues which lead to suicides. The skit began with the topic of harrasment based on abilities and appearances students face in their day to day lives. In the time where we look for peers who are perfect in all ways and fit the labels that look good on social media. The pressure to look a certain way to be a part of all social settings. The second scene highlighted the unhealthy competition in the teen world to secure jobs so as to have a successful lifestyle, approved by society. The act revolved around how everyone is racing to be first, to be the richest and it doesn't matter whether you're happy running this race. You just have to keep going or be trampled. The very next scene talked about emotionally exhaustive and abusive relationships people fall into. It was an issue that was an important highlight, because as young adults, we all need to understand how to cope with heartbreak and where to draw the lines. Most significant of all was the fact that we tend to lose our identity when engaged in a relationship. This is the most distressing part of the young adult phase.

The final scene was based on the sensitive issue of social discrimination. This scene held great emotional momentum as the actors recited Rohith Vemula's suicide letter. Rohith Vemula was one of the five Dalit students in JNU who faced social boycott at the hands of the university administration. His suicide brought to everyone's notice the mental abuse and humiliation faced by Dalits in all social settings.

Overall, the performance was a cocktail of all issues that in very small ways affects mental health in our everyday lives. Every 40 seconds, one person commits suicide. Every 40 seconds, a life goes untended to, helpless and unheard. There's a lot that we can do to help people around them. We can create awareness, inform people that mental health is not a taboo. It's okay to not be okay.

NUKKAD NATAK - HAHHAHA NO - WORLD'S MENTAL HEALTH DAY

“Positivity and smile are important and necessary for human survival.” On the occasion of World Mental Health day, a street play “hahaha no” was presented on 11th October , 2019 at 12 noon in college campus. The event was organised by IISU theatrical society.

The street play started with a call song, which was attractive and catchy. It was mind blowing to watch students sing and dance with the live music of Nagada. There were a total of 100-120 no of students who witnessed this event as audience.

Hahaha no focusses on the hidden and suppressed voices of human beings where they wish to be free, alive and happy. Whereas, in reality we all are busy in our day to day activities to such extent that we all forget to smile ,once. It is of utmost importance that we value happiness , positivity and smile.

The participants looked extremely beautiful in Green Kurties. They looked amazing with the coordinated make up and hairstyle . It was wonderful to watch them perform. Total of 13 participants performed.

The event ended with a great applause of audience and some photographs. Performers talked about the necessity of a smile. The students enjoyed and were motivated after the performance. It was an unforgettable event which would remain intact in the hearts of the people.

XUBERANCE 2019 (HALLABOL)

Judges: Bhagwant Kaur and Mehmood Ali

Teamwork results in intense satisfaction. This could be seen on 18th October 2019 when an Inter Collegiate Street Play Competition 'HallaBol' was organised by the IISU Theatrical Society of IIS (deemed to be) University under the Inter College fest Xuberance 2019. The event was organized in the lawns. The timing of the event was from 11:30 to 3:30.

In this exciting and thrilling event ,total of 8 colleges /Universities participated including JECRC University , JECRC foundation, Manipal University, Subodh College, B. Lal College , Mahaveer College, Kanoria College and our own IIS University. It was wonderful to host and see these teams full of zeal and energy.

The venue was open and hence a mass audience could be seen, students were excited to witness some real energies and dramas. There were food stalls , properly decorated surroundings , an amazing fest feel around the campus. The event started with the welcome of the judges , who were Bhagwant Kaur Ma'am and Mehmood Ali Sir , who are both experienced and active theatre artists.

Moving on to the actual fun, all the teams were provided tag numbers to perform in respective orders. All the participants were provided with refreshments and proper necessities. All the teams were properly dressed and looked full of enthusiasm and motivation. All the teams encouraged the other team while performing , this showed how rationally the teams were enjoying the concepts and performances . They were all supportive, hence , it was not 8 teams rather it looked like just one team.

Street play is a bold way of expressing our thoughts and feelings through our actions. All the teams understood this aspect, they definitely touched the social aspects of our society which needs to be thought about. Many sensitive topics were touched. For instance, JECRC team took upon a topic of how women's menstruation is a gossip point, how everyone around discriminates and devalue a woman while they go through this pain. Another team, Manipal University, talked about mental illness and its effect on human survival. They showed how our lives have become full of suicides and ultimate mental illness. The IIS University showcased a thought of how we all points out problems on our own country, where we actually forget to look at the good things we have. We search around in other world to find the pleasure but it is actually near us, around us. Many more topics were there such as alcohol abuse, Male's exploitation, environmental pollution etc.

All these topics were beautifully and boldly presented by all the teams. It could actually go through the hearts of the audience as well as judges. In the end, Judges talked about their experience and gave a feedback of the event. They overall enjoyed the energy and thought processes of the new generation. While the results were being compiled, teams interacted with one another. They talked about their experience at the event. Some students from the teams presented Monologues to mingle more. All the teams were turned from teams to a mass of one whole group.

In the end, the results were, third position was bagged by JECRC Foundation and Manipal University, whereas 2nd position was taken by Kanoria Girls College. Last but not the least, 1st position was bestowed upon by IIS University itself. The teams were happy and satisfied with the results. Trophies were given to the winning teams, whereas certificates were provided to all the participants.

The event ended with group photographs of all the teams with our honourable judges, Vice Chancellor Dr. Ashok Gupta and Registrar Dr. Raakhi Gupta . It was eye catching to see all the teams encouraging each other. The event was a success and memorable day for all of us.

PRESENTATION OF MONOLOGUE

As the new semester began, so did the activities of IISU theatrical society. It was the first day of even semester on 16th December and few monologues were presented in the university Aditya Hall. Three students portrayed three different characters full of emotions and insight.

The event started with calling the audience to gather. The first monologue was presented was based on Nirbhaya's inside emotions and how does she feel being killed after the brutal rape. The monologue attempted to enlighten the audience about how we all keep quiet and does not do anything for real.

The second monologue was about how a girl has left her old small home, and moved to a big but lonely house. How her family used to be together and now money has taken over all the happiness. The message aims at understanding the importance of family over money.

Last but not the least, the third monologue represented the intuitive mind of a potential rapist or a criminal. It reflected the typical mindset of a stalker or an obsessed person.

The performances were encouraged with audience & apos;s applaud. All the students enjoyed and had fun.

MONOLOGUE MANIA

Emotions are better expressed than spoken. It can be seen by few monologues presented on 23rd of December, 2019 in University Campus. Three COSD theatre students came forward with their entirely different but enlightening performances. The first performance named " Dosti" was about a girl who lost his best friend , who was not just a friend , but family. The monologue portrayed the hidden emotion of loneliness and emptiness that exists within the girl. It talked about the small but crucial things we share in friendship.

