THE IISU COUNCIL

The Students' Council of the IIS University is the representative body of the entire student community. It is the interface between the students and the administration and the two work together to identify and address concerns that affect the students directly and indirectly. It represents the interests of the students and participates in discussions and decisions that affect the entire student body.

The members of the council are nominated through an open and transparent system which ensures that students from all faculties, programmes and departments have an equal opportunity of being selected. The members of the Council are nominated for a term of one year.

From acting as the students' voice and ensuring that each student gets the best out of their university experience, the Council works with a focus on an all round development of students. It organises several co-curricular events through the year, in association with the various activity clubs/ guilds on campus. The Council also organises most major events of the University like the Freshers' day, Thank You get together, the Annual day and the much awaited annual cultural fest - Cosmos. It is also actively involved in coordinating the participation of students in Inter University competitions and fests.

An extremely important domain of The Council is its role in streamlining the student volunteer effort for the Institute events that are organized periodically. The Council is headed by the Epahi Das (UG Council) and Apoorva Sharma (PG Council) who, in close association with other student members, work under the able leadership of the student welfare committee which includes faculty members.

ANNUAL PLAY -“SALEEB”

Annual Play of the University titled “Sakina- Rehearsing Manto in the times of Gang Rape” was performed on September 29, 2014 at RavindraManch. The chief guest for the evening was Dr. ArunChaturvedi. The show had a full house with audience comprising present students, parents, ex-students, eminent personalities from fraternity and media persons. The play depicted a state of unrest in the girls of today’s India who do not feel safe anywhere. It was a depiction of Sadat Hasan Manto’s short story “Khol Do”. In the play one could see different characters ask ‘Sakin’ (the center character of the play, who was gang raped during the partition) a single question that why didn’t she do something about it back then. If she would have done something then, the girls today; would have got a safe place to live in.

The play was an outcome of a month long workshop which started on August 30th, 2014 and lasted till September 28th, 2014. It was conducted by Atelier Theater Society, a Delhi based group. Under the direction of Mr. Kuljeet Singh and Mr. Vivek Sharma, students learned all the nuances of all the facets of theatre like acting, stage management, lighting and sound. Apart from acquainting students with the various details of performing theatre workshop also improved their interpersonal skill and observation ability. It also helped students to build their confidence.

AASHIRWAAD-2015 FAREWELL CEREMONY

Farewell day is an event filled with multi-emotions, one feels happy, yet sad. Smiles spread on every face and everyone feels nostalgic. Advice, wisdom, and encouragement spell out to motivate the graduating students.

The IIS University bid farewell to the outgoing batch of 2015 on the 9th of April, 2015 in the University Lawns.

The ceremony commenced on an auspicious note with the College Prayer. It was followed by a series of musical compositions rendered by juniors, outgoing students and faculty members of The IIS University. A colourful dance extravaganza was presented by the juniors to pay tribute to their talented seniors, wherein they presented their signature steps. While these dances earned a thundering applause, they also stole the show with their perfectly co-ordinated steps that had everyone jiving to their beats.

The Vice Chancellor, Dr. Ashok Gupta, also encouraged & motivated the outgoing batch & wished them luck for their future endeavours. Mementoes & a book of quotes were presented to the students as a token of remembrance.

The programme came to a close with the candle lighting ceremony which was the highlight of the evening. Later everybody proceeded for Dinner & Group photographs.

Thus an enchanting evening culminated, and with it both happiness and nostalgia crept into each one on the campus.