The next performance named " koi toh ho" was based on a girl who is all alone in spite of so many people around. Who smiles but does not feel the gay from inside. She is a book reader, who is tired of being alone. The character blames the society for being selfish and not real.

The third monologue, famously known was "gagan da mama bajyo". The character showcased intense sadness and about what had happened in jalian wala bagh through the eyes of a sister who lost her brother there. The performance was filled with feelings and intensity. All the acts took the hearts of audiences. It was wonderful to watch them perform.

REPORT FOR PROP-TEMPORE

An astonishing competition was organized by the theatrical Society of IIS University on 9 January 2020. That is, a prop tempore competition at COSMOS- ANNUAL FEST 2019-20 at 11:00 AM in the Ojas hall. The event aimed about a fun way to bring out the best in the participants while using a prop.

The competition started with an introduction to prop tempore and then to the judges who were Miss. Manali Sharma and Mr Sumit Pal Singh. After the introduction a memento was given to the judges by the president and vice-president of IISU theatrical society. After a heartwarming welcome, the competition started. Each participant had to choose one prop and had to act accordingly on stage. After all the performances were done, it was requested to the judges to share their words of wisdom with the audience and to the participants. With that came the end of the mesmerizing competition.

The event was not only enchanting by its participants and performances but also with its costumes and props. The enthusiasm was not only seen in the participants but within the audience also as they all were encouraging the participants by their unstoppable clapping and cheering's.

Last but not the least as memories have to be kept forever, came the photography time. Group photographs were taken. All smiley faces full of passion and energy. The event would not have been possible without the efforts and encouragement of the teachers and volunteers. Special thanks to all the teachers, volunteers and the theatrical society for coming up with such unforgettable event.

SKIT COMPETITION COSMOS 2020

Under COSMOS 2020 the Annual Fest of the university a skit presentation competition was held on 10th January 2020 in A.V Hall of the university. The competition was an intra university event wherein 8 teams participated and came up with acts pertaining to different social issues and also with some funnier sides of the society.

Students took stand for homosexuality and the rights of rural women through their acts. Love of siblings and channels of life were few of the other areas of action in the event. The event turned to be a big hit as every student demonstrated her traits as a prolific actor. The judges for the event were Mr. Vichitra B. Singh Tanwar and Mr. Lohit Pareek. Both the judges possess immense expertise in the field of theatre and had been associated with many renowned dramas along with winning ample recognitions and awards in the field. The judges boosted the morale of the students and also praised the acts and gave suggestions for their future acts.

GUEST LECTURE ON THE TOPIC 'THEATRE TO TV'

On the 16th of January, 2020, actor Saurabh Sharma visited the IIS University, Jaipur for a session for the Theatrical Society.

TV and Bollywood actor, Ankit Sharma, started his career from Jaipur itself. He was a theatre actor and then moved to Mumbai to pursue his career further on.

In his session, the students learned about his struggle after coming to Mumbai around 8 years ago.

The students were allowed to ask him questions and the Patiala Babes actor, very patiently answered them too!

With this session, the students learned that one should always keep an open mind. Shifting from theatre to the film industry is a whole process that requires acceptance and will power. He also taught the students that they should definitely follow their dreams if they're very confident in themselves.

Questions like how to deal with rejection, how hard TV actors have to work, the difference between theatre and films, etc. were asked.

All in all, the entirety of the session was eye opening and knowledgeable for the students. They received answers that were not only long pending, but also realistic.

Sir ended the session by telling the kids that once you reach your dreams, everyone who has ever picked on you will look up on you. He also told them to be aware of their surroundings and where passion is a great thing, practicality shouldn't be left out when pursuing your dreams.

INTERACTIVE SESSION WITH MALINI KAPOOR

On the 20th of January, 2020, actress Malini Kapoor had a session in The IIS (deemed to be) University. She had a Q&A and informative session with the students of the Theatrical Society.

Malini Kapoor, famous for her role in Balika Vadhu, Saathiya, Y.A.R.O ka tashan, hails from Jaipur itself. She started her work in the film industry back in 2001 and now has established a good standing in the television industry.

In her seminar, Mrs Kapoor talked about how there are struggles in the film industry. She talked about how there has been a development in selection and audition processes. As far as looks are concerned, they might have been a criteria in the early 2000s, but now talent, body language and confidence are things that matter the most.

The students asked a variety of questions ranging from struggles to what significance hierarchy holds in the industry. She heard these with a patient ear and answered them all too!

It was a fruitful event and the students gained a lot of knowledge from it.

ANNUAL PLAY MARATHON

On the 20th of January, the IISU Theatrical Society conducted a 3-day Annual Play Marathon.

The marathon showcased all the annual plays held from the year 2012 in the IIS University.

The plays included, 'Little Angels', 'Thankyou Baba Lochan Das', 'Paan Khayenge', 'Saleeb', 'Rustom-O-Sohrab', 'Sakinah', 'Phool and Fools' and the latest addition, 'Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha'.

The 3-day marathon was a walk down the memory lane for the students of the Theatrical Society.

A play takes a lot of time and effort in its making. To see all these efforts, emotions, bonds and the process of its production replay in front of them was a sentimental ride.

Each play came with its message and specificity.

PLAY - BLUSH & BRUSH

COSD Diploma theatre students presented their production "Brush and Blush" on 25th of January which was performed from stationery and then actors walked towards aditya hall for further play . The play depicted the theme "Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder"

What if your eyes have become conditioned to see beauty as we see on screens.

This play is about the ideas of beauty evolving through time Our culture and traditions have such a great impact on the ideas and perspectives of how we see a woman, and this thought is so rigid and comes so naturally that we fail, even to register it.

The play was directed by Ms. Mumal tanwar.

It was a mixture of devising and documentary theatre. It was the first moving theatre of university. Play was ended with personal stories of actors, which left a great impact on audience.

All the faculty members and the students enjoyed the performance and cheered up the participants with heavy applaud.

INTERACTIVE SESSION WITH STAND-UP COMEDIAN AND AUTHOR PAPA CJ LAYS

A day filled with amusing jokes and comical timing. On 25th of January Papa CJ, a stand-up comedian visited the IISU theatrical society. Papa CJ is a stand-up comedian from India. In November 2014 he won the 'Asia's Best Stand-up Comedian' award by Top 10 Magazine in Kuala Lumpur. He has toured sell-out shows across five continents and in October 2011 he taped a Showtime USA Stand-up Comedy Special with Russell Peters in Amsterdam.

He visited the university to promote his new book "Naked". The book with its fascinating chapters appears like a film script. It includes his roller-coaster career and love life, and his MBA from the University of Oxford. His life moving from a regular guy to a motivational speak is worth applauding. Not only he talked about his book but he also talked about his some motivating life experiences and measures. The interaction was not only limited between students and him but it included faculties also. A lot of enthusiasm was seen in the audience which includes a lot of clapping and cheering.

The whole meet-up was very fun, humorous and happiness. The teachers and the students enjoyed it a lot. There was then the time of pictures clicked not only by the faculties but also each and every one student present there at the session. It was a very memorable day for everyone. Special thanks to all the teachers and students who made this event possible as it would not been possible without their effort and encouragement.

SKIT "CONSTITUTION OF INDIA" ON REPUBLIC DAY

The celebration of 71st Republic day started with flag hosting by Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, The IIS University on 26th Jan 2020 at India International School. The students of IISU Theatrical Society put forth a skit in front of audience on the topic of duties laid down in the constitution of India to be followed by the citizens of India. There were total of 7 students who performed for the same.

The skit was about how individuals focus on their rights but fail to understand their responsibilities and duties. The skit portrayed the importance of duties every citizen of India shall acknowledge. A pledge was taken for the same. The performers wore tri coloured costume to seem patriotic which was a latent contribution to Indian flag. The event also witnessed some other beautiful cultural performances which were worth watching. Over all, the event was motivation and full of enthusiasm shown by students towards their nation.

MASK MAKING EXCURSION - HAJIYAWALA SCHOOL

On the 18th of February, the IISU Theatrical Society, visited the Hajiyawala School for a mask making and theatrics excursion.

The 1st day of the excursion was solely about teaching the children how to make masks. Mr. Lohit Pareek headed the activity. The children learnt how to create, shape and add elements to POP masks.

The children were full of zeal and determination to create unique masks. They brought out their own ideas to the table and no one wanted to be left behind! From pointy noses and horns to devilish eyes and unicorns, they wanted it all! The students, on the other hand, interacted with the children. They talked to them about their daily routines and what they aspire to be in life. Overall, the day one on excursion was successful and left the students wanting more!

DAY 2 - THEATRICALS AND CRAFT TECHNIQUES

The second day of the Mask making excursion for the IISU Theatrical Society included theatrics and craft techniques. The students helped the children decorate, paint and give a theme to their masks. All of them were assigned characters and the students helped them prepare small 1 minute performances.

The performances showcased the creativity of the young minds. The performances ranged from cartoons, witches, jokers and unicorns to environment conservation. After that, the children showed the students of the Theatrical Society a small play they had prepared. It was a great performance that acknowledged our presence at the school. It left most of the students emotional and feeling enriched by the end. The students learned more than they taught from the children. They learnt how to be as enthusiastic about the small things in life like the children. They all sure left wanting more of this bittersweet experience.

STAGE PLAY “QURBAT”

On the 8th of March, the students of the IISU Theatrical Society performed their stage play ‘Qurbat’ at Stage, IISU, Jaipur.

The event was carried out by Queerious Conversations and Global Shapers Community, Jaipur. Ever since the making of the play, ‘Qurbat’ had only been performed in competitions. However, to perform the play only to be able to spread its message, to be able to make people aware and fight for the LGBTQIA+ community as allies was a wholesome feeling.

Qurbat was a name that the entire team decided upon as one. It means a feeling of intimacy and attachment. Through the play, the team was trying to put forth the message that attachment is not bound by gender, sexuality or anything physical. It’s purely from the heart. It doesn’t limit or bind you. It frees you.

The association with Queerious Conversations was brought to the students via Ms. Shikha Soni. Apart from the regular performance, stickers that related to one of the dialogues in the play were curated.

Even though there are wide spread communities and support, people often tend to find themselves alone when they hit rock bottom. The only chance then is to stand strong by yourself.

To all the people who find it difficult to stand alone, to everyone who find it difficult to fight alone, we asked,

“Kya khudko bheed mein akela pakar dar gaye tum?”

Intercollegiate Competitions 2019-20 JNU INTERCOLLEGIATE AD - MAD COMPETITION

On the 27th of September, 2019, the students of the IISU Theatrical Society took part in the JNU ad mania competition.

The competition was a part of JNU's fest Technorazz.

The theme was to make an ad on tea. The participants from IIS Theatrical society were Priyal Mathur, Chandrika Jajoo, Suhani Jain, Garima Israni and Yashika Vijay.

The brand that was promoted was Jaago Mohan Chai and the tagline the students picked was “Ye pee jaye to din ban Jaye!”.

The event was an amazing experience for the students and did a lot to improve the participants' spontaneity. It is a big task to come up with something at the moment which is not only worth performing, but should also stick with the audience.

The students had a blast at the event and learned a lot about on stage ethics and team work.

All in all, the competition brought out the best in the students and added another feather to their cap!

A GROUP OF 5 STUDENTS AND 1 FACULTY WERE NOMINATED FOR MASTER CLASSES OF THEATRE ORGANISED BY JAIRANGAM JAIPUR.

It was a great experience of being part of the JAIRANGAM Master Classes 2019. A very prestigious opportunity given by THE IIS UNIVERSITY to us, in which we had attended master classes conducted by the 5 masters of different arts and its relevance in theatre from 20th to 26th May, 2019.

On the 20th & 21th May the classes were conducted by Ranjit Kapoor Sir, who is a great theatre director and an alumna of NSD who has also taught at NSD. He taught us about a good script and the technique of writing a good play. He showed us a play directed by him in early 90's and a movie which is a satire on the Indian politics and politicians by which he taught about how can we convey our message in a creative and symbolic way in a creative manner.

On the 22nd May the class was conducted by Rajesh Singh Sir who is a theatre practitioner as well. He taught us about the origin of the theatre, covering whole history of theatre from the Greak theatre till the modern and contemporary theatre. He also touched upon theatre spaces, different forms of theatre from different places, exchange of cultures, and revolutions in the art form, and the Natya Shastra and its rules and importance.

On the 23rd May the class was conducted by Amit Kalla Sir who is a very talented and experienced painter and is an alumna of JNU. He taught us about the relevance of painting and sculptures in theatre, Indian architecture, proof of theatre practices in the Indian mythological books paintings in sculptures. He introduced us with the stage paintings and how creative and beautifully they were used in the theatre performances in early times.

On the 24th May the class was conducted by Sanjay Upadhyay sir, founder director of MP School of Drama. He is a leading theatre director, singer and music composer in Indian theatre. His musical plays have travelled all over the world. He taught us about the relevance of music in the theatre, types of the music and music instruments, important features of music instruments, his experiences till now with and in the world of music and how we can use it in the theatre production or in the life.

On 25th May the class was conducted by Souti Chakraborty Sir. He was associated with the "Grips" theatre in Kolkata for six years. He graduated from the NSD in 2001 with the specialization in design and direction. He worked with the NSD repertory company for 7 years as designer, director and actor. He taught us about the functions of the lights, color, mood and proper selection of the lights according to the season, climate and the sensitivity of the scenes in the play. He told us that lights decide our psychology and mental state. Increasing lights increases the energy. Lights create the perception of our life. The state of our mind changes with the change in the body posture. Quality of life refers to the light of a same time but in the different seasons and different atmospheres.

It was really my pleasure to attend the sessions of such great masters and have gained a lot of knowledge from them. I would like to thank JAIRANGAM 2019 and THE IIS UNIVERSITY to this amazing and precious opportunity.

On Road Campaign

On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, Transport Department, Govt. of Rajasthan observed a road safety week starting from 3rd October 2019. Various awareness activities were planned by stakeholder departments with support of education institutions and NGOs. One such activity "On Road Campaign" for Helmet and seat belt awareness was planned on 4th October 2019 at signal S L Cut , JLN Marg at 9.00 am onwards in which students of NSS and IISU Theatrical society took part.

In the beginning a brief orientation was given to the students by Muskan Foundation and Traffic police at the venue and later students along with traffic police interacted with road users at the signal for generating awareness for the issue of importance of wearing helmet and wearing it correct.

Total of 15 volunteers went for conducting this campaign along with Traffic Police and Muskaan NGO team. The students went in the college uniform and placards were provided to them with different slogans and messages. Total duration of the campaign was 2 hours.

It was a new but good experience to communicate with strangers on road, telling them to be more aware of the traffic safety. People reacted in a very positive and welcoming manner which encouraged the students to be even more participative in the campaign. We were appreciated by the people on road for the kind of efforts we showed, as young generation.

WORLD DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

A skit full of energy, enthusiasm and colour was played before huge audience on Road safety. The event was organised by Muskaan Foundation on 17th of November, 2019 at Ravindra Manch. The event was a success not only because of it's cause but also because of other lovely performances.

The students of IISU Theatrical Society performed a skit based on Road safety, on the occasion of Road Safety Remembrance day for those who died in road accidents. The event started at 6 in the evening and approximately 300 - 400 people gathered to enjoy the same. Not just this, huge number of students participated and performed, including several school students and college students as well. The play was about how individuals are involved in road accidents due to their practices of drinking, festival carelessness and stunts. A large number of people die in road accidents and the major cause remains us. The play unfolded a lot of ignored aspects of tiny mistakes we all commit while driving. The skit intended to encourage people's awareness about certain new laws and motivate them to adhere by the same.

Total of 14 students performed for the same, the students enjoyed the journey . The performance could reach people's heart through emotions like happiness, excitement, fear and sadness. The performance was made brighter by the colourful costumes of the characters and various festive props used. Not just this, several music input filled the performance with grace and excitement.

No. of students participated: 12

SPORTS BOARD

For providing a perfect blend of physical development with mental and spiritual growth, The IIS University offers sports facilities with specialization in Basketball, Volleyball, Tennis, Table Tennis, Shooting, Athletics, Chess, Cricket, Archery, Taekwondo, Handball, Football, and Badminton.

To create sports consciousness and general awareness of physical fitness and wellbeing, as it is a well known fact that “Fit person serves best” and also to maximize students participation in sports, University Sports Board was constituted on 11 March 2014.

The board not only plans and promotes all round development but also encourages sportsmanship by organizing Inter University Tournaments and National and International Championship.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

“Champions do not become champions when they win the event, but in the hours, weeks, months and years they spend preparing for it. The victorious performance itself is merely the demonstration of their championship character.”

Gain a passion for sports, love the morning, love the environment, love playing and in no time you will love your life even more and enjoy it to your fullest. Our greatest weakness lies in giving up and the most certain way to succeed is always to try just one more time. Do not aspire to be the best on the team aspire to be the best for the team.

Success is not given. It is earned on the track, on the field, in the gym. With blood, sweat and the occasional tear.

The IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur is a leading institute in women education, has not only provided its students quality education, but also a platform to prove themselves and carve a niche in this highly competitive world.

The Sports Board provides numerous facilities in a variety of sports like Shooting, Swimming, Cricket, Basketball, Badminton, Volleyball, Football, Archery, Taekwondo, Handball, Table-Tennis, Lawn Tennis and Athletics. It plays a major role in physical, mental, emotional, intellectual and social development of students and provides opportunities for them to prove their caliber in this field at different levels – State, National and International.

The University players have been participating in the West Zone / All India Inter University Tournaments/ Championship in various sports like Basketball, Taekwondo, Archery, Tennis, Shooting, Netball, Volleyball and badminton from 2013. 2014 onwards, the University has also started organizing Inter University Tournaments.

The sports board also organizes Inter-Class Competitions every year in the University, where enthusiastic students from all courses are given a fair chance to compete whole-heartedly in various games and sports activities.

Certificate and Diploma course in Yoga

Yoga is a healing system of theory and practice. The purpose of yoga is to create strength, awareness and harmony in both mind and body. The relaxation techniques incorporated in yoga can lessen chronic pain, such as lower back pain, arthritis, headaches and carpal tunnel syndrome. Yoga can also lower blood pressure and reduce insomnia. It increases flexibility, muscle strength and tone, respiration, energy and vitality and weight reduction with improved athletic performance. Stress can reveal itself in many ways, including back or neck pain, sleeping problems, headaches, drug abuse and an inability to concentrate. Hence, aside from the array of physical benefits, one of the best benefits of yoga is that it manages stress. For such well being promotion, the university also offers Yoga courses for students and faculty members every year. The Certificate and Diploma course in Yoga is running in the University campus at present.

CII Yi

CII YI YUVA CHAUPAL

Young Indians involves students from schools and colleges around the country to indulge them in leadership, personal development and nation building activities. Yi Students Net envisions connecting students to the community, the country at large and working towards a movement for “Nation Building”.

Young Indians (Yi) is an integral part of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), a non government, not-for-profit, industry. Yi has around 1500 direct members in 32 chapters, and engages around 8300 students through student nets. Yi membership includes young progressive Indians between the age of 25 & 40 and comprises entrepreneurs, professionals and achievers from different walks of life. “To become the voice of Young Indians Globally” being the vision of Yi, it provides a platform for young Indians to participate and contribute. Yi’s work can be divided primarily into three groups; “Young Leadership” “Young Social Entrepreneurship” and “International Engagements”.

“Yi YUVA” is the name for Yi Youth Affairs vertical. Young Indians involve students from schools and colleges by forming “Chaupals” across various institutes around the country. Yi Yuva IIS Chaupal aims to synergize students and their energy for positive action. It provides an opportunity to start thinking and work for India. As a part of this net, Students work in cross functional teams with a broad objective of enhancing their leadership skills and giving back to the nation. In the process, they get opportunity for self development, skill building, community service and nation building.

The Yi Chapter launched its first Yi Student NET with the IIS University 19th September 2013. Mr. Rohit Verma, chair, Yi Jaipur Chapter and Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, The IIS University, signed MOU for the same.

IIS Yuva Orientation 2019-20

An orientation session was conducted by the joint efforts of CII Yi officials and staff of IIS (deemed to be University) on 20th July, 2019. With the AV Hall filled to its maximum comfortable capacity, the orientation session started at 9:30 am with a warm welcome of the distinguished guests, Mr. Nitesh Saboo, Chair- Yi Jaipur Chapter; Mr. Atin Jain, Yi Yuva Regional Chair Northern Region; Mr. Arpit Patni, Chair- Yi Jaipur Yuva Vertical; Ms. Bhavna Sugandha, Co-Chair- Yi Jaipur Yuva Vertical, the IIS Yuva core committee and the students.

The speakers for the session were Mr. Arpit Patni and Mr. Atin Jain who along with their detailed description had marvelous presentations of CII Yi Yuva. Both of them along with Mr. Nitesh Saboo did a tremendous job of educating the students about the working of the same. The speeches had subtle statistics along with the actual functioning of Yuva in a layman language which made it much more helpful and informative. Several videos and slide shows for the purpose of motivation and sharing a glimpse of CII Yi Yuva's various projects were another highlight of the session. Some past members were also called upon the stage to deliver their testimonials which in brief was described as an excellent journey experienced by them. For breaking the ice, the officials even had an informal interaction with the students which made them look forward to the events of Yuva after they found themselves excited to join the club.

At last the session was wrapped up with a token of gratitude at 11:30 am marking the session as a success.

Guest Lecture on Financial Empowerment for Women

CII Yi Yuva organized an enthralling session on “Financial Empowerment for Women” on 29th August, 2019 in the University campus. Mr. Arpit Patni, Chair Yi Jaipur Yuva Vertical, introduced the speaker, CA Ashish Modani, Founder, SLA Financial Solutions. He was accompanied by Ms. Shalini Raj, Business Development Manager. The lecture was initiated by introducing the need and importance of women to participate in financial decisions. Mr. Modani emphasized on difficulties faced by common people in saving the money and culminating the unnecessary expenditure. He delivered the session in a very interactive manner which enthused the students with excitement. Students participated actively and came up with interesting questions during the event. Mr. Modani also enlightened the audience by imparting the knowledge on the strength of women in taking financial decisions. He inspired girls to be more independent. The theory of 21 days and early saving was also informed by him.

The session was concluded by memento presentation to the guest. It can be summed up as a beneficial and inspiring session.

Delhi Youth Conclave

Organized by YI Delhi Chapter, Delhi Youth Conclave was held at Constitution Club of India, Delhi. 14 students of CII YI YUVA club of IIS(deemed to be University), Jaipur, along with a faculty coordinator Ms. Vyoma Agarwal attended the event.

The theme of the event was Future of Life. The event unfolded in many boardroom meetings, masterclass and huddle sessions. Future of technology, leadership, governance, work and relationship were some of the matters discussed in these sessions.

The students attended the huddle session on Future of Relationship, Art and Culture where a circle of trust was formed by the speaker, Mr. Vivin Matthew, and the students actively engaged in the discussion.

Mr. Vivin Matthew is a first generation entrepreneur who develops affordable housing and warehousing around Mumbai. He is a member of G-20 Young Entrepreneurs' Alliance where he has represented India at the G-20s in Berlin and Buenos Aires.

Towards the end of the event an unwind session was attended by students which was conducted by Digital Gandhi who is an artist, brand creator, storyteller, presentation expert and 12 times TEDx speaker. He gave the students an altogether different perception towards life, relationships and career by way of various fun activities.

Overall ,it was an enlightening and great learning experience for the students.

Industrial Visit - Dev Milk Foods Pvt. Ltd. Mahindra World City, Village Kalwar, Jaipur

Educational tours are essential for overall development of students. They provide valuable educational opportunities away from the classroom without using textbooks and other tools used in usual settings. Students on educational trips can often learn while having fun in a more informal environment.

An industrial visit was organized on 24th January, 2020 for 1st year Yuva members of the University. The aim of the visit was to provide practical exposure to the students where they could experience the operations of making various dairy and ice-cream products.

A batch of 50 students and two faculty coordinators (Dr. Anju Singh and Dr. Megha Arya) left the IISU campus at 10:05a.m and reached the arena of FruBon at 11:00 a.m. The management received the students and accompanying teachers with a warm welcome and guided them through the site. To begin with, the HR Manager and his team gave the students an introduction of company's history, profile and its present functioning in Dairy, Ice cream and Bakery products like milk, cheese, butter, Yoghurt, Buttermilk, Ice-Cream, Paneer, Cookies, and others. Some of the team members even shared their experiences with the company and asked the students their views about the FruBon products. They also ensured the students that in near future their products will match any good product in the market.

Next, the students were divided into two groups- one group to visit the ice cream production unit and the second group to visit the bakery section. Then, hygiene and safety precautions were taken and everyone was made to wear head-cap before entering the factory. Also, a set of strict safety rules were informed to the students.

In the white products division, the students were accompanied by Mr. Mohammed Shabid (Plant Manager-dairy section). The demonstration was initiated by informing about various sophisticated and advanced technology and machinery used for manufacturing in the factory. Next, the students were made aware of the process involved in procurement and pasteurizing of milk and were given demonstration of the making and packaging of various products. Then the students were also taken to the cold room with a temperature of 5°C, where various dairy products are stored.

In the ice cream section, the students were escorted by Mr. Rahul (Deputy Manager-Ice cream). Firstly, the students visited the laboratory where all kinds of physical, biological and chemical testing are done. Next, it was followed by a visit to the raw materials storage segment. The aroma of the ice -creams filled their hearts with joy. Then the students were made aware about different stages of milk processing and the process involved in making ice

- cream and they enjoyed the fascinating site in making. Then the students visited the auto candy machine room where 6000 ice creams are produced in an hour. The students were fascinated even more when they were taken to the Blast Room with the temperature of -35°C .

The students were flabbergasted by the bursting of cold air on their faces.

The young Icgians were overwhelmed with joy and enthusiasm after they were offered complementary ice creams. This enthusiastic educational tour came to an end with a group photograph of the Yuva team and FruBon employees.

A Session on Stress Management

A session on “Stress Management” was organized on 27th January 2020 for Yuva members of the University. Yuva members participated in the session with great interest. The session aimed to guide the students on how to maintain a healthy lifestyle and to prepare to cope with the stress of everyday living. The session was addressed by Ms. Naintara S Agarwal. She is a psychologist and loves to work with special needs of children. She has worked with AIIMS & Safdarjung hospital, New Delhi as a Child Psychologist where she treated children suffering from cancer and their caregivers. She helps and motivates them to develop a positive attitude towards life. Mr. Swapnil Agarwal, a Yi member and Ms Bhawna, Yi Co-Chair, Jaipur Chapter were also present on the occasion.

To begin the session, Ms Bhawna addressed the students and asked about their recent Industry visit organized by Yi, Jaipur Chapter. She also highlighted the benefits of Yuva membership to students. She then handed over the session to Ms Naintara. While addressing the students Ms. Naintara said that stress and anxiety is a part of human nature, but it is important to know how to overcome it. “Youngsters most of the time find it difficult to face the changes and to cope up with such variations. Hence, this leads to stress, anxiety and tension.”

During the session she discussed various causes of stress, types of stress faced by people, myths about stress and casted light on various facts related to stress. She suggested few tips on the art of handling stress and tension. She also discussed some of the healthy ways of coping stress including Time management strategy, meditation, yoga, well-balanced meals, 7 hours of sleep, a minimum of 20 minutes of aerobic exercise every day and some other ways were also discussed. At the end of the session students asked their various queries on Stress Management which were jointly answered by Mr. Swapnil Agarwal and Ms Naintara.

Industrial Visit

An industrial visit to Clay Craft (a premium crockery manufacturer) VKI, was organized on 25th February, 2020 for Yuva members of the University. A batch of 40 students and two faculty coordinators (Dr. Mahima Rai and Dr. Nivedita Sharma) left the IISU campus around 9:50 am and reached the Claycraft campus in one hour approximately. All were warmly welcomed by Mr. R B Sharma, Factory manager of the company and his team. Then the production manager took the students on a round of the factory.

First stop was the production unit, where the students were made familiar with the raw material used for making fine tableware crockery in the industry. Then the group was guided to the molding area where the crockery was being shaped. Next visit was to the assembling zone, where crockery was being assembled. While visiting all the units, the tour guide was efficiently explaining the whole process.

During the visit some other small units where cleaning and finishing work was done could also be seen. The last stop was to the labeling and packaging unit, where every batch was labeled and packed in boxes. It was amazing for the students to see and understand the manufacturing process of Clay Craft crockery.

Finally, to quench the thirst of our curious minds, the group assembled at the Reception area where not only the answers to the questions were given but the refreshments were also served. This learning visit came to an end with a group photograph of the Clay Craft team and the YUVA members. With a wholesome of learning, memories and experience the Yuva members reached the University around 12.30 pm.

Rajasthan State Annual Session 2020

Hotel ITC Rajputana, Jaipur

On the morning of 27th February, the Rajasthan State Annual Session 2020 along with a session on Rajasthan: A Land of Opportunities for MSMEs and Industry was propitiously conducted under the upkeep of Confederation of Indian Industry. A group of 15 student volunteers headed by a teacher coordinator Dr. Vyoma Agarwal attended the same at the illustrious Hotel ITC Rajputana.

The salient session which was set in motion after the welcome remarks of the CII Rajasthan State Council, Mr. Anand Mishra took on a rather interesting ascending at the declaration of Result of CII Rajasthan State Council 2020-21 by the Deputy Chairman of CII Northern Region, Mr. Nikhil Sawhney. All the hard work done by the distinguished Yi officials and members could be clearly seen in the report.

Awhile later, again with the welcome address by Mr. Anand Mishra began another vital segment of the day featuring a special guest, Dr B D Kalia, Hon'ble Minister for Energy & PHED Government of Rajasthan. Apart from this were the different addressals by Mr. Nikhil Sawhney, Mr. Viren Joshi, Mr. Muktanand Agrawal, and Mr. Ashutosh A T Pednekar too.

Followed by this was a special session with Hon'ble Governor Shri Kairaj Mishra on Rajasthan: A Land of Opportunities for MSMEs and Industry, where he addressed the entire gathering about the subject matter. This led to yet another session on the Importance of Conducive Policy Framework, Financing and R & D for making Rajasthan a land of Opportunities. The Session Chairman was Mr. Sanjay Srivastava, Convenor- CII Panel on Infrastructure & Business Head, Mahindra Worldcity Jaipur Ltd. The session included many explanatory presentations along with a short Q & A forum.

The students reported a well organized and engrossing session. The session which in itself was intensely absorbing had also gripped the idea that indeed Rajasthan is a land of opportunities for MSMEs and Industries.

Equal Opportunity Cell

The IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur has introduced this Cell in order to curb down the deprivations that the marginalized groups, identified as SCs, STs, OBC (non-creamy layer), minorities, physically challenged, face barriers of denial of access to materials, cultural and educational resources and to promote the deserving, yet socially disadvantaged students. The Institution has been conferred with grants and scholarships, during its Autonomous status, for students to give them an opportunity to excel in preferred fields. These scholarships have been a huge motivation to introduce a separate unit which will work specifically towards the promotion of female students coming from these social groups. Currently, the Cell is catering to the needs of almost 400 students of IIS (Deemed to be University).

Aims and objectives

1. To provide guidance and counseling to students with respect to academic, financial, social and other matters and to oversee the effective implementation of policies and programs for disadvantaged groups.
2. To adopt measures to ensure due share of utilization by SC, St, OBC, minorities in admissions, recruitments (teaching and non-teaching posts) and to improve their performances.
3. To orient them for scholarships, test and programs which will help them receive financial support from State/Central Government and to organize interface with well-established/leading academicians from the same categories regularly so that the students are motivated towards achieving their goals.
4. To make efforts to sensitize the academic community regarding the problems associated with social exclusion as well as aspirations of the marginalized communities.
5. To provide them access to opportunities thorough guest-lectures and broaden their knowledge.
6. To introduce to them, social welfare schemes offered by the State Government for the betterment and promotion of these classes.

Para-Sports Meet at the IIS University

Some days are simply meant to play and one such enthusiastic event, the Birth Anniversary of Major Dhyan Chand, the Hockey conjurer of India, was celebrated at the IIS University Lawns on 29 August 2019 as the National Sports Day. The Sports Board, NSS and Equal Opportunity Cell of the University joined in for organizing of the Para Sports Meet to cheer the specially-abled, jubilant athletes of Disha, Umang, Milestone, Prayaas, Sweekar and Shri Nirmal Vivek School. Our esteemed Registrar, Dr. Raakhi Gupta formally declared the meet open, thereby paying homage to Major Dhayan Chand. Dr. Renu Shungloo, the Sports Head, appraised the gathering on his love for nation and achievements. The enthusiastic 110 participants from various schools then showcased their sparkling skills in the series of Paralympic Games - Hockey match, clay ART, Pyramid Race, soft ball throw, coloring competition, basket race, water fill and race, Candy Race Relay Race and Patriotic song competition. All the participants were given medals and all the winners of different games were awarded with medal by the Vice Chancellor of the university Dr. Ashok Gupta. Delighted in the luxury of freedom and time to play, the exhausted but rejuvenated participants were served refreshments.

Gender Sensitization

In the Declaration of Independence Thomas Jefferson had acknowledged the fact that all human beings are endowed with unalienable rights and so we can all strive to be happy. The society has differences based on which there are some necessary categorizations and these are meant to make society functional without compromising on the basic rights but there are also certain differences that amount to inequality and exclusion ;gender is one of the identities that often lead to cornering of humanity because of the complex inequality it involves .Gender is a social construct which demands people to act in certain ways depending on their biological make up curbing individual freedom . We have seen both men and women suffer due to societal pressure. Women have been at greater disadvantage in this regard and hence a lot of established norms need to be questioned, the society needs to be sensitized towards gender to create equal opportunities for both men and women.

In this direction Ms. Chanda Asani , Lecturer, Women Studies organized a session on 3rd August,2019 in A.V. hall under to address students on the topic “Gender Sensitization. The session began with discussion on minor observations in regard to treatment of gender especially women in various spaces like homes, workplaces, media etc. The objective was look into the reasons for specified discriminatory practices against women and the reasons for it. After this interactive session, the students were shown a movie titled ‘Ek naya Mayna’ that was based upon myths associated with menstrual cycle and how with a little effort we can normalize a natural biological phenomenon. The movie merely with two characters; mother and daughter sent a strong effective message as to why periods have certain taboos and what used to be the logic behind it. A woman is not polluted during menstrual cycle, this is only a societal narrow-mindedness that has been fuelled by rigid structures of the society. Girls must have the entire information about this bodily phenomenon and must respect themselves. This movie was directed by a Radhika Sharma ,student of MJMC with UGC assistance. The participatory group included students from Journalism, Home Science and Financial Studies. The screening of movie was followed by a lot of experience sharing on the part of the students. It was an eye opener for the students. The movie covered biological, psychological, and sociological dimensions associated with menstrual cycle. There was a special emphasis on menstrual health too. Overall, the session could address a lot of less-talked issues surrounding menstruation in the society.

Breast Cancer Awareness

Breast Cancer is the most common female cancer worldwide. In India, it accounts for 25% to 32% of female cancers, where in every four minutes one woman is diagnosed with breast cancer and in every thirteen minutes one woman dies of it. Therefore, it makes it essential to have cancer literacy in women and for this, an initiative was taken by Women Cell

Women Empowerment and Health

‘Progress has a plural connotation; it cannot be steered by a single person’. For any society to grow institutional approaches along with the involvement of community is equally essential as today’s world is moving towards greater interdependence. Dr. Rashmi Saraswat ,a doctor by profession represented Mahavir International ,Jaipur and oriented the students about the functioning and initiatives taken by the NGO and the impact of the same. They have started various national projects like ‘Vatsalya’ and ‘Amba’ which are focussing on the health of women during pregnancy and empowering women respectively. These two are just two of the nine national projects the organisation has undertaken to help the community.

As we know that India has a bleak picture to present when it comes to maternal health specially in the case of rural women and hence Mahavir international under various initiatives distribute ‘Poshan kit’ which consists of pulses ,nuts ,jaggery ,ORS and glucose etc. Their approach is to provide pregnant women with a nutritional kit that has all the essentials which are affordable and highly beneficial to the health of the women and they also provide women with baby kits which are prepared by the local women who are paid for the number of kits they make and hence this initiative has led to financial independence for women. The session exposed students to the vital roles that can be played by the community in development and specially women who are otherwise socially excluded . The students got the idea of how skill development programmes and awareness regarding government initiatives could be helpful. The initiatives of the organisation like breast-feeding booths for women in various parts of Jaipur motivated students to come up with new ideas that can help women.

The session indeed had a lot in store for the students to understand how NGOs spearhead development. Students did put up questions at the end of the session. It was truly inspirational to know how students can contribute towards society.

Focussed Group Interview

Women's Cell, Centre for Women's Studies and Department of Sociology, IIS (deemed to be University) organized the field visit to GanwarBrahmana village in Sanganer Tehsil on 2nd March 2020. Dr. Pragya Sharma and Dr. Preeti Agrawat escorted the students. Focused group interview was conducted with women and young girls of the village. Women discussed about various problems which many times they can't be able to discuss when general interview is conducted. Women opened up with problems related to menstrual hygiene, pregnancy, other health issues and child rearing. They even discussed about the problems existing in village regarding their political participation, working in MNAREGA, drainage and sanitation system of village, unavailability of proper health facilities in village, dissatisfaction regarding the working of Sarpanch and transportation facilities. Students also interacted with the school and college going girls to know about the education opportunities and awareness regarding hygiene. Women were very interactive and responded properly. They shared their experiences. Students tried to make them aware about the women's rights, hygiene and various government policies.

IISU MUN

The Commission on the Status of Women (CSW or UNCSW) is a functional commission of the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), one of the main UN organs within the United Nations. CSW has been described as the UN organ promoting gender equality and the empowerment of women. Every year, representatives of Member States gather at United Nations Headquarters in New York to evaluate progress on gender equality, identify challenges, set global standards and formulate concrete policies to promote gender equality and advancement of women worldwide.

To commemorate the Women's Day, the students of IIS University enacted the working of the CSW as part of the Model United Nations activity conducted by Department of Political Science and Centre for Women Studies, Women's Cell. The Agenda was 'Social Protection System, Access to Public Services and Sustainable Infrastructure for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women and Girls'. The purpose behind conducting this activity was to acquaint the students as to how to do extensive research, public speaking, and teamwork on the issues related to women on the world level.

Up to this day, no country, developing or developed, has achieved complete gender equality. To advance efforts at an international level, the General Assembly established the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women) in July 2010 with the universal directive “to achieve gender equality, women’s empowerment, and upholding women’s rights.” The work of UN-Women is guided by the principles laid down in the Convention on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action (BPfA), UN Security Council Resolution 1325 (2000) on “Women, Peace and Security,” the Millennium Declaration, Millennium Development Goals, and other norms related to women’s rights and gender equality. CEDAW and the BPfA are the cornerstones of the activity of UN-Women and provide the overall guiding principles for its work. Over the past 15 years, UN Member States have also gained greater awareness and understanding regarding the role women play in peace and security due in part to the adoption Security Council resolution 1325 (2000) on women, peace and security, and subsequent resolutions 1820 (2008), 1888 (2009), 1889 (2009), 1960 (2010), 2106 (2013), and 2122 (2013). These resolutions “represent a critical framework for improving the situation of women in conflict-affected countries,” and ground efforts at the international, regional, national and local levels to protect and promote women’s rights in conflict-affected situations. Supporting efforts to mainstream implementation of these global norms, as well as the principle of gender equality at the international, regional and national level is central to UNWomen’s mandate and at the heart of the organization’s mission. Achieving this mission is not a goal in itself but an important contribution to sustainable development as a whole.

The UNCSW committee of IISUMUN began with a brief introduction of the procedures and a short explanation to the Model United Nations. The Executive Board comprised of

Asma Khan (Co-Chairperson)

Shelly Panwar (Co-Chairperson)

Kritinaya Makwana (Vice-Chairperson and Rapporteur)

The MUN session commenced with a Roll Call. After the roll call, the Executive Board decided to begin with the General Speaker’s List which usually takes place at the start of each committee session. A motion is passed by a delegate of any country, and then the delegates who wish to speak, raise their placards. A GSL is a description of their country’s stance on the issues that are to be discussed in the committee. Preparing a GSL was mandatory for all delegates.

68 students were allotted with the countries in the committee, out of which 34 were present.

Active countries in the committee were:

Germany- Kushi Rathore, II

Brazil- Shikha Shekhawat, II

Venezuela- Devika, IV

Spain- Chandni Phophalia, II

India- Neha Gwala, VI

Bahrain- Divya Panwar

Bahamas- Anushka Agnihotri, VI

During the GSL varied controversial statements were made by the delegates. Some of the statements were-

India- "Women are provided with less opportunities in India"

Oman- "Sharia law is followed to the protect the Islamic women"

Moderated caucus is a debate format that allows delegates to make comments on a specific sub-issue. Typically, the Chairs will call on delegates who raise their placards to speak one at a time.

All motions were passed with a proper voting session. The topics for the motion raised in the moderated caucus were-

1. Raised by Germany- Social protection of women and prevailing health issues in economically weaker countries.
2. Raised by Venezuela- Crimes against women with special emphasis to female vaginal mutilation.

There was 1 un-moderated caucus held in the committee, in which delegates were allowed to leave their seats to mingle and speak freely. The un-moderated caucus was used to sort countries into blocs, to form alliances, and to write working papers and draft resolutions. There were 3 resolutions which were floored in the committee by the delegates. The resolution was passed by 14 votes in the committee, after all discussions, debates and corrections.

Interactive Session on Social Work Intervention in Various Settings with special reference to Women's Welfare

Advancement of any general public or state is decided by the position held by women in that society. Gender equality must be recognized by every society in order to progress. Indian society has achieved a lot in this regard but a lot needs to be done to make things better for women who have been at disadvantage for centuries.

Professor Ankur Saxena, discussed about various aspects of Social work interventions related to women welfare. Women are as yet fail to change the position that makes them much powerless against misuse and less ready to spare themselves from separation and viciousness. He shared few of his field experiences with students, with this piece of information he stated "relating theory with practical", is necessary in the field of social work. He talked about how people are suffering from mental illness and the interventions to deal with mental crisis.

He ended the session with the necessity of studying social work is increasing in our day today life. The overall session was informative, and it ended with a question-answer round. Shipra Goyal, student of Master of Social Work delivered vote of thanks. The session helped the students to gain knowledge regarding social work interventions which will be helpful for them to make more people aware.

Social Equality: A Challenge for Women in Society

On the occasion of International Women's day 2020, Dr. Priyamvada Singh spoke on 'Equality for Women' as she has started a campaign called 'Each for Equality' which tries to cover the issues of women across generations. Dr. Priyamvada commenced the session by talking about her journey in the field of social service and what factors motivated her to work for people. She spoke about various challenges faced by women in the society irrespective of their backgrounds and how they put other before themselves.

She discussed importance of education for women and the need for the women to improve upon their levels of nutrition. The problems should be addressed from the very beginning as individuals are taught to discriminate themselves and others specially on the basis of gender and this results in a society that starts taking women for second class citizens. As not just in rural areas but even in urban and semi urban areas women suffer from anemia and other diseases because of lack of proper health and nutrition which led to increase in infant mortality rate and birth of weak infants. She said that if the society wants to ensure safety for women; instead of restricting girls, boys should be taught make how to behave.

She also said if we want to invest in a woman, we should, do it since her childhood. A woman should have access to all life chances, social prestige and security to become a productive individual in the society. The session was followed by discussion and students asked their queries. In the end vote of thanks was given by Professor Sharad Rathore, Programme officer NSS.

SUSTAINABILITY AND CHEMICAL ELEMENTS

Department of Chemistry

The United Nations declared 2019 as the International Year of the Periodic Table of Chemical Elements in recognition of the 150th year of the arrangement of about 60 chemical elements known at that time in order of the periodic trend in their properties by Russian chemist Dmitry Mendeleev in the year of 1869. It was a reflection of the genius of Mendeleev that he correctly left gaps for the four elements, namely gallium (element 31), germanium (element 32), scandium (element 21) and technetium (element 43) which were discovered later. Subsequently, many other physicists and chemists contributed to the development of the modern Periodic Table which is based on the atomic numbers rather than the atomic weights. Now it has 118 elements of which only 90 occur naturally. It is amazing to think that everything around us is made up from just 90 building blocks – the naturally occurring chemical elements. A large number of these stable elements are of vital importance. The 99% of the human body is made of carbon, oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, phosphorus and calcium. Besides, 26 other elements in the form of molecules and complexes play active role in the body in metabolic reactions, such as enzymatic activities. Trace amounts of more than 30 other elements can be detected in the human body.

In fact, declaration of the year 2019 as the International Year of Chemistry and the year 2018 as International Year of the Periodic Table of Chemical Elements is the recognition of the immense contribution made by the discipline of Chemistry in different fields, such as agriculture, health care, drinking, housing, transport, living style and many others leading to the betterment of the human life. The advanced technologies of mining and extraction made uninterrupted supply of diverse elements possible, which could be used in different appliances.

According to an estimate, more than 30 elements are used in smart phones and the automobile industries use about 70 elements. However, uncontrolled use of the modern technologies started creating problems. For example, plastic, which was once considered a wonder discovery, has turned out to be one of the most serious environmental pollutants.

Likewise, uncontrolled mining and use of various elements has put a question mark on the sustainability of such a modern life style. The American Chemical Society has put 41 of the elements on a critical list meaning that these elements may face difficulty in uninterrupted supply in future. This list includes many such elements which are extensively used in many modern technologies, such as high-performance magnets, electronics, catalysis, glasses etc. Some of these elements, such as phosphorus are vital for life. In order to ensure availability of these elements, we shall have to fix our priorities and change the consumption.
